The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court (2025-2026)

An Act relative to insurance coverage of mobile integrated health.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 32A of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 2 section 17R the following new section:-

3 Section 17S. The group insurance commission and any carrier as defined in section 1 of 4 chapter 176O or other entity which contracts with the commission to provide health benefits to 5 eligible employees and retirees and their eligible dependents shall not decline to provide 6 coverage for medical, behavioral or health care services solely on the basis that those services 7 were delivered by a health care provider, as defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, participating in 8 a mobile integrated health care program approved by the department of public health pursuant to 9 chapter 111O. Medical, behavioral or health care services delivered by way of an approved 10 mobile integrated health care program shall be covered to the same extent as if they were 11 provided in a health care facility, as defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, and the rates of 12 payments for otherwise covered services shall not be reduced on the grounds that those services
13 were delivered by a health care provider participating in an approved mobile integrated health

14 care program. A contract that provides coverage for care delivered may contain a provision for a
15 deductible, copayment or coinsurance requirement for a service provided by a health care 16 provider participating in an approved mobile integrated health care program as long as the 17 deductible, copayment or coinsurance does not exceed the deductible, copayment or coinsurance
18 applicable to delivery of the same services within a health care facility.

19 SECTION 2. Chapter 111O of the General Laws is hereby amended in section 2 by 20 adding the following subsection:-

21 (c) MIH programs that are focused on behavioral health services shall not be subject to 22 application and registration fees.

23 SECTION 3. Chapter 118E of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 24 section 10N the following new section:-

25 Section 10O. The division and its contracted health insurers, health plans, health 26 maintenance organizations, behavioral health management firms and third party administrators
27 under contract to a Medicaid managed care organization, the Medicaid primary care clinician 28 plan, or an accountable care organization shall not decline to provide coverage for medical, 29 behavioral or health care services solely on the basis that those services were delivered by a 30 health care provider, as defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, participating in a mobile integrated 31 health care program approved by the department of public health pursuant to chapter 111O.
32 Medical, behavioral or health care services delivered by way of an approved mobile integrated 33 health care program shall be covered to the same extent as if they were provided in a health care
34 facility, as defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, and the rates of payments for otherwise covered 35 services shall not be reduced on the grounds that those services were delivered by a health care

36 provider participating in an approved mobile integrated health care program. A contract that 37 provides coverage for care delivered may contain a provision for a deductible, copayment or 38 coinsurance requirement for a service provided by a health care provider participating in an 39 approved mobile integrated health care program as long as the deductible, copayment or 40 coinsurance does not exceed the deductible, copayment or coinsurance applicable to delivery of 41 the same services within a health care facility.

42 SECTION 4. Chapter 175 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 43 inserting after section 47PP the following new section:-

44 Section 47QQ. Any policy, contract, agreement, plan or certificate of insurance issued, 45 delivered or renewed within the commonwealth, shall not decline to provide coverage for 46 medical, behavioral or health care services solely on the basis that those services were delivered 47 by a health care provider, as defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, participating in a mobile
48 integrated health care program approved by the department of public health pursuant to chapter
49 111O. Medical, behavioral or health care services delivered by way of an approved mobile
50 integrated health care program shall be covered to the same extent as if they were provided in a
51 health care facility, as defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, and the rates of payments for 52 otherwise covered services shall not be reduced on the grounds that those services were delivered
53 by a health care provider participating in an approved mobile integrated health care program. A
54 contract that provides coverage for care delivered may contain a provision for a deductible,
55 copayment or coinsurance requirement for a service provided by a health care provider
56 participating in an approved mobile integrated health care program as long as the deductible,
57 copayment or coinsurance does not exceed the deductible, copayment or coinsurance applicable
58 to delivery of the same services within a health care facility.

59 SECTION 5. Chapter 176A of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 60 inserting after section 8QQ the following new section:-

61 Section 8RR. Any contract between a subscriber and the corporation under an individual 62 or group hospital service plan which is delivered, issued or renewed within the commonwealth 63 shall not decline to provide coverage for medical, behavioral or health care services delivered by 64 a health care provider, as defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, participating in a mobile
65 integrated health care program approved by the department of public health pursuant to chapter
66 111O. Medical, behavioral or health care services delivered by way of an approved mobile
67 integrated health care program shall be covered to the same extent as if they were provided in a
68 health care facility, as defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, and the rates of payments for
69 otherwise covered services shall not be reduced on the grounds that those services were delivered
70 by a health care provider participating in an approved mobile integrated health care program. A
71 contract that provides coverage for care delivered may contain a provision for a deductible,
72 copayment or coinsurance requirement for a service provided by a health care provider
73 participating in an approved mobile integrated health care program as long as the deductible,
74 copayment or coinsurance does not exceed the deductible, copayment or coinsurance applicable
75 to delivery of the same services within a health care facility.

76 SECTION 6. Chapter 176B of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 77 inserting after section 4QQ the following new section:-

78 Section 4RR. Any subscription certificate under an individual or group medical service 79 agreement delivered, issued or renewed within the commonwealth shall not decline to provide 80 coverage for medical, behavioral or health care services delivered by a health care provider, as

81 defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, participating in a mobile integrated health care program 82 approved by the department of public health pursuant to chapter 111O. Medical, behavioral or 83 health care services delivered by way of an approved mobile integrated health care program shall 84 be covered to the same extent as if they were provided in a health care facility, as defined in 85 section 1 of chapter 111O, and the rates of payments for otherwise covered services shall not be 86 reduced on the grounds that those services were delivered by a health care provider participating 87 in an approved mobile integrated health care program. A contract that provides coverage for care 88 delivered may contain a provision for a deductible, copayment or coinsurance requirement for a 89 service provided by a health care provider participating in an approved mobile integrated health 90 care program as long as the deductible, copayment or coinsurance does not exceed the 91 deductible, copayment or coinsurance applicable to delivery of the same services within a health 92 care facility.

93 SECTION 7. Chapter 176G of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 94 inserting after section 4GG the following new section:-

95 Section 4HH. Any individual or group health maintenance contract that is issued or 96 renewed shall not decline to provide coverage for medical, behavioral or health care services
97 delivered by a health care provider, as defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, participating in a 98 mobile integrated health care program approved by the department of public health pursuant to
99 chapter 111O. Medical, behavioral, or health care services delivered by way of an approved
100 mobile integrated health care program shall be covered to the same extent as if they were
101 provided in a health care facility, as defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, and the rates of
102 payments for otherwise covered services shall not be reduced on the grounds that those services
103 were delivered by a health care provider participating in an approved mobile integrated health

104 care program. A contract that provides coverage for care delivered may contain a provision for a
105 deductible, copayment or coinsurance requirement for a service provided by a health care
106 provider participating in an approved mobile integrated health care program as long as the
107 deductible, copayment or coinsurance does not exceed the deductible, copayment or coinsurance
108 applicable to delivery of the same services within a health care facility.

109 SECTION 8. Chapter 176I of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 110 inserting after section 13 the following new section:-

111 Section 14. An organization entering into a preferred provider contract shall not decline 112 to provide coverage for medical, behavioral or health care services delivered by a health care
113 provider, as defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, participating in a mobile integrated health care 114 program approved by the department of public health pursuant to chapter 111O. Medical, 115 behavioral, or health care services delivered by way of an approved mobile integrated health care 116 program shall be covered to the same extent as if they were provided in a health care facility, as 117 defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, and the rates of payments for otherwise covered services
118 shall not be reduced on the grounds that those services were delivered by a health care provider 119 participating in an approved mobile integrated health care program. A contract that provides 120 coverage for care delivered may contain a provision for a deductible, copayment or coinsurance
121 requirement for a service provided by a health care provider participating in an approved mobile 122 integrated health care program as long as the deductible, copayment or coinsurance does not 123 exceed the deductible, copayment or coinsurance applicable to delivery of the same services 124 within a health care facility.
