HOUSE No. 1617

By Representative Chan of Quincy, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 1617) of Tackey Chan and Michael Morrissey relative to long-term protection of victims of violence. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court (2025-2026)

An Act relative to long-term protection of victims of violence.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 3 of chapter 209A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2022
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following subsection:-

3 (j) After a conviction or a change of plea and at sentencing in the Superior Court on 4 charges of:

5 (1) a felony which has as an element of the use, attempted use, or threatened use of 6 physical force against the person of another; or

7 (2) a misdemeanor or felony involving “abuse” as defined in section 1 or while a 209A
8 order was in effect against the defendant; or

9 (3) any of the following specific charges: (i) assault and battery on a family or household
10 member; (ii) assault and battery on a person 60 or older or a disabled person; (iii) assault with 11 intent to murder; (iv) attempt to murder; (v) strangulation or suffocation; (vi) assault and battery

12 causing serious bodily injury; (vii) assault and battery by means of a dangerous weapon; (viii)
13 assault and battery by means of a dangerous weapon causing serious bodily injury; (ix) mayhem;
14 (x) assault and battery; (xi) stalking; (xii) rape; (xiii) assault with intent to rape; (xiv)
15 kidnapping; or (xv) intimidation of a witness.

16 A judge in the Superior Court at the time of sentencing for crimes enumerated and
17 committed on a person who is family or a household member as defined in section 1, or a person
18 who is or was in a substantial dating relationship, and has an active order under this section, may 19 issue a permanent abuse prevention order at the request of a person who is or was in a substantial
20 dating relationship with the defendant or is a family or household member as defined in section 1
21 even if the original order was issued from the Boston Municipal Court, a District Court, or a
22 Probate Court and even if the family or household member is a minor. The order, as permitted
23 under section 2, may be issued without a further hearing date based on the facts of the case
24 which the Superior Court is sentencing the defendant at the request of the victim of violence so
25 long as the victim of violence already had an active protective order.
