The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court (2025-2026)

An Act relative to offenses while driving on a non-administrative license suspension.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 23 of Chapter 90 of the Massachusetts General Laws, as appearing 2 in the 2022 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the fourth paragraph the 3 following 3 paragraphs:-

4 Any person convicted of operating a motor vehicle in violation of section 10 who on the 5 date of operation was not eligible for issuance or renewal of a license to operate; or of operating 6 a motor vehicle after his license to operate has been suspended or revoked, or after notice of the 7 suspension or revocation of his right to operate a motor vehicle without a license has been issued 8 by the registrar and received by such person or by his agent or employer, and prior to the 9 restoration of such license or right to operate or to the issuance to him of a new license to 10 operate, and so operates a motor vehicle recklessly or negligently so that the lives or safety of the 11 public might be endangered, and by such operation causes injury to another person not resulting 12 in the death of any person shall be punished by imprisonment in a house of correction for not 13 more than 2 ½ years or a fine of not more than $1,000 or both such imprisonment and fine.

14 Prosecutions commenced under this paragraph shall only apply to a person operating a motor 15 vehicle in violation of section 10 of chapter 90 who on the date of operation was not eligible for 16 issuance or renewal of a license to operate, or to a person whose license or right to operate has 17 been suspended or revoked due to a conviction or continuance without a finding under this or 18 any other chapter, or due to offenses which are required by any provision of law to be reported to 19 the registrar and for which the registrar is authorized or required to suspend or revoke the 20 person's license or right to operate motor vehicles for a period of 30 days or more. If the person 21 has been previously convicted of a violation of sections 10 or 23 of chapter 90 by a court of the 22 commonwealth or by a court of any other jurisdiction because of a like violation preceding the 23 date of the commission of the offense for which they have been convicted, the person shall be 24 punished by imprisonment in a house of correction for not more than 2 ½ years or a fine of not 25 more than $1,000 or both such imprisonment and fine. Section 87 of chapter 276 shall not apply 26 to any person charged with a violation of this paragraph. Prosecutions commenced under this 27 paragraph shall not be placed on file or continued without a Finding. The registrar shall revoke
28 the license or right to operate of a person convicted of a violation of this paragraph for a period
29 of 60 days to 1 year after the date of conviction. No appeal, motion for a new trial or exceptions 30 shall operate to stay the revocation of the license or of the right to operate; provided, however, 31 such license shall be restored or such right to operate shall be reinstated if the prosecution of 32 such person ultimately terminates in favor of the defendant.

33 Any person convicted of operating a motor vehicle in violation of section 10 of chapter
34 90 who on the date of operation was not eligible for issuance or renewal of a license to operate;

35 or of operating a motor vehicle after his license to operate has been suspended or revoked, or 36 after notice of the suspension or revocation of his right to operate a motor vehicle without a 37 license has been issued by the registrar and received by such person or by their agent or 38 employer, and prior to the restoration of such license or right to operate or to the issuance to him 39 of a new license to operate, and so operates a motor vehicle recklessly or negligently so that the 40 lives or safety of the public might be endangered, and by such operation causes serious bodily 41 injury to another person shall be punished by imprisonment in a house of correction for not more 42 than 2 ½ years or imprisonment in the state prison for not more than 5 years or a fine of not more 43 than $3,000 or both such imprisonment and fine. Prosecutions commenced under this paragraph 44 shall only apply to a person operating a motor vehicle in violation of section 10 of chapter 90 45 who on the date of operation was not eligible for issuance or renewal of a license to operate, or to 46 a person whose license or right to operate has been suspended or revoked due to a conviction or 47 continuance without a finding under this or any other chapter, or due to offenses which are 48 required by any provision of law to be reported to the registrar and for which the registrar is 49 authorized or required to suspend or revoke the person's license or right to operate motor 50 vehicles for a period of 30 days or more. If the person has been previously convicted of a 51 violation of sections 10 or 23 of chapter 90 by a court of the commonwealth or by a court of any 52 other jurisdiction because of a like violation preceding the date of the commission of the offense 53 for which he has been convicted, the person shall be punished by imprisonment in a house of 54 correction for not more than 2 ½ years, or state prison for not more than 10 years or a fine of not 55 more than $3,000 or such imprisonment and fine. Such sentence shall not be suspended, nor shall 56 any such person be eligible for probation, parole, or furlough or receive any deduction from his 57 sentence for good conduct until he shall have served said 1 year of such sentence; provided,

58 however, that the commissioner of correction may, on the recommendation of the warden,
59 superintendent or other person in charge of a correctional institution, or of the administrator of a 60 county correctional institution, grant to an offender committed under this paragraph a temporary 61 release in the custody of an officer of such institution only to obtain emergency medical or 62 psychiatric services unavailable at said institution or to engage in employment pursuant to a 63 work release program. Section 87 of chapter 276 shall not apply to any person charged with a 64 violation of this paragraph. Prosecutions commenced under this paragraph shall not be placed on 65 file or continued without a finding. The registrar shall revoke the license or right to operate of a 66 person convicted of a violation of this paragraph for a period of two years after the date of 67 conviction. No appeal, motion for a new trial or exceptions shall operate to stay the revocation 68 of the license or of the right to operate; provided, however, such license shall be restored or such 69 right to operate shall be reinstated if the prosecution of such person ultimately terminates in 70 favor of the defendant.

71 Any person convicted of operating a motor vehicle in violation of section 10 of chapter
72 90 who on the date of operation was not eligible for issuance or renewal of a license to operate;
73 or of operating a motor vehicle after his license to operate has been suspended or revoked, or
74 after notice of the suspension or revocation of his right to operate a motor vehicle without a
75 license has been issued by the registrar and received by such person or by his agent or employer, 76 and prior to the restoration of such license or right to operate or to the issuance to them of a new 77 license to operate, and so operates a motor vehicle recklessly or negligently so that the lives or 78 safety of the public might be endangered, and by such operation causes the death of another shall 79 be punished by imprisonment in a house of correction for not more than 2 ½ years, or state 80 prison for not more than 10 years or a fine of not more than $5,000 or both such imprisonment

81 and fine. Prosecutions commenced under this paragraph shall only apply to a person operating a 82 motor vehicle in violation of section 10 of chapter 90 who on the date of operation was not 83 eligible for issuance or renewal of a license to operate, or to a person whose license or right to 84 operate has been suspended or revoked due to a conviction or continuance without a finding 85 under this or any other chapter, or due to offenses which are required by any provision of law to 86 be reported to the registrar and for which the registrar is authorized or required to suspend or 87 revoke the person's license or right to operate motor vehicles for a period of 30 days or more.
88 Such sentence shall not be suspended, nor shall any such person be eligible for probation, parole, 89 or furlough or receive any deduction from his sentence for good conduct until he shall have 90 served said 2 years of such sentence; provided, however, that the commissioner of correction 91 may, on the recommendation of the warden, superintendent or other person in charge of a 92 correctional institution, or of the administrator of a county correctional institution, grant to an 93 offender committed under this paragraph a temporary release in the custody of an officer of such 94 institution only to obtain emergency medical or psychiatric services unavailable at said
95 institution or to engage in employment pursuant to a work release program. Prosecutions 96 commenced under this paragraph shall only apply to a person operating a motor vehicle in 97 violation of section 10 of chapter 90 who on the date of operation was not eligible for issuance or 98 renewal of a license to operate, or to a person whose license or right to operate has been 99 suspended or revoked due to a conviction or continuance without a finding under this or any 100 other chapter, or due to offenses which are required by any provision of law to be reported to the 101 registrar and for which the registrar is authorized or required to suspend or revoke the person's 102 license or right to operate motor vehicles for a period of 30 days or more. If the person has been 103 previously convicted of a violation of sections 10 or 23 of chapter 90 by a court of the

104 commonwealth or by a court of any other jurisdiction because of a like violation preceding the 105 date of the commission of the offense for which he has been convicted, the person shall be 106 punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than 5 years but no more than 15 years 107 or a fine of not more than $5,000 or both such imprisonment and fine. Such sentence shall not be 108 suspended, nor shall any such person be eligible for probation, parole, or furlough or receive any 109 deduction from his sentence for good conduct until he shall have served said 5 years of such 110 sentence; provided, however, that the commissioner of correction may, on the recommendation 111 of the warden, superintendent or other person in charge of a correctional institution, or of the 112 administrator of a county correctional institution, grant to an offender committed under this 113 paragraph a temporary release in the custody of an officer of such institution only to obtain 114 emergency medical or psychiatric services unavailable at said institution or to engage in 115 employment pursuant to a work release program. Section 87 of chapter 276 shall not apply to 116 any person charged with a violation of this paragraph. Prosecutions commenced under this
118 the license or right to operate of a person convicted of a violation of this paragraph for a period
119 of fifteen years to life after the date of conviction. No appeal, motion for a new trial or 120 exceptions shall operate to stay the revocation of the license or of the right to operate; provided, 121 however, such license shall be restored or such right to operate shall be reinstated if the 122 prosecution of such person ultimately terminates in favor of the defendant.

123 SECTION 2. Said section 23 of said chapter 90, as so appearing, is hereby further 124 amended by striking out the words “first or second”, in line 148, and inserting in place thereof 125 the following words:- first, second, fifth, sixth or seventh.

126 SECTION 3. Section 26 of chapter 218 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 127 amended by inserting, in line 12, after the word “90B” the following words:- , sixth or seventh 128 paragraph of section 23 of chapter 90.
