(2) Subject to the rules of the department, by obtaining from the department annually a license as a self-insurer by conforming to either subparagraph (a) or (b) and, if required, to subparagraph (c). Every employer desiring to be licensed as a self-insurer shall make application for such license on a form provided by the department. The application shall contain: (i) a sworn itemized statement of the assets and liabilities of the applicant; (ii) a payroll report for the preceding fiscal year of the applicant; and (iii) a detailed description of the nature and kind of business carried on by the applicant.

(a) By keeping on deposit with the state treasurer in trust for the benefit and security of employees such amount of securities, not less than $100,000 in market value, as may be required by the department, said securities to be in the form of cash, bonds, stocks or other evidences of indebtedness as the department may require, and to be used, liquidated and disbursed only upon order of the department for the purposes of paying the benefits provided for by this chapter. The department shall, at least annually, and at its discretion more frequently, determine the liabilities of a self-insurer both incurred or to be incurred because of personal injuries to employees under this chapter. The department shall require an additional deposit or further security when the sum of the self-insurer's liability, both incurred or to be incurred, exceeds the deposit or any required reinsurance, or permit a decrease of said deposit provided, that the market value of said deposit is not less than $100,000. The department may permit a substitution of securities in place of those deposited. Interest, dividends and other income from said deposit or deposits shall be payable to the employer that deposited them, unless the department directs otherwise. The deposit may be returned to the employer if the employer shall: (i) insure with an insurer under paragraph (1) of this section; (ii) qualify as a self-insurer under subparagraph (b) of this section; or (iii) cease to transact business in the commonwealth; provided, that the employer shall demonstrate, to the

1081 satisfaction of the department that they are not under any obligation to pay compensation under

1083 single premium non-cancellable policy, insuring the employer against any liability that may have

1090 the laws of the United States provide for liability for injury to or death of its employees, the 1091 deposit shall be returned to the employer less such amount as determined by the department as 1092 necessary to satisfy against liability that may already have arisen under this chapter; provided, 1093 that such determination by the department shall be reviewable by the superior court for the 1094 county of the employer’s place of business, or, in the case of a corporation, where said 1095 corporation has a principal place of business. A bond issued pursuant to this subparagraph shall

1100 company with a rating of “A” or higher authorized to transact business in the commonwealth as 1101 surety, in such form as may be approved by the department and in such amount as may be 1102 required by the department provided, that such amount is not less than $100,000. The bond shall 1103 be upon the condition that if the license of the principal shall be revoked, or if the principal shall

1104 cease to transact business in the commonwealth, or if the department shall refuse to renew the 1105 license, or if the principal shall insure with an insurer, then the department may, in its discretion, 1106 demand, and the principal then shall deposit with the state treasurer 1 of the following: (i) an 1107 amount of securities equal to the penal sum of the bond; (ii) a single premium non-cancellable
1108 policy issued by an insurance company authorized to transact the business of workers' 1109 compensation insurance in the commonwealth, insuring the principal against any liability that 1110 may have arisen under this chapter; or (iii) a bond executed as surety by a company with an "A"
1111 rating or above authorized to transact business aforesaid in the commonwealth, in an amount and 1112 form approved by the department, guaranteeing the payment of any liability on the principal's 1113 part that may have arisen under this chapter. Unless the department has made such demand and 1114 the principal has made such deposit with the state treasurer, then such bond shall remain in full 1115 force and effect for any and all liabilities of the self-insurer under this chapter. No deposit with 1116 the state treasurer under this section shall be assignable or subject to attachment or be used to 1117 satisfy the liability or the debt of the self-insurer.

1118 The department shall, not less than annually, determine the liabilities of a self-insurer 1119 both incurred or to be incurred because of personal injuries to employees under this chapter. The 1120 department may at any time require an additional bond, similarly conditioned, or further security 1121 or permit a decrease in the amount of said bond; provided, that the amount of the bond or the 1122 bonds is not less than $100,000. The liability of the surety shall not exceed in the aggregate the 1123 penal sum or sums stated in any such annual bond or bonds or in any endorsements giving effect 1124 to any such increase or reduction. The department may permit a substitution of a new bond or 1125 bonds for the bond or bonds that have been furnished and shall return the old bond or bonds to 1126 the self-insurer as soon as a new annual bond has been obtained and is effective. Any bond for

1127 which the department permits or requires substitution shall remain in full force and effect until a 1128 new bond is obtained with an effective date approved by the department. When a surety bond is 1129 activated under this chapter, the surety bond company shall, within 10 days of the activation, 1130 commence payment of any liabilities that may arise or have arisen under this chapter on behalf of 1131 the principal.

1132 (c) As a further guarantee of a self-insurer's ability to pay the benefits provided for by 1133 this chapter to injured employees, every self-insurer shall make arrangements satisfactory to the 1134 department, by reinsurance, to protect it from extraordinary losses or losses caused by a disaster.

1135 Such reinsurance shall be: (i) in such amounts and such form as the department may 1136 approve; and (ii) effected with a company as provided in section 20 of chapter 175; provided, 1137 however, that the minimum amount shall be not less than $500,000. Such reinsurance shall 1138 provide that the use or disposition of any money received by a self-insurer or former self-insurer 1139 under any such reinsurance shall be subject to the approval of the department, and no such 1140 money shall be assignable or subject to attachment or be used to satisfy the liability or the debt of 1141 the self-insurer unless incurred under this chapter. In the event that a surety bond is activated 1142 under this section, such reinsurance shall continue and such reinsurer shall: (i) continue to make 1143 payments on claims for which payments have already commenced; (ii) commence payment on 1144 claims that reach the retention level set in the applicable reinsurance policy; and (iii) upon 1145 exhaustion of the surety bond or development of any deficiency in the bond, commence or 1146 continue payments for any liabilities that may arise or have arisen under this chapter.

1147 The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to common carriers by railroad that are 1148 subject to the provisions of the Employers Liability Act, 45 U.S.C. section 51 et seq.

(3) The department may: (i) make rules governing self-insurers; and (ii) revoke or refuse to renew the license of a self-insurer because of the failure of such self-insurer to promptly make payments of compensation as provided for by this chapter, or for any other reasonable cause. A person aggrieved by the action of the department in refusing to grant a license or in revoking, or refusing to renew, a license of a self-insurer under this section or by the action of the department in requiring an additional deposit or further security under subparagraph (a) of subsection (2), or in requiring a further bond or security for an additional sum under subparagraph (b) of subsection (2), may demand a hearing before the department, and if, after said hearing, the department denies their petition, the person may within 10 days after receipt of a notice stating reasons for such denial, file a petition in the superior court for Suffolk county for a review thereof; but the filing of such a petition shall not suspend the action of the department unless a stay has been issued by the court pending a final determination. The court shall summarily hear the petition and may make any appropriate order or decree.
