The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court (2025-2026)

An Act relative to juvenile fees, fines, and restitution.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 178Q of Chapter 6, as appearing in the General Laws, as appearing 2 in the 2022 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after “upon every sex offender” the 3 following:

4 except those who committed their offense while under the age of criminal majority.

5 SECTION 2. Chapter 119, as appearing in the General Law is hereby amended by 6 striking out Section 29A.

7 SECTION 3. Section 55 of Chapter 119 of the General Laws is hereby amended by 8 striking out the following words from the first paragraph:-

9 A parent, guardian or person with whom such child resides who is summoned to appear 10 before the court to show cause why such child shall not be adjudged a delinquent child by reason 11 of having committed the offense of willful or malicious destruction or wanton destruction of 12 property, in violation of the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-seven or one hundred 13 and twenty-seven A of chapter two hundred and sixty-six, and who willfully fails to so appear 14 shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred nor more than three hundred dollars.

15 SECTION 4. Section 58B of Chapter 119 of the General Laws is hereby amended by 16 inserting after the words “ section sixty-two “ the following words:-

17 subject to a determination of the youth's ability to pay. Restitution shall not be ordered in 18 excess of the youth's ability to pay and the length of time it may take a youth to pay may not be 19 considered in determining the length of probation.”, and by amending it further by striking out 20 the following words “; and in addition to or in lieu of such disposition, the court may impose 21 upon such child a fine not exceeding the amount of the fine authorized for the violation of such 22 statute, by-law, ordinance or regulation. Any fine imposed under the authority of this section 23 shall be collected, recovered and paid over in the manner provided by chapters two hundred and 24 seventy-nine and two hundred and eighty; provided, however, that if any child shall neglect, fail 25 or refuse to pay a fine imposed under this section, he may be arrested upon order of the court and 26 brought before the court, which may thereupon place him in the care of a probation officer or 27 commit him to the custody of the department of youth services; but no such child shall be 28 committed to any jail, house of correction, or correctional institution of the commonwealth.

29 SECTION 5. Chapter 119, as appearing in the General Law is hereby amended by adding 30 the following section:

Section 58C. Notwithstanding any general or special law or rule or regulation to the contrary, no fine or fee shall apply to any person based on an offense committed while under the age of criminal majority or the person's parent, guardian, or legal custodian.

SECTION 6. Section 59 of Chapter 119, as appearing in the General Law, is hereby amended by inserting after "warrant for his arrest" the following words:

except that a warrant may not issue solely for nonpayment of fines or fees.

SECTION 7. Section 62 of Chapter 119 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking the following words, "the court may require, as a condition thereof, that he shall make restitution or reparation to the injured person to such an extent and in such sum as the court determines. If the payment is not made at once, it shall be made to the probation officer, who shall give a receipt therefor, keep a record of the payment, pay the money to said injured person, and keep on file his receipt therefor." And replacing in place thereof the following words:-

the court may hold a restitution hearing. There shall be no mandatory order of restitution, and any order shall be made at the discretion of the presiding judge. At a restitution hearing, the court shall make a determination of a youth's ability to pay. The amount set may not exceed the youth's ability to pay and the length of time it may take a youth to pay may not be taken into consideration in determining the length of probation. The youth's term of probation shall not be extended or revoked solely based upon the nonpayment of restitution. There shall be a presumption of inability to pay, which may be rebutted at a restitution hearing by evidence establishing that the youth (1) has an income that is 250% of the federal poverty line, independent of parental or other family income; (2) is not currently incarcerated, detained, or in out-of-home placement, and (3) is not receiving needs-tested government benefits, including but not limited to free school lunch, SNAP, TANF, SSI, or housing assistance. A juvenile for whom restitution is ordered who is not able to make restitution payments in the manner ordered by the court may move the court for a modification of the restitution order. If the court determines the juvenile is unable to pay the restitution in the time and manner ordered, the court may modify its prior order to allow additional time for payment, reduce the amount of restitution, or eliminate the amount of restitution ordered.

SECTION 8. Section 63 of Chapter 119, as appearing in the General Law, is hereby amended by inserting after “any person” the following:

over the age of criminal majority
