Resolve establishing a durable power of attorney review commission.

1           Resolved, That there shall be a special legislative commission established pursuant to 2 section 2A of chapter 4 of the General Laws to do the following review and investigation of 3 durable powers of attorney: (i) how the provisions governing durable power of attorney are 4 codified and administered in the commonwealth; (ii) how they are used in practice; (iii) the 5 uniformity of durable power of attorney, including documents, forms, practices and powers;(iv)
6 the risk and prevalence of fraud or financial abuse of those under the care of a durable power of 7 attorney, (v) make an assessment of protections in Massachusetts laws and policies to protect 8 individuals from abuse from a durable power of attorney; (vi) make an assessment of legal 9 vehicles or pathways for those who have been financially abused; (vii) review and investigate 10 any other relevant topic the chairs deem necessary; and (viii) to make recommendations for 11 potential legislative changes and related policies as the commission deems appropriate.

12           In conducting its review, the commission shall seek to determine how durable power of 13 attorney is codified and put into practice under current Massachusetts law and policy with the 14 goal of ensuring these powers are not used to financially abuse, mislead or mistreat those under 15 the care of a durable power of attorney.

16           To assist the commission in carrying out its review, the secretary of elder affairs, the 17 director of the office on disability, the executive director of the disabled persons protection 18 commission and the commissioner of the department of children and families shall provide to the 19 commission any data and information the commission considers relevant to its charge.

20           The commission shall consist of: the secretary of elder affairs, or a designee, who shall 21 serve as a co-chair; the commissioner of the department of children and families, or a designee, 22 who shall serve as the other co-chair; the director of the office on disability, or a designee; the 23 executive director of the disabled persons protection commission, or a designee; the chairs of the 24 joint committee on the judiciary; the chairs of the joint committee on elder affairs; the chairs of 25 the joint committee on children, families, and persons with disabilities; the attorney general, or a 26 designee; the secretary of the commonwealth, or a designee; the speaker of the house of 27 representatives, or a house member designee; the president of the senate, or a senate member 28 designee; the minority leader of the house of representatives, or a house member designee; the 29 minority leader of the senate, or a senate member designee; the chief justice of the probate and 30 family court, or a designee; the president of the Massachusetts Bar Association or a designee; the 31 president of the Massachusetts Councils on Aging, or a designee; 1 person nominated by the 32 Alzheimer's Association; 1 person nominated by the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys 33 Massachusetts Chapter, a district attorney; and a member of law enforcement to be nominated by 34 the Massachusetts Chiefs of Police Association.

35           In appointing members of the commission, consideration shall be given to race, gender, 36 socioeconomic and geographic diversity that is reflective of the population of Massachusetts.

37           The special commission shall hold no fewer than 5 public meetings and incorporate 38 feedback from relevant advocacy organizations, care organizations, affected communities, 39 families and other relevant stakeholders from across the commonwealth as well as state and 40 federal experts in financial law and policy and financial crime.

41           The special commission shall submit a detailed report of its findings and 42 recommendations, along with drafts of legislation necessary to carry out its recommendations by 43 filing its report with the clerks of the house of representatives and the senate and the house and 44 senate committees on ways and means not later than March 1, 2027.
