In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court (2025-2026)

An Act relative to archaic laws.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 3 of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding the following 2 section:-

3 Section 76. (a) There shall be a permanent law revision commission consisting of: the 4 chairs of the joint committee on the judiciary or their designees, who shall serve as co-chairs; the 5 attorney general or a designee; 4 attorneys admitted to practice law in the commonwealth, 1 of 6 whom shall be appointed by the senate president, 1 of whom shall be appointed by the speaker of 7 the house of representatives, 1 of whom shall be appointed by the minority leader of the senate
8 and 1 of whom shall be appointed by the minority leader of the house of representatives; 1 9 person appointed by the Massachusetts District Attorneys Association; 1 person appointed by the 10 committee for public counsel services; and 3 persons appointed by the governor, 1 of whom shall 11 be a retired judge, 1 of whom shall be a faculty member of an accredited law school in the 12 commonwealth and 1 of whom shall be a historian with expertise in the laws of the 13 commonwealth.

14 (b) The counsel to the senate and the counsel to the house of representatives shall jointly 15 provide personnel necessary to coordinate the activities of the commission and assist the 16 commission in drafting legislative proposals, as requested.

17 (c) The appointed members of the commission shall serve staggered 4-year terms.
18 Vacancies in the membership of the commission shall be filled by the original appointing 19 authority for the balance of the unexpired term.

20 (d) The commission shall: (i) examine the common law, statutes of the commonwealth 21 and judicial decisions for the purpose of identifying defects and anachronisms in the law and 22 recommending needed reforms; (ii) receive and consider proposed changes in the law 23 recommended by the American Law Institute, the National Conference of Commissioners on 24 Uniform State Laws, any bar association and any other learned body; (iii) receive and consider 25 suggestions as to defects and anachronisms in the law from judges, justices, public officials, 26 lawyers and the public; (iv) recommend changes in the law to modify or eliminate antiquated and 27 inequitable rules of law and to bring the law into harmony with modern conditions; (v)
28 recommend the express repeal of statutes repealed by implication or held unconstitutional by a 29 state or federal court; (vi) evaluate and make recommendations on the consolidation of session 30 laws into the General Laws; and (vii) make recommendations to improve the openness and 31 accessibility of state laws, including the use of open-source software tools.

32 (e) The commission shall meet not less than 4 times annually. At the close of each regular 33 session of the general court, the commission shall submit a report of its findings and 34 recommendations, including drafts of any proposed legislation, to the clerks of the senate and the

35 house of representatives, the house and senate committees on ways and means and the joint 36 committee on the judiciary.
