The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court
(2023-2024)

An Act reforming the judicial system.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

SECTION 1. The Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 43B Rule 66 are hereby amended by striking out paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) of chapter 43B Rule 66. Justice must be sure for all, regardless of race, religion, gender or creed, or whether one is proceeding pro se (without an attorney).

SECTION 2. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, any rule issued to govern receivers that does not incorporate the rules that govern receivers in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 66, or that expands or elaborates upon those provisions, is invalid.

The striking out of paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) of Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 43B Rule 66 is required to bring the Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 43B into conformity with the United States Constitution and the Bill of Rights by guaranteeing all people their right to defend themselves and their property in the Massachusetts court system. The United States and Massachusetts Constitutions are not a discretionary call but a guarantee of protection to all individual's civil rights. The refusal of the court clerk or any party to a court action to produce vital records requested, action is automatically dismissed with no finding, to conform with Massachusetts Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 41 to guarantee documentation upon which any rulings are issued.
