(2025-2026)

RULES OF THE SENATE

THE PRESIDENT.

1. The President shall take the chair at the hour to which the Senate stands adjourned, shall call the members to order, and shall proceed to business. [1831; 1888; 2025.]
 - 1A. Every formal session of the Senate shall open with a recitation of the “Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag”. At the discretion of the President, in order to mark an occasion of particular significance, a Senate session or component thereof may include a moment of silence, prayer or other expression of personal belief. [1989; 2015.]
2. The President shall preserve order and decorum, may speak to points of order in preference to other members, and shall decide all questions of order subject to an appeal to the Senate. [1817; between 1821 and 1826; 1831; 1888; 2025.]
3. The President may vote on all questions. [1826.]
4. The President may appoint a member to perform the duties of the chair. [1831; 1862; 1865; 1888; 1971; 2025.]
 - 4A. The President shall be elected by roll call vote on the Senate floor. This rule shall not be suspended except by a vote of four-fifths of the members present and voting thereon. Rule 63 shall not apply to this case and no other rule shall supersede the requirement of four-fifths vote to suspend this rule. [1993; 2002, 2019; 2025.]
 - 4B. The President, Majority Leader and the Minority Leader shall, upon declaration of candidacy for any other state or federal elective office, relinquish said position. [2003; 2015; 2025.]
5. In case of a vacancy in the office of President, or in case the President, or the member appointed by the President to perform the duties of the chair, is absent at the hour to which the Senate stands adjourned, the longest continuously serving, and in the event that two or more members equally qualify as longest continuously serving, then the eldest among those members shall call the Senate to order, and shall preside until a President, or Acting President, is elected and such election shall be the first business in order. [1831; 1885; 1888; 1971; 1985; 2003; 2013; 2017; 2025.]

5A. In case of extreme emergency, the President may for a period not exceeding 2 days, in conformity with Article 6, Section II, Chapter 1 of the Constitution, cause a session of the Senate to be cancelled or declare an otherwise formal session to be informal in nature. Each member of the Senate insofar as is practicable shall be notified of such action. Notice of such action shall be printed in the Journal of the Senate by the Clerk of the Senate and the printing of a calendar shall be suspended with reference to an informal session under this rule. Matters considered in an informal session shall have either received a public hearing or other disposition by a committee of relevant subject matter jurisdiction.

In the case of an informal session, only reports of committees and matters not giving rise to formal motion or debate shall be considered. No motion or order of business shall lose its precedence but shall be carried over until the next formal session. [1971; 1973; 2025.]

5B. [Omitted in 2011.]

5C. Upon a vacancy in the Senate, with the exception of any vacancy that occurs after April 1 in an even-numbered year, a date for a special election shall be scheduled by the President within 20 days after the vacancy occurs and the proposed date of the special election shall then be put before the members of the Senate for a vote. [2011, 2019; 2025.]

CLERK.

6. The Clerk of the Senate shall keep a journal of the proceedings of the Senate, and shall cause the same to be presented daily. The Clerk shall, in the journal, make note of all questions of order, and enter at length the decisions thereon. Said journal of the proceedings shall be available on the general court website. The Clerk shall insert in an appendix to the journal the rules of the Senate and the joint rules of the two branches. The clerk shall post online special reports of state officials, departments, commissions, boards, and other reports as required by law, as received by the Clerk, unless otherwise ordered by the Senate Committee on Rules. [1882; 1888; 2015, 2021, 2023; 2025.]

6A. During sessions, except full formal sessions, each Senator shall have the opportunity to read into the journal, or cause to be printed in the journal, a ceremonial speech not to exceed 650 words; provided, however, that an electronic copy of the remarks is supplied to the Clerk.

Each Senator may offer memorial adjournments at any session upon approval by the President. If the memorial adjournment is to be read by the Senator offering such memorial adjournment during session, an electronic copy shall be provided to the Clerk prior to the said session. If the Senator offering such memorial adjournment does not plan on reading said adjournment during session, the Senator shall provide a shortened version, which shall be read by the presiding officer, along with the full-length version of the adjournment, which shall be printed in the journal. [2023; 2025.]

7. The Clerk, with the approval and direction of the President and the Committee on Rules, shall, upon order for a session with a calendar, prepare and cause to be presented a calendar of matters in order for consideration. The calendar for a session shall be available to the members and the public at least 2 calendar days prior to the start of that session, except when formal sessions are held on consecutive days. The calendar for any formal session on a day following a formal session shall be available to the members and to the public as soon as practicable and, in any event, no later than 2 hours prior to the start of that session. The agenda for sessions shall be available to the members and the public at least 1 calendar day prior to the start of that session, except when sessions are held on consecutive days. The calendar shall consist of at least 4 separate sections. One section shall contain those matters for third reading and engrossment. No matters shall be considered for third reading that do not appear on this section of the calendar without unanimous consent. One section shall contain those matters held by the Senate committee on Bills in the Third Reading. One section shall contain those matters appearing on the Senate Calendar for the first time. No matters shall be considered for second reading that do not appear on this section of the calendar without unanimous consent. One section shall contain those matters which shall be on the Senate Calendar for the first time at the following formal session. No matters shall be considered for a second reading at a formal session that were not on the Calendar for the previous formal session. It shall be mandatory, however, that a bill or resolve ordered to third reading on one calendar day shall appear on the calendar at the following formal session. The Clerk, with the approval and direction of the President and the Committee on Rules, may prepare the calendar, with such memoranda as the Clerk may deem necessary, in a form designed to provide complete information and to properly facilitate the business of the Senate. When the presentation of the calendar required under this rule is suspended under Rule 5A, a session shall be considered informal and no matter shall be considered if a member at said session objects to its consideration.

Upon conclusion of all formal business pursuant to Joint Rule 12A, the Clerk shall not be required to print a calendar pursuant to this rule. [1882; 1888; 1945; 1971; 1974; 1985; 1991; 1993; 2015; 2017; 2025.]

7A. To better facilitate the business of the Senate, the chair shall ask for passes on the second reading matters. Second reading matters with amendments pending shall automatically be considered separately. The chair shall direct the Clerk to dispense with the reading of each title, but the journal for that day shall show that the bills have been read a second time. The question shall then come on ordering those second reading matters which have not been passed for debate to a third reading. Matters passed for debate shall be considered on the second call.

The same procedure shall be followed with relation to adverse reports appearing in groups on the calendar. Adverse reports passed for debate shall be considered on the second call. The question shall be put by the chair on the acceptance of all remaining adverse reports not passed for debate. [1975; 2025.]

7B. The Clerk of the Senate shall be the official parliamentarian of the Senate. [1973.]

8. [Omitted in 1969.]

8A. The Clerk shall make available on the official website of the General Court the results of all roll call votes not later than 48 hours after such vote is taken, not including quorum calls, in a manner easily identifiable, searchable, and conspicuously located. The Clerk shall include the title and number of the matter subject to debate, the number of the roll call and the title of the matter voted upon. The Clerk shall as soon as practicable make available links to the roll calls, which include the text of the amendment or matter voted on. [2007; 2011; 2013; 2015; 2017, 2021.]

9. When a bill or resolve coming from the other branch does not appear in the form in which it was passed in that branch, the Clerk shall indicate the amendments on the Orders of the Day. [1882.]

Any finding or decision by a court of law or administrative agency, including the Massachusetts Commission Against Discrimination, which indicates sufficient facts to believe that the member, officer, or employee engaged in behavior which would constitute a violation of a Rule or other misconduct, including, but not limited to, a violation of the Senate's anti-harassment policy, the prohibition of retaliation against an individual who has complained about discriminatory harassment or retaliation against an individual for cooperating with an investigation of a discriminatory harassment complaint shall be referred to the Ethics Committee. However, no such finding or decision is required before referral to the Ethics Committee. Such orders shall be as specific as circumstances allow. The committee shall also be empowered to receive sworn written complaints or evidence regarding violations of Rules 10 and 10A. Until a hearing, if any, is held, the contents of such complaints or evidence shall be considered confidential information, unless the contents are already a matter of public record. If no hearing is held, such contents may be made public by the committee in a final report. Breach of confidentiality may itself be grounds for disciplinary action.

Upon receipt of an order, a sworn written complaint filed under penalties of perjury, or upon receipt of evidence, the committee may investigate and take written or oral testimony on any matters specified in the order or covered by Rules 10 and 10A. A majority of committee members shall be present to receive sworn testimony. Upon majority vote of the full Senate, the committee may require by summons the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books and papers and such other records as said committee may deem relevant. All testimony before the committee shall be recorded or transcribed and such recordings and transcriptions must be made available to all members of the committee.

Said committee shall consider and may report to the Senate any recommendations regarding any infringement of the rules and all questions of conduct of members, officers and employees referred to it. If after investigation a majority of the committee determines that there has been a violation of the rules, or other misconduct, which shall include, but not be limited to, a violation of the Senate's anti-harassment policy including the prohibition of retaliation against an individual who has complained about discriminatory harassment or retaliation against an individual for cooperating with an investigation of a discriminatory harassment complaint, the committee shall file a report with the Clerk of the Senate, including a recommendation for disciplinary action, including but not limited to: in the case of a member, reprimand, censure, temporary or permanent removal from the position of committee chair or other position of authority, suspension with or without pay, or expulsion; in the case of an officer or employee, reprimand, suspension or removal. Said report shall not prevent the Senate from taking any other action as it shall deem advisable and appropriate.

Nothing in this rule shall be construed to require the disclosure of any allegation that the committee deems frivolous or without merit, if such determination is made by a majority of members on the committee.

If the committee receives a sworn written complaint, evidence, order of the Senate, or request for an opinion involving a member of the committee, such member shall not participate in the committee's deliberations on that matter.

The committee may, upon written request from a member, officer, or employee of the Senate, issue written advisory opinions on matters concerning Rules 10 and 10A. Such advisory opinions may be published, provided that the name of the person requesting the opinion, and any other identifying information shall not be included in the publication. The Senate may not penalize a member, officer or employee of the Senate for conduct satisfying the guidelines of an advisory opinion based on factually indistinguishable conduct.

A majority of members shall sign all recommendations, advisory opinions, and reports of the committee. All voting members must certify that they have heard or read all relevant testimony prior to voting.

The committee shall on or before December 31 of the second year of the biennial session, file a report with the Clerk summarizing its activities for the session. The committee may initiate legislation consistent with Senate Rule 19, but no bill shall be initiated over the objection of the Senate Chair of the appropriate committee. The committee on Steering and Policy, together with the Senate members of the Joint Committee of relevant jurisdiction, shall hold a duly noticed public hearing prior to initiating said legislation. Any matters reported favorably by said committee shall be referred as appropriate to the senate committee on rules or ways and means. [2009; 2025.]

12B ½ . The Committee on Rules may initiate legislation consistent with Senate Rule 19, but no bill shall be initiated over the objection of the Senate Chair of the appropriate committee. This rule shall apply only to bills that have no state fiscal impact. [1983; 1985; 1986; 1991; 1993; 1999; 2003; 2005; 2015; 2025.]

The President pro tempore shall assist the President in the coordination of policy development and the ceremonial functions of the Senate and shall perform such duties as assigned by the President. The minority party floor leader may nominate to minority party floor leadership positions. Such nominations shall require ratification by a majority vote by the respective party caucus. The vote shall be by voice vote, roll call or secret ballot, as the majority vote of the caucus shall determine. In the event a nomination is rejected by such caucus another nomination may be made by the person designated in this rule to make the initial nomination which shall be subject to ratification in the same manner. In the case of the election by the Senate of a committee by ballot, the member having the highest number of votes shall act as chair. The second named member shall be vice-chair.

(b) Except as provided above or unless the Senate shall otherwise specially order, committees shall be appointed by the President, with exception of the chair whose nomination and ratification shall be governed by paragraph (a). The President shall in making such appointments give consideration to representation of both the majority and minority parties relative to their respective representation in the Senate and in any event shall reserve at least 3 positions on the Senate Committee on Ways and Means and at least 1 position upon each standing or special committee for a Senate member of the minority party and appointments to such positions shall be made by the Senate minority party leader. For the purposes of this rule and rule 56, the term "minority party" shall mean the political party of those members of the Senate who, in the aggregate, constitute the second largest group of members of the Senate affiliated with a political party.

(c) A vacancy in any position which is regulated by this rule shall be filled in the same manner as provided in this rule for the original appointment; provided however that in case of a vacancy of a chair of a committee, the vice-chair shall perform all duties of said prior chair until said vacancy is filled. Any person in a position which is regulated by this rule shall be subject to removal only by a majority vote of the respective party caucus by voice vote, roll call or secret ballot as the majority vote of the caucus shall determine. [1817; between 1821 and 1826; 1831; 1888; 1973; 1983; 1985; 1991; 2003; 2015, 2017, 2019; 2025.]

13A. All motions or orders authorizing committees of the Senate to travel or to employ stenographers, all propositions involving special investigations by committees of the Senate and all motions or orders providing that information be transmitted to the Senate shall be referred without debate to the Committee on Rules, who shall report thereon, recommending what action should be taken. All other motions that create main questions, except those that relate to privilege, to procedure and subject kindred matters, or to the subjects referred to in Joint Rules 29 and 30, shall also be referred without debate to the Committee on Rules and be treated in like manner.

The Chair of the Committee on Rules may originate and report special orders for the scheduling and consideration of matters on the floor of the Senate. When reported, such orders may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting and approved by a majority of the members of the Senate present and voting. Debate on the question on adoption of such orders shall be limited to 30 minutes. Such orders shall not be subject to reconsideration. [1904; 1913; 1921; 1953; 2003; 2015.]

Orders reported in the Senate or received from the House involving the expenditure of public money for special committees shall, before the question is taken on the adoption of the order, be referred to the Senate Committee on Ways and Means, whose duty it shall be to review the order's relation to the finances of the Commonwealth.

No amendments shall be in order at the third reading of the bill unless recommended by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading. Each member shall file any proposed amendments, including those relating to outside sections, electronically in a form determined by the Clerk, by the time established for that purpose by order of the Senate provided, however, that a reasonable amount of time, and not less than 48 hours, shall be provided to file amendments. Such motion shall require a majority vote of the members present and voting for adoption, if made after the expiration of 45 calendar days after referral to said committees, but shall require a vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting, if made prior to the expiration of said 45 calendar days after referral to said committees. On the motion to discharge such committees, not more than 15 minutes shall be allowed for debate, and no member shall speak more than 3 minutes.

In addition to the above procedure, the Committee on Ways and Means shall be discharged from further consideration of a certain matter upon the written petition of a majority of the members of such committee presented to the chair after 45 calendar days following referral of the matter to said committee. When directed to discharge a certain matter under this rule said committees shall either report or be discharged of said matter within 5 legislative days of the vote or petition calling for such discharge. A petition discharged under this rule shall be considered as favorably reported and the matter accompanying said petition shall be designated as “discharged”, and shall be placed in the Orders of the Day for the next day for a second reading or question on adoption, as the case may be, unless subject to Senate Rule 27. [1817; 1836; 1841; 1859; 1878; 1881; 1882; 1885; 1897; 1921; 1939; 1945; 1971.]

If an amendment is made at the second or third reading of a bill or resolve substantially changing the greater part of the bill or resolve, the question shall not be put forthwith on ordering the bill or resolve to a third reading or to be engrossed, as the case may be, but the bill or resolve, as amended, shall be placed in the Orders of the Day for the next day after that on which the amendment is made, and shall then be open to further amendment before such question is put. In like manner, when an amendment is made in any proposition of such a nature as to change its character, as from a bill to an order, or the like, the proposition as amended shall be placed in the Orders of the Day for the next day after that on which the amendment was made. [1882; 1888; 1971.]

31A. Upon recommendation of the Chair of the committee on Rules, the Senate may by order require that all amendments to a designated bill be filed with the Clerk not later than 1 day before consideration of the bill by the Senate. Such amendments shall be presented in the calendar and shall not be subject to Rule 31. [1997; 2003; 2015; 2025.]

31B. A member may withdraw an amendment after filing it or may replace a seasonably filed amendment with a reasonably related redrafted amendment, which shall be clearly designated as such. The text of a withdrawn amendment placed on the website of the General Court shall continue to be available publicly, on said website, notwithstanding the amendment having been withdrawn.

Further amendments and redrafted amendments shall, upon request, be distributed by the member offering the amendment to each member. Members shall be given a reasonable amount of time for review prior to taking action on further or redrafted amendments. [2019, 2021; 2025.]

The committee may consolidate into 1 bill any 2 or more related bills referred to it, whenever legislation may be simplified by such consolidation. Resolutions received from and adopted by the House or introduced or reported into the Senate, after they are read and before they are adopted, and amendments of bills, resolves and resolutions adopted by the House and sent to the Senate for concurrence, shall also be referred, in like manner, to the Committee on Bills in the Third Reading. 45A. [Omitted in 2019].

RECONSIDERATION.

53. No motion to reconsider a vote shall be entertained unless it is made on the same day on which the vote has passed, or on the next day thereafter on which a quorum is present and before the Orders of the Day for that day have been taken up. If reconsideration is moved on the same day, the motion shall, except during the last 14 calendar days of formal business under Joint Rule 12A or of the 2-year legislative session, be placed first in the Orders of the Day for the succeeding day; but if it is moved on the succeeding day, the motion shall be considered forthwith; provided, however, that this rule shall not prevent the reconsideration of a vote on a subsidiary, incidental or dependent question at any time when the main question to which it relates is under consideration; and provided, further, that a motion to reconsider a vote on any incidental, subsidiary or dependent question shall not remove the main subject under consideration from before the Senate, but shall be considered at the time when it is made.

56. Regardless of the party affiliation of the person requesting or supporting a call of the yeas and nays, the sense of the Senate shall be taken by yeas and nays whenever required by one-fifth of the members present or by a number of members equal to the total number of members of the minority party, whichever is less. The President may wait a period not exceeding 10 minutes before ordering the Clerk to start the yeas and nays, during which time the members shall be summoned to the Senate Chamber as the President may direct.

Other business of the Senate may be taken up during the 10 minute period. At the end of the 10 minute interval, the President shall state the question to be roll called and then direct the Clerk to begin the call. Upon receipt of a member's letter authorizing the presiding officer or altering or revoking the authorization of the presiding officer, the Clerk shall notify the President and the minority leader of the authorization, alteration or revocation. The Clerk shall maintain an updated list of the authorizations, alterations and revocations submitted or in effect under this order and shall make the list publicly available in electronic form and available after any vote subject to this order.

The presiding officer shall answer the roll call on behalf of each member who has authorized the presiding officer to announce the vote under this section; provided, however, that the presiding officer shall announce the vote in accordance with the member's exact instruction.

The President, in consultation with Legislative Information Services, shall designate an appropriate staff member to coordinate participation in debate by any member who would like to deliver remarks from outside the chamber. The presiding officer shall endeavor to ensure that the Senate's proceedings account for any delay or lag time that occurs due to the remote participation of members in the session. The session shall be conducted at a pace that provides adequate timing and intervals to allow for effective spontaneous responses by the members.

A member who participates remotely pursuant to this section shall be counted for the purpose of establishing a quorum as required pursuant to Senate Rule 64 and Article XXXIII of the Amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth. [2023; 2025.]

This rule shall not be suspended unless by majority vote of the members present and voting.

If, for any reason, the Senate convenes in a session and such session is not televised live, then the party under the contractual duty to provide the broadcast shall provide to the Senate President and Minority Leader within 24 hours of the adjournment of such session a report including, but not limited to an explanation for why the broadcast was not received.

Prior to permanent arrangements being entered into for the broadcast of Senate sessions, any television carrier, who wishes to broadcast any Senate session shall make application to the committee on Rules to do so, approval of which shall not be unreasonably withheld.
