In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court (2025-2026)

An Act addressing compensation rates for bar advocates.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 11 of chapter 211D of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2022
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking subsection (a), and inserting the following 3 subsection:-

4 (a) The rates of compensation payable to all counsel, who are appointed or assigned to 5 represent indigents within the private counsel division of the committee in accordance with the 6 provisions of paragraph (b) of section 6, shall, subject to appropriation, be as follows: for 7 homicide cases the rate of compensation shall be $150 per hour; for superior court non-homicide 8 cases, including sexually dangerous person cases, the rate of compensation shall be $105 per 9 hour; for district court cases and children in need of services cases the rate of compensation shall 10 be $73 per hour; for children and family law cases and care and protection cases the rate of 11 compensation shall be $90 per hour; for sex offender registry cases and mental health cases the 12 rate of compensation shall be $90 per hour. These rates of compensation shall be reviewed 13 periodically at public hearings held by the committee at appropriate locations throughout the

14 state, and notice shall be given to all state, county and local bar associations and other interested 15 groups, of such hearings by letter and publication in advance of such hearings. This periodic 16 review shall take place not less than once every 3 years.

17 SECTION 2. Section 1 of this act shall take effect on July 1, 2025.
