The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court
(2025-2026)

An Act minimizing trauma to children and families.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 18B of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after
2 section 25 the following section:-

3 Section 26. The department shall report each quarter on the number of cases in which it
4 took custody of a child under section 51B of chapter 119 without first obtaining a court order
5 under section 24 or 24A of chapter 119, the total number of children over whom it assumed 6 custody in those cases, the median amount of time between the department taking custody and its 7 employees requesting court approval of that decision, and the number of cases in which it took 8 more than four hours to request court approval. Data in the report shall be broken down by area
9 office. The report shall be made publicly available on the department's website consistent with 10 section 19 of chapter 66.

SECTION 2. Chapter 119 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 24 the following section:-

Section 24A. When the juvenile court is closed for business, any justice acting under section 9(vi)(B) of chapter 211B may grant relief authorized under the third paragraph of section 24. Such relief may be granted and communicated by telephone to an agent of the department, who shall record such order on a form of order promulgated for such use by the chief justice of the trial court and who shall deliver a copy of such order on the next court day to the clerk-magistrate of the juvenile court having venue and jurisdiction over the matter. If relief has been granted without the filing of a written petition with the clerk under section 24, the department shall appear in court when the court is next open for business to file a written petition under section 24. The matter shall then proceed under section 24.

Any order issued under this section and any documentation in support thereof shall be certified at the latest on the next business day by the clerk-magistrate or register of the court issuing such order to the court having venue and jurisdiction over the matter.

The trial court shall promulgate rules specifying the procedures applicable to matters initiated under this section. All such proceedings shall be recorded.

SECTION 3. Section 51B of Chapter 119 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out the first sentence of subsection (c) and inserting in place thereof the following sentences:-

If the department has reasonable cause to believe that (i) a child is suffering from serious abuse or neglect or is in immediate danger of serious abuse or neglect; and (ii) immediate removal without first obtaining a court order under section 24 or 24A is necessary to protect the child from serious and imminent physical harm, it shall take the child into its immediate temporary custody. If the department takes the child into its temporary custody under this subsection, it shall, within four hours, obtain judicial approval of such action from the juvenile court or, if the juvenile court is closed for business, any justice acting under section 9(vi)(B) of chapter 211B. To obtain such approval, the department employees who made the reasonable cause determination shall provide the court a sworn affidavit stating the basis of that determination or, if providing information to the court by telephone, shall do so under oath and shall provide the court with a sworn affidavit when the court is next open for business. The matter shall then proceed as set forth in sections 24 or 24A of this chapter.

SECTION 4. Section 51B of Chapter 119 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out subsection (e).
