An Act to improve grandparent visitation rights.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter 119 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2020 Official Edition, is hereby 2 amended by striking section 39D and inserting the following:-

3 Section 39D. Visitation rights of grandparents and relatives of unmarried minor children;
4 eligibility, grounds for filing, “harm,” petition, process:

5 The grandparents or relatives to an unmarried minor child may be granted reasonable 6 visitation rights during the child’s minority by the probate and family court department of the 7 trial court upon a written finding that such visitation rights would be in the best interest of the 8 minor child. No such rights shall be granted if said minor child has been adopted by a person
9 other than a stepparent of such child, and any visitation rights granted pursuant to this section 10 prior to such adoption of the said minor child shall be terminated upon such adoption without 11 any further action of the court.

12 (a) Eligibility. Grandparents or other relatives may petition the court when: (i) one or 13 both of the minor child's parents are deceased; or (ii) the minor child's parents are divorced; or 14 (iii) the minor child's parents are married but living apart; or (iv) the minor child's parents are 15 under a temporary order or judgment of separate support; or (v) the minor child was born out of 16 wedlock, the child's parents never married and are living apart, and the petitioning
17 grandparent/relative can establish child's father has signed an acknowledgment of paternity or a 18 court of competent jurisdiction has adjudicated paternity. Such adjudication of paternity or 19 acknowledgment of paternity shall not be required under this section for maternal grandparents
20 seeking such visitation rights; or (vi) the minor child's parents are married but there is a 21 compelling state interest to protect against harm (or abuse) to the child's health, safety, or 22 welfare which shall include the child's physical, mental, emotional, spiritual, and/or moral 23 development.

24 (b) Grounds to grant visitation. The court shall grant visitation upon an agreement of the 25 parties, or if after a hearing on the merits, the court finds: (i) the child is dependent, neglected, or 26 abused in the parent's care; or (ii) there was a significant and positive relationship between the 27 grandparent/relative and minor child, and it is in the best interest of the child; or (iii) there is no 28 significant relationship, but it is in the child's best interest because curtailment or termination of 29 contact will result in significant harm to the child's health, safety and welfare. This shall include 30 protecting the welfare of a child who has experienced a disruption in the family unit from harm;
31 or (iv) the parent is deceased; or (v) the parent objects to the visitation, however, the petitioner
32 has demonstrated by clear and convincing evidence that the objection is unreasonable and serves 33 the child's best interest, and has demonstrated by a preponderance of the evidence that the 34 visitation will not substantially interfere with parent/child relationship; or (vi) the child resided

35 with the grandparent/relative who were primary caregivers for not less than 6 consecutive 36 months; or (vii) the minor child's parents are, or in the past have been, involved in dissolution,
37 child custody, legal separation, annulment or parentage proceedings involving said child. No 38 residency requirements shall be needed for the grandparents or relative.

39 A grandparent/relative shall not be required to present the testimony or affidavit of an 40 expert witness in order to establish a significant existing relationship with the minor child or that 41 the loss of the relationship is likely to cause significant emotional harm to the child. Instead, the 42 court shall consider whether the facts of the particular case would lead a reasonable person to 43 believe that there is a significant existing relationship between the grandparent and grandchild or 44 that the loss of the relationship is likely to occasion significant emotional or other harm to the 45 child.

46 (c) Harm. The following factors shall be considered in determining the existence of harm
47 to the minor child: (i) the length and quality of the relationship, (ii) the grandparent's/relative's
48 role in the child's life, (iii) emotional ties between the grandparent/relative and minor child, (iv)
49 whether the filing party has had ongoing contact or has tried to have ongoing contact with the 50 child, (v) a child's preference (assuming the child is mature enough and holds reasonable and 51 legitimate reasons when rejecting a parent), (vi) the parent's relationship with the child's 52 grandparent/relative, (vii) whether the grandparent/relative visitation interferes substantially with 53 the parent/child relationship, (viii) whether there was a preexisting significant existing 54 relationship, (ix) whether one parent is deceased or missing, and (x) whether a parent is unfit.

55 There shall be a presumption of emotional harm when: (i) the child has had such a 56 significant existing relationship with the grandparent/relative that breaking it off is likely to

57 inflict significant emotional harm on the child or cause other direct and significant harm to the 58 child; or (ii) the grandparent/relative functioned as the child's primary caregiver such that ending 59 the relationship could result in the child's daily needs not being met which could cause physical 60 and emotional harm to the child, or (iii) there is the death of a parent.

61 (d) Petition. A Petition for Grandparent/Relative Visitation authorized under this section 62 shall, where applicable, be filed in the county within the commonwealth in which the divorce or 63 separate support complaint or the complaint to establish paternity was filed. If the divorce,
64 separate support, or paternity judgment was entered without the commonwealth but the child 65 presently resides within the commonwealth, said petition may be filed in the county where the 66 child resides.

67 (e) Process. After a petition is filed in Family Court, the respondents in the petition must 68 be personally served with a summons including a copy of the petition. When return of service
69 has been returned to the court, the case shall be referred to mediation. If there has been a finding 70 of domestic violence or a no contact order is pending concerning the parties, there will not be a 71 mediation unless the victim's attorney requests a mediation and is present. In such cases, the 72 petition shall be docketed by the court for a timely hearing.

73 At the mediation, the mediator will assist the parties in coming to an agreement or 74 defining the issues which the parties cannot agree upon. If the parties are able to come to an 75 agreement, a stipulated agreement shall be written, signed by the parties, and immediately 76 provided to the court for approval and issuance of a modified order of visitation. If mediation is 77 unsuccessful, the petitioner shall have the court docket the petition for a full hearing which shall 78 take place no later than 60 days from the initial mediation date.

79           Subsequently, if either party files a Motion to Modify Visitation, the case shall be 80 referred to mediation (unless bypassed because of a finding of domestic violence or there is a 81 pending no contact order). In such cases, the petition shall be docketed by the court for a timely 82 hearing.

83           If the parties are able to come to an agreement, a stipulated agreement shall be written,
84 signed by the parties, and immediately provided to the court for approval and issuance of a
85 modified order of visitation. If the mediation is unsuccessful, the petitioner shall have the court 86 docket the petition for a full hearing which shall take place no later than 60 days from the initial 87 mediation date.
