SENATE No. 2328

By Mr. Cyr, a petition (accompanied by bill, Senate, No. 2328) of Julian Cyr, Jacob R. Oliveira, Mark D. Sylvia, Christopher Richard Flanagan and other members of the General Court for legislation relative to free expression in school and public libraries. Tourism, Arts and Cultural Development.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court
(2025-2026)

An Act regarding free expression.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The general court finds and declares that:

2 (i) attempts to ban, remove or otherwise restrict access to books or other materials in
3 public libraries and school libraries of the commonwealth undermines the public good and
4 restrict academic growth;

5 (ii) librarians should be protected from personal attacks and threats directed at them due
6 to work performed in good faith within their role and position;

7 (iii) library materials should not be proscribed or removed because of personal, political
8 or doctrinal views, and materials should not be excluded because of the origin, background or 9 views of those contributing to their creation; and

10 (iv) access to state-funded shared library resources requires public libraries to be in 11 compliance with the General Laws.

SECTION 2. Section 82 of chapter 71 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2022 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out, in lines 4 to 11, inclusive, the words “Freedom of expression shall include without limitation, the rights and responsibilities of students, collectively and individually, (a) to express their views through speech and symbols, (b) to write, publish and disseminate their views, (c) to assemble peaceably on school property for the purpose of expressing their opinions. Any assembly planned by students during regularly scheduled school hours shall be held only at a time and place approved in advance by the school principal or his designee.” and inserting in place thereof the following sentence:- Freedom of expression shall include, without limitation, the rights and responsibilities of students, collectively and individually, to: (a) express their views through speech and symbols; (b) write, publish and disseminate their views; (c) assemble peaceably on school property for the purpose of expressing their opinions; provided, that assembly planned by students during regularly scheduled school hours shall be held only at a time and place approved in advance by the school principal or their designee; and (d) receive information, including through materials determined to be educational and age-appropriate for inclusion in a school library by the school library teacher in the district licensed by the department, or in the absence of such a school library teacher, the school official responsible for the selection of library materials and the use of school library materials and facilities.

SECTION 3. Said chapter 71 is hereby further amended by inserting after said section 82 the following 4 sections: -

Section 82A. Any determination by a school library teacher licensed by the department, or in the absence of such school library teacher by the school employee responsible for the selection and display of library materials, that materials are appropriate for inclusion in a school library shall: (i) be age appropriate; (ii) serve an educational purpose; and (iii) be based on their professional training and not on personal, political or doctrinal views.

Section 82B. The school committee or other administrative authority of a school library shall establish a written policy for: (i) the selection of school library materials, including textbooks, instructional materials, curricula, books or other library resources; and (ii) the use of library materials and library facilities. The written policy shall be in accordance with standards adopted by the American library association. This written policy shall be filed annually with the department. This policy shall include responding to attempts to remove or restrict library materials, based upon the objections of a person or group. The board of library commissioners through its affiliate the Massachusetts Library System shall make sample policies available.

The written policy pursuant to section 82B shall include a process for responding to complaints and challenges and other attempts to remove or restrict library materials based upon the objections of a person or group. The policy shall provide that if a material is the subject of a complaint or attempt to remove or restrict its use, it shall remain on the shelves pending a vote of the school committee during the process for responding to challenges; provided, that the challenged material was selected for inclusion in the school library by a school library teacher licensed by the department, or in the absence of a school library teacher, by the school official responsible for the selection of library materials. Districts shall include information on book challenges annually to the department.

Section 82C. (a) The selection of materials for inclusion in a collection shall not be overruled except upon a determination and vote by the school committee, after notice and public hearing and recommendation by a review committee of school personnel, appointed by the

57 school committee, and the superintendent, that, based on clear and convincing evidence, the 58 material is devoid of any educational, literary, artistic, personal or social value or is not age
59 appropriate for any child who attends the school.

60 (b) A decision of the school committee to remove materials from a school library may be
61 challenged by any student, parent or guardian pursuant to section 5 of chapter 249, including on 62 the grounds that the decision was not supported by clear and convincing evidence.

63 (c) Nothing in this section precludes personnel responsible for school library content
64 from deciding to remove materials that have become outdated or to accommodate new materials;
65 provided, that the decision is not made based on personal, political or doctrinal views.

66 Section 82D. No employee shall lose their librarian licensure or certification or be 67 dismissed, disciplined, placed on probation, involuntarily transferred, fined or imprisoned for the 68 selection of library materials when the selection is made in good faith and in accordance with the 69 approved policy adopted pursuant to section 82B.

70 SECTION 4. Section 10 of chapter 78 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2022
71 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out, in line 8, the words “, male or female,”.
