The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court (2025-2026)

An Act requiring notice to landlords relating to gas or electric shutoffs.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 124 of Chapter 164 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after the 2 word "relates" the following new paragraph:

3 When a tenant is the customer of record, a gas or electric company must provide notice of 4 delinquent charges to the owner of a rental dwelling unit if the owner notifies the gas or electric
5 company in writing that a property served by the gas or electric company is a residential rental
6 property, asks to be notified of a tenant's delinquency, and has provided, in writing, a complete
7 and accurate mailing address. The gas or electric company shall serve notice of the delinquent 8 charges to the owner of the rental dwelling unit within 14 days of the date on which the tenant's
9 charges became past due. If the tenant seeks to terminate a service agreement at the rental 10 dwelling unit or in the absence of a duly constituted customer of record, a gas or electric

11 company must provide notice of the proposed termination of service to the owner of a rental 12 dwelling unit if the owner notifies the gas or electric company in writing that a property served 13 by the gas or electric company is a residential rental property, asks to be notified of a tenant's 14 delinquency, and has provided, in writing, a complete and accurate mailing address. The gas or 15 electric company shall serve notice of the proposed termination or absence of a duly constituted 16 customer of record to the owner of the rental dwelling unit 14 days prior to any scheduled 17 termination of service.
