52 inserting in place thereof the following five sentences:-

53 (4) When a person is charged with an offense listed in subsection (1) and upon a motion

56 If the commonwealth moves for a hearing at the time of arraignment, the hearing shall be 57 held immediately upon the person's first appearance before the court unless that person, or the 58 attorney for the commonwealth, seeks a continuance. Except for good cause, a continuance on 59 motion of the person may not exceed seven days, and a continuance on motion of the attorney for 60 the commonwealth may not exceed three business days. During a continuance, the individual 61 shall be detained upon a showing that there existed probable cause to arrest the person.

62 If the attorney for the commonwealth files a motion seeking to detain the person under 63 this section at any time after the time of arraignment or the person's first appearance before the
