In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court (2025-2026)

An Act to modernize and streamline contributory retirement appeals.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 1. The Contributory Retirement Appeal Board codified in Ch. 32 sec. 16(4) is 2 hereby dissolved.

3 Section 2. Ch. 32 section 16(4) is hereby struck and is replaced by a new Ch. 32 sec.
4 16(4):

5 "Right of Appeal to Division of Administrative Law Appeals. On matters other than 6 those subject to review by the district court as provided for in subdivision (3), or other than those 7 which would have been subject to review had the requirement for the minimum period of 8 creditable service been fulfilled, any person when aggrieved by any action taken or decision of 9 the retirement board or the public employee retirement administration commission rendered, or 10 by the failure of a retirement board or the public employee retirement administration commission
11 to act, may appeal to the Division of Administrative Law Appeals as provided for in Ch. 7 sec.

12 4H, by filing therewith a claim in writing within 180 days of notification of such action or 13 decision of the retirement board or the commission, or may so appeal within fifteen days after 14 the expiration of the time specified in sections one to twenty eight, inclusive, within which a 15 board or the commission must act upon a written request thereto, or within 180 days after the 16 expiration of one month following the date of filing a written request with the board or the 17 commission if no time for action thereon is specified, in case the board or the commission failed 18 to act thereon within the time specified or within one month, as the case may be."

19 The division of administrative law appeals shall hold a hearing within 180 days of receipt
20 of an appeal. After the conclusion of such hearing, the Division of Administrative Law Appeals 21 shall submit to the parties a written decision within 180 days which shall be final and binding 22 upon the board involved and upon all other parties, and shall be complied with by such board and 23 by such parties.

24 Any person, upon making an appeal involving a disability retirement allowance, shall be 25 permitted to retire for superannuation retirement, if otherwise eligible, pending the decision of 26 the division of administrative law appeals, but in no event shall such action prejudice the person 27 from receiving any further benefits which the division of administrative law appeals may grant in 28 its decision nor shall the person upon a finding in favor of the employer be required to reimburse 29 the employer for payments made prior to the decision of the division of administrative law 30 appeals.

31 On appeals involving disability or where medical reports are part of the proceedings, the 32 division of administrative law appeals may request further information from the members of the 33 appropriate regional medical panel or may employ a registered physician to advise them in 34 determination of an appeal.

35 The division of administrative law appeals shall have the power to subpoena witnesses,
36 administer oaths and examine such parts of the books and records of the parties to a proceeding
37 as relate to questions in dispute. Fees for such witnesses shall be the same as for witnesses before 38 the courts in civil actions and shall be paid from the Appropriation Fund of the division of 39 administrative law appeals.

40 The division of administrative law appeals shall arrange for the publication of its 41 decisions and the cost of such publication shall be paid from the Appropriation Fund of the 42 division of administrative law appeals.

43 The division of administrative law appeals shall submit to the commissioner of 44 administration on an annual basis a report on the status of all cases that have been assigned to the 45 division of administrative law appeals for a hearing.

46 Transition rule for cases pending at CRAB on effective date of this Act.

47 For all cases pending before the Contributory Retirement Appeal Board on the effective 48 date of this act, the decision of the Division of Administrative Law Appeals shall be deemed 49 final and binding. Any party to the appeal shall be entitled to appeal the decision of Division of 50 Administrative Law Appeals to the Superior Court pursuant to Ch. 30A sec. 14.
