264 conversion.

265 (j) The provisions on notice to members and voting procedures in this section shall 266 govern the process for converting to a mutual bank notwithstanding other provisions of this

269 operative bank or credit union meetings and votes of the membership meetings of the credit 270 union shall be filed with the commissioner. The credit union shall also certify that the 271 information statement, plan, and other written materials provided to members were identical to 272 those materials considered satisfactory by the commissioner.

273 (l) If the commissioner disapproves of the methods by which the membership votes were 274 taken or the procedures applicable to the votes, the commissioner may direct that a new vote be 275 taken. If the commissioner does not disapprove of the methods by which the membership vote 276 was taken within 10 days after the notification is given, the vote shall be considered approved.

277 (m) If the conversion to a mutual savings bank or co-operative bank is approved by the 278 credit union members or if the conversion to a credit union is approved by the boards of a mutual 279 savings or co-operative bank and the commissioner receives notification from the converting 280 mutual savings bank, co-operative bank or credit union that approvals required under state and 281 federal law and regulations, including approvals needed for deposit insurance by the Federal

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the corporation may merge or consolidate such member or may facilitate the sale of assets of such member to and the assumption of its liabilities by one or more members.

The directors may also with the approval of the commissioner and in order to effect the purposes of this act, and without limiting the aforesaid powers of the corporation, provide any one or more of the following forms of financial assistance to a member in need of same: (a) purchase from such member the whole or any part of, or any equitable or any other interest in, its assets at the book value thereof, or at some other value mutually agreed upon by the directors of the member credit union and said directors of the corporation, notwithstanding that either of such values may exceed the market value of the assets so purchased, and upon such terms and conditions as said directors with the approval of the commissioner, may determine; (b) make loans to such member, and upon such terms and conditions, as said directors, with the approval of the commissioner, may determine; (c) pay to such member in accordance with an agreement entered into between such member and the corporation, with the approval of the commissioner, an amount not in excess of the difference between the book value of certain or all its assets and

351 the fair value thereof as determined by said agreement, in consideration for which such member 352 shall agree to write down such assets to such fair value and to pay over to the corporation so
353 much of any net proceeds realized from the sale or other disposition of each and all such assets 354 as is in excess of such fair value, such payment to be made in such amounts, at such times and 355 upon such terms and conditions as said directors, with the approval of the commissioner, may 356 determine; provided, that any amount paid by the corporation hereunder to such member and the

358 liabilities of such member only to the extent of any such excess from time to time actually 359 realized; (d) deposit a sum of money into the loan reserve, investment reserve, undivided 360 earnings or any other surplus accounts of such member in accordance with an agreement entered 361 into between such member and the corporation, with the approval of the commissioner, such 362 member being hereby authorized and empowered, notwithstanding any other provision of law, to 363 repay such amount to the corporation at such time or times and in such manner as such 364 agreement may prescribe; provided, that any such payment made by the corporation to such 365 member, and any agreement of such member to repay the same shall constitute liabilities of such 366 member only to the extent provided by said agreement. Such member, by vote of at least two-367 thirds of its directors, may take any and all action necessary or advisable to enable it to carry out 368 any or all provisions of this section.
