

HOUSE No.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PRESENTED BY:

Michelle M. DuBois and Carmine Lawrence Gentile

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in General Court assembled:

The undersigned legislators and/or citizens respectfully petition for the adoption of the accompanying bill:

An Act protecting survivors of rape and their children.

PETITION OF:

NAME:	DISTRICT/ADDRESS:	DATE ADDED:
Michelle M. DuBois	10th Plymouth	1/17/2025

HOUSE No.

[Pin Slip]

[SIMILAR MATTER FILED IN PREVIOUS SESSION
SEE HOUSE, NO. 1521 OF 2023-2024.]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court (2025-2026)

An Act protecting survivors of rape and their children.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 3(a) of Chapter 209C, as appearing in the 2016 Official Edition, is 2 hereby amended by striking out the third sentence and inserting in place thereof the following 3 sentences:-

4 No court shall make an order providing visitation rights to a parent who was convicted of 5 a crime under Sections 13B, 13B1/2, 13B 3/4, 13 F, 13H, 22, 22A, 22B, 22C, 23A, 23B of chapter 6 265 or sections 2, 3 of chapter 272, against whom a charge under such statutes has been 7 continued without a finding, or who after a hearing is found by clear and convincing evidence to 8 have committed a crime as defined in said chapters, and is seeking to obtain visitation with a 9 child who was conceived during the commission of that rape. For purposes of this section the 10 failure to seek or obtain a conviction of the above enumerated crimes shall not in and of itself
11 constitute proof that such a crime did not occur. Provided, however, such visitation rights may

12 be granted if and only if such visitation is found to be in the best interests of the child and the 13 mother of the child affirmatively consents to such visitation action. Termination of these rights 14 shall not prevent a court from ordering the perpetrator of the crime to pay child support nor shall 15 it limit the right of the child to inherit through or from the perpetrator of the crime.

16 Further, no court shall make an order providing visitation rights to a parent who was 17 convicted of a crime under Sections 13 A and 15D, against whom a charge under such statutes
18 has been continued without a finding, or who after a hearing is found by clear and convincing
19 evidence to have committed a crime as defined in said chapters, and is seeking to obtain
20 visitation with a child where the victim of the crime was pregnant at the time of the crime or 21 becomes pregnant as a result of the crime: or where the victim and the defendant have a child in 22 common: or where a child is the victim or witness to the crime. For purposes of this section the
23 failure to seek or obtain a conviction of the above enumerated crimes shall not in and of itself
24 constitute proof that such a crime did not occur. Provided, however, such visitation rights may 25 be granted if and only if such visitation is found to be in the best interests of the child and the 26 mother of the child affirmatively consents to such visitation. Termination of these rights shall 27 not prevent a court from ordering the perpetrator of the crime to pay child support nor shall it 28 limit the right of the child to inherit through or from the perpetrator of the crime.

29 SECTION 2. Section 10 of Chapter 209C, as appearing in the 2016 Official Edition, is 30 hereby amended by inserting at the end of the current statute the following section:-

31 (f) No court shall make an order providing custody rights to a parent who was convicted 32 of a crime under Sections 13B, 13B1/2, 13B 3/4, 13 F, 13H, 22, 22A, 22B, 22C, 23A, 23B of 33 chapter 265 or sections 2, 3 of chapter 272, against whom a charge under such statutes has been

34 continued without a finding, or who after a hearing is found by clear and convincing evidence to 35 have committed a crime as defined in said chapters, and is seeking to obtain any form of custody
36 of a child who was conceived during the commission of that rape. For purposes of this section
37 the failure to seek or obtain a conviction of the above enumerated crimes shall not in and of itself
38 constitute proof that such a crime did not occur. Provided, however, such custody rights may be 39 granted if and only if such custody is found to be in the best interests of the child and the mother
40 of the child affirmatively consents to such custody. Termination of these rights shall not prevent 41 a court from ordering the perpetrator of the crime to pay child support nor shall it limit the right
42 of the child to inherit through or from the perpetrator of the rape.

43 Further, no court shall make an order providing custody rights to a parent who was 44 convicted of a crime under Sections 13 A and 15D, against whom a charge under such statutes
45 has been continued without a finding, or who after a hearing is found by clear and convincing
46 evidence to have committed a crime as defined in said chapters, and is seeking to obtain
47 visitation with a child where the victim of the crime was pregnant at the time of the crime or 48 becomes pregnant as a result of the crime: or where the victim and the defendant have a child in
49 common: or where a child is the victim or witness to the crime. For purposes of this section the
50 failure to seek or obtain a conviction of the above enumerated crimes shall not in and of itself
51 constitute proof that such a crime did not occur. Provided, however, such visitation or custody
52 rights may be granted if and only if such custody is found to be in the best interests of the child 53 and the mother of the child affirmatively consents to such visitation or custody action.
54 Termination of these rights shall not prevent a court from ordering the perpetrator of the crime to 55 pay child support nor shall it limit the right of the child to inherit through or from the perpetrator 56 of the crime.

57 SECTION 3. Chapter 208, as appearing in the 2016 Official Edition, is hereby amended
58 by inserting the following section:-

59 Section 31B. No court shall make an order providing custody or visitation rights to a 60 parent who was convicted of a crime under Sections 13B, 13B1/2, 13B ¾, 13 F, 13H, 22, 22A, 61 22B, 22C, 23A, 23B of chapter 265 or sections 2, 3 of chapter 272, against whom a charge under 62 such statutes has been continued without a finding, or who after a hearing is found by clear and 63 convincing evidence to have committed a crime as defined in said chapters, and is seeking to 64 obtain custody or visitation rights with a child who was conceived during the commission of that 65 rape. For purposes of this section the failure to seek or obtain a conviction of the above 66 enumerated crimes shall not in and of itself constitute proof that such a crime did not occur.
67 Provided, however, such custody or visitation rights may be granted if and only if such custody
68 or visitation is found to be in the best interests of the child and the mother of the child
69 affirmatively consents to such custody or visitation. Termination of these rights shall not prevent
70 a court from ordering the perpetrator of the crime to pay child support nor shall it limit the right
71 of the child to inherit through or from the perpetrator of the crime.

72 Further, no court shall make an order providing custody or visitation rights to a parent 73 who was convicted of a crime under Sections 13 A and 15D, against whom a charge under such 74 statutes has been continued without a finding, or who after a hearing is found by clear and
75 convincing evidence to have committed a crime as defined in said chapters, and is seeking to 76 obtain custody or visitation right with a child where the victim of the crime was pregnant at the 77 time of the crime or becomes pregnant as a result of the crime: or where the victim and the 78 defendant have a child in common: or where a child is the victim or witness to the crime. For 79 purposes of this section the failure to seek or obtain a conviction of the above enumerated crimes

80 shall not in and of itself constitute proof that such a crime did not occur. Provided, however, 81 such custody or rights may be granted if and only if such custody or visitation is found to be in 82 the best interests of the child and the mother of the child affirmatively consents to such custody
83 or visitation. Termination of these rights shall not prevent a court from ordering the perpetrator 84 of the crime to pay child support nor shall it limit the right of the child to inherit through or from 85 the perpetrator of the crime.

86 SECTION 4. Chapter 210, as appearing in the 2016 Official Edition, is hereby amended
87 by striking in section 3 the subsection (d) and inserting in place thereof:-

88 (d) In consideration of a petition to dispense with parental rights to consent to an 89 adoption if that person was convicted of a crime under Sections 13B, 13B1/2, 13B 3/4, 13 F, 13H,
90 22, 22A, 22B, 22C, 23A, 23B of chapter 265 or sections 2, 3 of chapter 272, against whom a
91 charge under such statutes has been continued without a finding, or who after a hearing is found 92 by clear and convincing evidence to have committed a crime as defined in said chapters, then 93 there shall be a irrebuttable presumption that said parent is unfit and that it is in the best interests 94 of the child to dispense with the need for consent to adoption by the parent who committed such 95 offense or conduct. For purposes of this section the failure to seek or obtain a conviction of the 96 above enumerated crimes shall not in and of itself constitute proof that such a crime did not
97 occur. Provided, however, a termination petition may be denied if and only if there has been no
98 conviction of the above enumerated crimes, such action is found to be contrary to the best
99 interests of the child and the mother of the child opposes such termination.

100 (e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the petitioner and a birth parent
101 from entering into an agreement for post-termination contact or communication. The court

102 issuing the termination decree under this section shall have jurisdiction to resolve matters 103 concerning the agreement. Such agreement shall become null and void upon the entry of an 104 adoption or guardianship decree.

105 Notwithstanding the existence of any agreement for post-termination or post-adoption 106 contact or communication, the decree entered under this section shall be final.

107 Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a birth parent who has entered into a 108 post-termination agreement from entering into an agreement for post-adoption contact or 109 communication pursuant to section 6C once an adoptive family has been identified.