The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court (2025-2026)

An Act restoring the furlough program for incarcerated persons.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 127 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section
2 90A and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

3 Section 90A. (a) The commissioner may extend the limits of the place of confinement of 4 a committed offender at any state correctional facility by authorizing such committed offender 5 under prescribed conditions to be away from such correctional facility but within the 6 commonwealth for a specified period of time, not to exceed 14 days during any 12 month period 7 nor more than 7 days at any one time.

8 (b) Such authorization may be granted for any of the following purposes: (i) to attend the 9 funeral of a relative; (ii) to visit a critically ill relative; (iii) to obtain medical, psychiatric,
10 psychological or other social services when adequate services are not available at the facility and 11 cannot be obtained by temporary placement in a hospital under sections one hundred and

12 seventeen, one hundred and seventeen A, and one hundred and eighteen; (iv) to contact 13 prospective employers; (v) to secure a suitable residence for use upon release on parole or 14 discharge; (vi) for any other reason consistent with the reintegration of a committed offender into 15 the community. For the purposes of this section the word “relative” shall mean the committed 16 offender’s father, mother, child, brother, sister, husband or wife and, if the committed offender’s 17 grandparent, uncle, aunt or foster parent acted as the committed offender’s parent in rearing such 18 committed offender, it shall also mean such grandparent, uncle, aunt or foster parent.

19 (c) A committed offender who is serving a life sentence or a sentence in a state
20 correctional facility for violation of section thirteen, thirteen B, 13B ½, 13B ¾, fourteen, fifteen,
21 fifteen A, fifteen B, sixteen, seventeen, eighteen, eighteen A, nineteen, twenty, twenty-one,
22 twenty-two, twenty-two A, 22B, 22C, twenty-three, 23A, 23B, twenty-four, twenty-four B,
23 twenty-five or section twenty-six of chapter two hundred and sixty-five, or section seventeen, 24 thirty-four, thirty-five, or section thirty-five A of chapter two hundred and seventy-two, or for an 25 attempt to commit any crime referred to in said sections may be eligible for such authorization
26 pursuant to subsections (a) and (b) upon the recommendation of the superintendent on behalf of a
27 particular committed offender and upon the approval of the commissioner. The administrator of a 28 county correctional facility may grant like authorization to a committed offender in such facility.

29 (d) A person away from a correctional facility pursuant to this section may be 30 accompanied by an employee of the department, in the discretion of the commissioner, or an 31 officer of a county correctional facility, in the discretion of the administrator.

32 (e) Any expenses incurred under the provisions of this section may be paid by the 33 correctional facility in which the committed offender is committed. A committed offender shall,

34 during the committed offender's absence from a correctional facility under this section, be 35 considered as in the custody of the correctional facility and the time of such absence shall be 36 considered as part of the term of sentence.

37 SECTION 2. Said chapter 127 is hereby further amended by striking out sections 83A
38 and 83B and inserting in place thereof the following 2 sections:-

39 Section 83A. The commissioner is hereby authorized to establish, on land under the 40 control of the department of environmental management or of the metropolitan district
41 commission and upon sites approved by the commissioner of conservation and recreation, camps 42 to which male prisoners, including male prisoners sentenced to life who have served 8 years may 43 be removed for employment, as designated and approved by the commissioner of conservation 44 and recreation, in reforestation, maintenance and development of state forests, who have shown 45 by their conduct and disposition that they would be amenable to less rigorous discipline and 46 would benefit from work in the open air; provided, however, that only one such camp may be 47 established on land within the urban parks district. Before any site for any such camp shall be 48 approved, a public hearing shall be held by the commissioner of conservation and recreation, in a 49 city or town situated within a radius of ten miles of the proposed site.

50 Section 83B. The commissioner may remove to any camp so established any prisoner 51 held in a correctional institution of the commonwealth except the Massachusetts Correctional 52 Institution, Framingham, and sentenced prisoners in jails and houses of correction, including 53 male prisoners sentenced to life who have served 8 years, except a prisoner serving a sentence 54 imposed for violation of sections twenty-two, 22A, 22B, 22C, twenty-three, 23A, 23B and 55 twenty-four of chapter two hundred and sixty-five and for attempt to commit a crime referred to

56 in said sections, who, in his judgment, may properly be so removed and may at any time return
57 such prisoners to the prison from whence removed. Prisoners so removed shall be entitled to a 58 permit to be at liberty as provided under the provisions of sections 128 and 133 of chapter 127.

59 If a prisoner escapes or attempts to escape from a prison camp all deductions from the 60 sentence he is then serving shall be thereby forfeited. A prisoner who is entitled to have the term 61 of his imprisonment reduced shall receive from the parole board a certificate of discharge and 62 shall be released from the prison camp on the date which has been determined by such additional 63 deduction from the maximum term of his sentence or sentences.

64 SECTION 3. Said chapter 127 is hereby further amended by striking out section 97 and 65 inserting in place thereof the following section:-

66 Section 97. The commissioner may transfer any sentenced prisoner from one correctional 67 institution of the commonwealth to another, and with the approval of the sheriff of the county
68 from any such institution except a prisoner who has not served at least 8 years of a life sentence 69 to any jail or house of correction, or a sentenced prisoner from any jail or house of correction to 70 any such institution except the Massachusetts Correctional Institution, Cedar Junction, or from 71 any jail or house of correction to any other jail or house of correction. Prisoners so removed shall 72 be subject to the terms of their original sentences and to the provisions of law governing parole 73 from the correctional institutions of the commonwealth.
