The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court
(2023-2024)

An Act relative to archaic laws.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 3 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2020 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following section:-

Section 76. (a) There shall be a permanent law revision commission to consist of: the house and senate chairs of the joint committee on the judiciary, who shall serve as co-chairs; the attorney general or a designee; the chief justice of the supreme judicial court or a designee; the chief justice of the appeals court or a designee; 4 attorneys admitted to practice law in the commonwealth, 1 of whom shall be appointed by the senate president, 1 of whom shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives, 1 of whom shall be appointed by the senate minority leader and 1 of whom shall be appointed by the house minority leader; 1 person appointed by the Massachusetts District Attorneys Association; 1 person appointed by the committee for public counsel services; and 6 persons appointed by the governor, 4 of whom shall be faculty members of accredited law schools in the commonwealth and 2 of whom shall be admitted to practice law in the commonwealth.

(b) The counsel to the senate and the counsel to the house of representatives shall jointly provide personnel necessary to coordinate the activities of the commission and assist the commission in drafting legislative proposals, as requested.

(c) The appointed members of the commission shall serve staggered 4-year terms. Vacancies in the membership of the commission shall be filled by the original appointing authority for the balance of the unexpired term.

(d) The commission shall: (i) examine the common law and statutes of the commonwealth and judicial decisions for the purpose of identifying defects and anachronisms in the law and recommending needed reforms; (ii) receive and consider proposed changes in the law recommended by the American Law Institute, the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws, any bar association and any other learned body; (iii) receive and consider suggestions as to defects and anachronisms in the law from judges, justices, public officials, lawyers and the public; (iv) recommend changes in the law that the commission considers necessary to modify or eliminate antiquated and inequitable rules of law and to bring the law into harmony with modern conditions; (v) recommend the express repeal of statutes repealed by implication or held unconstitutional by a state or federal court; (vi) evaluate and make recommendations on the consolidation of session laws into the general laws; and (vii) make recommendations to improve the openness and accessibility of state laws, including the use of open-source software tools.

(e) The commission shall meet not less than 4 times annually. At the close of each regular session of the general court, the commission shall submit a report of its findings and recommendations, including drafts of any proposed legislation, to the clerks of the house of representatives and senate and the joint committee on the judiciary. The commission may also submit other recommendations and legislative proposals to the joint committee on the judiciary.
