The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court
(2025-2026)

Resolve providing for an investigation and study by a special commission relative to the consumer impacts of electronic textbooks.

1 Resolved, that a special commission is hereby established to study the consumer impacts
2 of electronic textbooks, including, but not limited to, the following: (1) identifying the benefits 3 and advantages of electronic textbooks to student consumers, (2) identifying the impact and 4 disadvantages of electronic textbooks to student consumers, including methods used to determine 5 the cost of, and limit their resale, sharing, and renting; the consequences for consumers of the 6 single-user limited access model related to electronic textbook availability, and the prevalence of 7 limiting physical print production to limit access to consumer alternatives, (3) identifying the 8 ways in which electronic textbook contracts affect and limit consumer choice in accessing 9 educational materials, (4) evaluating the clarity of electronic textbook contracts in providing 10 essential factual consumer information around actual costs and savings, and (5) evaluating the 11 impacts of participation quotas and institutional incentives, reimbursements, and other methods 12 used in electronic textbook contracts with institutions of higher education on the availability and 13 awareness of options for student consumers and on the finances of the institution.

14 Resolved, the special commission shall consist of: 1 person shall be the commissioner of 15 higher education or a designee with expertise on electronic and open educational resources, who 16 will act as chair of the commission; 1 of whom shall be a representative of a student advocacy
17 group, 1 of whom shall be a representative of a library who has experience with and knowledge
18 of electronic textbooks or open educational resources from a Massachusetts public university, 1 19 of whom shall be a representative of a library who has experience with and knowledge of 20 electronic textbooks or open educational resources from a Massachusetts community college, 1 21 of whom shall be a representative of a library who has experience with and knowledge of 22 electronic textbooks or open educational resources from a Massachusetts state university, 1 of 23 whom shall be a faculty member from a Massachusetts public university who has educator 24 experience with using electronic textbooks or open educational resources, 1 of whom shall be a 25 faculty member from a Massachusetts community college who has educator experience with 26 using electronic textbooks or open educational resources, 1 of whom shall be a faculty member 27 from a Massachusetts state university who has educator experience with using electronic 28 textbooks or open educational resources, 1 of whom shall be a representative from the electronic 29 textbook industry, 1 of whom shall be a representative from a higher education-based financial 30 aid office or basic needs office who is knowledgeable on college affordability and student 31 financial challenges, 1 of whom shall be a member of the House of Representatives appointed by 32 the speaker of the House, and 1 of whom shall be a member of the Senate appointed by the 33 Senate President.

34 Said commission will ensure that its meetings shall be open to the public, notes will be 35 taken and made available. The appointment of the commissioners shall occur within 30 days
36 after the effective date of this resolve. The commission shall convene its first meeting no later

37 than 45 days after the bill's enactment. The commission shall meet as often as needed to 38 complete its report.

39 Said commission shall report to the clerks of the house of representatives and senate, the 40 chairs of the joint committee on consumer protection and professional licensure, and the chairs 41 of the joint committee on higher education the results of its investigation and its 42 recommendations, together with drafts of proposed legislation or regulations necessary to carry 43 its recommendations into effect within 18 months of enactment.

44 The special commission shall dissolve 30 days after the submission of the report, unless 45 upon a two-thirds vote of the Commission, a continuance is deemed necessary to complete the 46 purpose of the Commission. The time frame of said continuance must be specified in the motion 47 to extend time of operation.
