In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court (2025-2026)

An Act relative to taxpayer conscience protection.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter 62 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2016 Official Edition of the General
2 Laws of Massachusetts, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following new 3 section:

4 "Section 65. (a) For the purposes of this section, "abortion services" shall include
5 performing, referring for abortion, or counseling for abortion.

6 (b) Taxpayers shall have the option to indicate on their income tax return that they do not
7 want any portion of their income tax liability to be utilized for abortion services. When a 8 taxpayer makes such election, the taxpayer's income tax liability may not be used to pay for 9 abortion services.

10 (c) The portion of the taxpayer's income tax liability that is not to be used to pay for 11 abortion services, pursuant to this section, must be deposited into a special account, separate and 12 apart from the General Fund, whose purpose shall be to develop and implement a public
13 information program to inform the general public of the provisions of section 39-½ of Chapter
14 119, concerning voluntary abandonment of a newborn infant, also known as the Baby Safe
15 Haven Law.

16 (d) The amount of the taxpayer's income tax liability to be set aside in the special account
17 specified in paragraph (c) shall be determined by multiplying the taxpayer's income tax liability
18 by the percentage of the General Fund dedicated to paying for abortion services in the previous 19 year."
