The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court (2025-2026)

An Act protecting labor and abolishing barriers to organizing rights.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 150 of the Massachusetts General Laws is hereby amended to 2 repeal sections 3 through 9, inclusive.

3 SECTION 2. Section 1 of Chapter 150A of the Massachusetts General Laws is hereby 4 amended by adding the following new paragraphs:-

5 Experience has also proven that maximizing access to the collective and individual 6 protections afforded by established federal and state labor laws as well as ensuring stable, 7 effective, and efficient labor-management relations, is a vital state interest with critical impacts 8 on the Commonwealth’s economic and social development.

9 In the absence of applicable law setting forth the rights and obligations of parties engaged 10 in labor-management relations, as well as procedures for the enforcement of the same, the 11 Commonwealth, its employers and employees would face uncertainty in determining the 12 applicable law.

13 For the reasons expressed above, securing the respective rights of employees, labor 14 organizations, and employers with regard to labor-management relations in the Commonwealth 15 is imperative to our state's health and prosperity. Therefore, the General Court declares that 16 should Federal law cease to preempt the regulation of private sector labor-management relations 17 in the Commonwealth, as a whole or any portion thereof, with regard to any employer, 18 employees [or workers], trade or industry, G.L. c. 150A shall hereby apply in full force and 19 effect.

20 Further, the General Court declares that should the National Labor Relations Board 21 determine that any employer, employees, trade or industry, as defined in section 16, falls outside 22 the jurisdiction of the National Labor Relations Act, or should the Board decline jurisdiction 23 over the same, G.L. c. 150A shall hereby apply in full force and affect.

24 It is further declared to be the policy of the Commonwealth, in the interest of allowing 25 employees not covered by operation of Federal law, whether by statute or by any other means, 26 the full freedom to associate with whom they choose for mutual aid and protection in 27 employment, to eliminate strife, and to efficiently and effectively seek labor organization 28 representation. This includes (a) to promote collective bargaining private sector and their 29 employees within the Commonwealth; (b) to protect the right of employees to organize and 30 select collective bargaining representatives of their own choosing; and (c) to prevent lockouts, 31 strikes, slowdowns or withholding of goods or services.

32 SECTION 3. Section 2 of Chapter 150A of the General Laws is hereby amended by 33 striking out paragraph (2) and inserting in place thereof:-

34 (2) The word "employer" shall include any person having at least one employee in his 35 service or otherwise acting as or in the interest of an employer, directly or indirectly, and shall 36 include, but not be limited to, any health care facility, any nonprofit institution, or any vendor 37 who contracts with or receives funds from the commonwealth or its political subdivisions, or 38 both, to provide social, protective, legal, medical, custodial, rehabilitative, respite, nutritional, 39 employment, educational, training, and other similar services to the commonwealth or its 40 political subdivisions, but shall not include the commonwealth or political subdivision thereof, 41 except in the case of a health care facility. No person shall by a special contract with an 42 employee or by any other means exempt himself from this section.

43 SECTION 4. Said section 2 of said chapter 150A is hereby further amended by striking 44 out paragraph (3) and inserting in place thereof:-

45 (3) Except as otherwise provided in section three A, the word "employee" shall include 46 any employee, and shall not be limited to the employees of a particular employer, unless the 47 chapter explicitly states otherwise, and shall include any individual whose work has ceased as a 48 consequence of, or in connection with, any current labor dispute or because of any unfair labor 49 practice, and who has not obtained any other regular and substantially equivalent employment, 50 and shall include, but not be limited to, any employee of a health care facility or of any nonprofit 51 institution, except members of religious orders, or any employees of vendors who contract with 52 or receive funds from the commonwealth or its political subdivisions to provide social, 53 protective, legal, medical, custodial, rehabilitative, respite, nutritional, employment, educational, 54 training, and other similar services to the commonwealth or its political subdivisions, but shall 55 not include any individual employed as an agricultural worker, except as provided in section five 57 his parent or spouse.

170 corresponding principal officers, containing the name under which such person is engaged in 171 doing business and the address of its principal office, and a detailed statement of the terms and 172 conditions of such agreement or arrangement. Every such person shall file annually, with respect

181 SECTION 20. Chapter 150A of the Massachusetts General Laws is hereby amended by 182 striking section 6 and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

183           Section 6. (a) The department is empowered, as hereinafter provided, to prevent any 184 person from engaging in any unfair labor practice listed in sections four, four A, four B and four 185 C affecting industry, trade or health care. This power shall be exclusive, and shall not be affected 186 by any other means of adjustment or prevention that has been or may be established by 187 agreement, code, law, or otherwise.

188           (b) Whenever it is charged that any person has engaged in or is engaging in any such 189 unfair labor practice, the department shall have power to issue and cause to be served upon such 190 person a complaint stating the charges in that respect, and containing a notice of hearing before 191 the department's agent, at a place therein fixed, not less than five days after the serving of said 192 complaint. Any such complaint may be amended by the department's agent conducting the 193 hearing or the department in its discretion at any time prior to the issuance of an order based 194 thereon. The person so complained of shall have the right to file an answer to the original or 195 amended complaint and to appear in person or otherwise and give testimony at the place and 196 time fixed in the complaint. In the discretion of the department or its agent conducting the 197 hearing, any other person may be allowed to intervene in the said proceeding and to present
198 testimony. In any such proceeding the rules of evidence prevailing in courts of law or equity 199 shall not be controlling.

200           (c) If upon the record before him such agent shall determine that an unfair labor practice 201 has been committed by a person named in the complaint, he shall issue and cause to be served 202 upon such person an order requiring such person to cease and desist from such unfair labor 203 practice, and to take such further affirmative action as will effectuate the provisions of this 204 chapter, including, but not limited to, the relief permitted in sub-section (d) of this Section. If the 205 agent determines that an unfair labor practice has not been committed, he shall issue an order

206 dismissing the complaint. An order issued pursuant to this subsection shall become final and 207 binding unless, within ten days after notice thereof, any party requests review by the board. A 208 review may be made upon a written statement of the case by the agent agreed to by the parties, or 209 upon written statements furnished by the parties, or, if any party or the board requests, upon a 210 transcript of the testimony taken at the hearing, if any, together with such other testimony as the 211 board may require.

212           If upon the record before it the board determines that an unfair practice has been 213 committed it shall state its findings of fact and issue and cause to be served on the person an 214 order requiring such person to cease and desist from such unfair labor practice, and to take such 215 further affirmative action as will effectuate the provisions of this chapter. If upon the record 216 before it the board determines that an unfair labor practice has not been committed, it shall state 217 its findings of fact and shall issue an order dismissing this complaint.

218           (d) (1) If the department finds that an employer has discriminated against an employee in 219 violation of paragraph (3) or (4) of section 10(a) or has committed a violation of section 10(a) 220 that results in the discharge of an employee or other serious economic harm to an employee, the 221 department shall award the employee back pay without any reduction (including any reduction 222 based on the employee's interim earnings or failure to earn interim earnings), front pay (when 223 appropriate), consequential damages, an additional amount as liquidated damages equal to three 224 (3) times the amount of damages awarded, punitive damages where appropriate, and reasonable 225 attorneys' fees and costs.

226 An employer found to have violated the Law may not seek to avoid damages under this 227 Section by asserting that, during the course of employment, an employee did not meet all 228 qualifications for the job they filled as required by law.

229 (2) If the department finds that an employer has violated section 10(a) of the Law, but 230 that sub-section (d)(1) is inapplicable, the department shall issue civil penalties for each violation 231 of the law no less than $10,000, which shall accrue to the Commonwealth, in addition to the 232 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of the prevailing party.

233 (3) Any person who fails or neglects to obey an order of the department shall forfeit and 234 pay to the department a civil penalty of $25,000 for each violation, which shall accrue to the 235 Commonwealth and may be recovered in a civil action brought by the department to the superior 236 court in the county in which the unfair labor practice or other subject of the order occurred, or in 237 which such person or entity resides or transacts business. No action by the department under this 238 paragraph may be made until 30 days following the issuance of an order, or in the event of a 239 request for review by the commission, 30 days following the issuance of the commission's order.
240 Each separate violation of such an order shall be a separate offense, except that, in the case of a 241 violation in which a person fails to obey or neglects to obey a final order of the department, each 242 day such failure or neglect continues shall be deemed a separate offense.

243 (4) In awarding punitive damages under paragraph (d)(1) of this section, the court shall 244 consider—

245 (A) the gravity of the unfair labor practice;

246 (B) the impact of the unfair labor practice on the charging party, on other persons seeking 247 to exercise rights guaranteed by this Act, and on the public interest; and 248 (C) the gross income of the employer.

249 (5) The president and treasurer of a corporation and any officers or agents having the 250 management of such corporation shall be deemed to be the employers of the employees of the 251 corporation within the meaning of this Section. Individual liability for both damages and civil 252 penalties shall be assessed against any president, treasurer, officer or agent having the 253 management of a corporation where the department finds that such individual directed or 254 committed the violation, had established a policy that led to such a violation, or had actual or 255 constructive knowledge of and the authority to prevent the violation and failed to prevent the 256 violation.

257 (e) Until the record in a case shall have been filed in a court, as hereinafter provided, the 258 board may at any time, upon reasonable notice and in such manner as it shall deem proper, 259 modify or set aside, in whole or in part, any finding or order made or issued by it.

260 (f) The board may institute appropriate proceedings in the appeals court for enforcement 261 of its final orders.

262 (g) Any party aggrieved by a final order of the board may institute proceedings for 263 judicial review in the appeals court within thirty days after receipt of said order. The 264 proceedings in the appeals court shall, insofar as applicable, be governed by the provisions of 265 section fourteen of chapter thirty A.

266 SECTION 21. Chapter 150A of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking section 267 6A and inserting in place the following section thereof:-

268           Section 6A. Any employee who is required as a condition of employment to be a member 269 in good standing of a labor organization may file with the department a charge alleging (1) that, 270 although eligible to membership, he has been unfairly denied admission to, or unfairly suspended 271 or expelled from membership in, such organization for reasons other than malfeasance in office 272 or non-payment of regular initiation fees, dues, or assessments and (2) that such labor 273 organization has requested, or is about to request, his employer to discharge or otherwise 274 discriminate against him because of his failure to maintain membership in good standing in such 275 organization or; provided, that such charge shall be filed not more than fifteen days after notice 276 of such request has been given the employee by the labor organization. Upon filing of such 277 charge, the department shall have power to issue and cause to be served upon the labor 278 organization a complaint stating the charge in that respect and containing a notice of hearing.
279 The notice shall be given and the subsequent proceedings shall be conducted in the manner 280 provided in section six. If upon all the evidence the department shall determine that the employee 281 was unfairly denied admission to membership in such organization, or that such discipline—

282           (1) Was imposed by the labor organization in violation of its constitution and by-laws; or

283           (2) Was imposed without a fair trial, including an adequate hearing and opportunity to 284 defend; or

285           (3) Was not warranted by the offense, if any, committed by the employee against the 286 labor organization;

287           (4) Is not consistent with the established public policy of the commonwealth; or 288 (5) Or that discrimination or discharge was requested or about to be requested by the 289 labor organization, notwithstanding the employee's payment in full of all applicable agency 290 service fees in lieu of membership;

291 then the department shall state its determinations and shall issue and cause to be served 292 on the labor organization an order requiring it, in its discretion, either to admit or restore the 293 employee to membership in good standing together with full voting rights, or else to refrain from 294 seeking to bring about any discrimination against him in his employment because he is not a 295 member in good standing, and to return to him such union dues and assessments as may have 296 been collected from him during the period of his suspension or expulsion from the union. If 297 department shall not make such a determination after hearing, it shall enter an order dismissing 298 the charge filed by the employee.

299 Nothing contained in this section or in section four shall be deemed to require a labor 300 organization as a condition of making or enforcing a contract requiring membership therein as a 301 condition of employment, to accord to non-participants in an insurance plan the right to vote on 302 questions pertaining thereto or to grant local organizations voting rights in a convention 303 proportionate to their membership.

304 SECTION 22. Section 6C of chapter 150A of the General Laws is hereby amended by 305 adding after the word "assessments" the following words:- or in the alternative, the applicable 306 agency service fee

307 SECTION 23. Chapter 150A of the Massachusetts General Laws is hereby amended by 308 adding, after section 6C, the following new section:-

309 Section 6D.

310           1. A party filing an unfair labor practice charge under Sections 10(a)(1), (3) or (4) may, 311 concurrent with filing its unfair labor practice charge, or anytime subsequent thereto, petition the 312 department for pre-hearing injunctive relief (“interim injunctive relief”), pending a decision on 313 the merits of said charge by the department, upon the department’s determination that: (i) there is 314 probable cause to believe a unfair labor practice has occurred, (ii) barring the requested 315 immediate injunctive relief, the moving party will be irreparably injured, thereby rendering the 316 department’s ultimate judgment on the merits ineffectual, (iii) the harm to the moving party 317 exceeds the harm the non-moving party is likely to suffer as a result of the preliminary 318 injunction, and (iv) the public interest favors the grant of the preliminary injunction. Such 319 immediate and irreparable harm may include the chilling of workers in the exercise of rights 320 provided by this chapter.

321           2. Within fifteen (15) business days of its determination of probable cause or fifteen (15) 322 business days after a petition for injunctive relief is filed post-petition, whichever is later, 323 department shall provide notice to the parties of its intention to grant the moving party’s 324 petition requesting that the department seek interim injunctive relief. If no petition for 325 injunctive relief is filed, upon a finding of probable cause, the department may elect, on its own 326 volition, to pursue injunctive relief.

327           3. Should the department elect to pursue interim injunctive relief, a complaint, a motion 328 seeking interim injunctive relief, and a memorandum in support thereof shall be filed with the 329 Superior Court of Suffolk County consistent with the Massachusetts Rules of Civil Procedure.

330           4. Any grant of interim injunctive relief by the Suffolk Superior Court shall be consistent 331 with the Massachusetts jurisprudence governing injunctive relief. In ordering interim injunctive 332 relief, the superior court shall establish the duration of relief, notice requirements, and terms for 333 compliance. The court may also remand supervision of the interim injunctive relief to the 334 Department.

335 5. The Suffolk Superior Court's order on interim injunctive relief may be appealed by the 336 department or the unfair labor practice respondent, pursuant to section 118 of chapter 231 337 of the general laws.

338

342 department, are necessary and proper for the exercise of the powers vested in it by sections five, 343 six, six A and six B—

344 (1) The department, or the board upon a request for review, shall at all reasonable times 345 have access to, for the purpose of examination, and the right to copy any evidence of any person 346 being investigated or proceeded against that relates to any matter under investigation or in 347 question. Any agent of the department, or the board upon a request for review, shall have power 348 to issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of any 349 evidence that relates to any matter under investigation or in question before the department at a 350 hearing or investigation or before the board upon a request for review. The department or any 351 agent of the department, or the board upon a request for review, may administer oaths and 352 affirmations, examine witnesses, and receive evidence. Such attendance of witnesses and the 354 designated place of hearing.

355 (2) In case of contumacy or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to any person, the superior 356 court within the jurisdiction of which the inquiry is carried on or within the jurisdiction of which 357 said person guilty of contumacy or refusal to obey is found or resides or transacts business, upon 358 application by the department or board shall have jurisdiction to issue to such person an order 359 requiring such person to appear before the department or board, respectively, there to produce 360 evidence if so ordered, or there to give testimony, touching the matter under investigation or in 361 question; and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by said court as a 362 contempt thereof.

363 (3) No person shall be excused from attending and testifying or from producing books, 364 records, correspondence, documents or other evidence in obedience to the subpoena of the 365 department or board, on the ground that the testimony or evidence required of him may tend to 366 incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture; but no individual shall be prosecuted or 367 subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing 368 concerning which he is compelled, after having claimed his privilege against self-incrimination, 369 to testify or produce evidence, except that such individual so testifying shall not be exempt from 370 prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.

371 (4) Complaints, orders and other process and papers of the department and their agents or 372 the board may be served either personally or by registered mail or by telegraph or by leaving a 373 copy thereof at the principal office or place of business of the person required to be served. The 374 verified return by the individual so serving the same setting forth the manner of such service

375 shall be proof of service of the same, and the return post office receipt or telegraph receipt 376 therefor when registered and mailed or telegraphed as aforesaid shall be proof of service of the 377 same. Witnesses summoned before the department and its agents or the board shall be paid the 378 same fees and mileage that are paid witnesses in civil cases before the courts of the 379 commonwealth, and witnesses whose depositions are taken and the persons taking the same shall 380 severally be entitled to the same fees as are paid for like services in the courts of the 381 commonwealth.

382 (5) All process of any court to which application may be made under this chapter may be 383 served in the judicial district wherein the defendant or other person required to be served resides 384 or may be found.

385 (6) The several departments and agencies of the commonwealth, when directed by the 386 governor, shall furnish the department or the board, upon request, all records, papers and 387 information in their possession relating to any matter before the department and/or the board 388 remedies available to him under sections six A and six B.
