8 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the word “plan,” in line 15, the following

9 words:- or voluntary contributions to social welfare organizations or candidate or other political 10 committees pursuant to chapter 180B,

11 SECTION 4. The General Laws are hereby amended by adding after chapter 180A the 12 following chapter:-

13 CHAPTER 180B: PAYROLL DEDUCTIONS TO PROMOTE POLITICAL 14 PARTICIPATION THROUGH VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS TO NOT-FOR-PROFIT
15 SOCIAL WELFARE ORGANIZATIONS AND CANDIDATE OR OTHER POLITICAL 16 COMMITTEES

17 Section 1. Findings and public policy.

18 The general court hereby finds that many low-income residents of Massachusetts face 19 substantial obstacles to participating fully in the public and political life of their communities;
20 that financial barriers, including lack of access to credit cards and banking services, often prevent 21 these residents from contributing financially to not-for-profit social welfare organizations and 22 candidate or other political committees that engage in the political process and help shape the 23 policies that affect residents' lives; and that a payroll deduction mechanism would promote 24 political participation by enabling individuals to authorize small, regular deductions from their 25 pay at levels they can afford to contribute to political and advocacy organizations, eliminating 26 transaction costs for such contributions and permitting greater numbers of Massachusetts 27 residents to engage in the political process and to participate in community and civic life.

28 It is therefore declared to be the policy of the commonwealth to create a payroll
29 deduction mechanism for enabling voluntary contributions to not-for-profit social welfare 30 organizations and candidate or other political committees, available to any individual employed

31 by an employer with a system of payroll deduction and without cost to the individual or to the 32 employer.
