

SENATE . . . . . No.

---

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

_____

PRESENTED BY:

Michael O. Moore

_____

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in General Court assembled:

The undersigned legislators and/or citizens respectfully petition for the adoption of the accompanying bill:

An Act standardizing consideration of pets in divorce and separation.

_____

PETITION OF:

NAME:

Michael O. Moore

DISTRICT/ADDRESS:

Second Worcester

SENATE . . . . . No.

[Pin Slip]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court (2025-2026)

An Act standardizing consideration of pets in divorce and separation.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 34 of Chapter 208 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2022
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the word "insurance", in the second
3 sentence, the following:-

4 ", provided however that, as established in section 34E, when asked to assign ownership,
5 care and custody of a pet, the court shall consider the best interests of the animal, including the 6 animal's health, safety, comfort and well-being and whether any party or family member
7 residing with any party has a history of abuse, cruelty or neglect to animals or humans"

8 SECTION 2. Chapter 208 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2022 Official edition,
9 is hereby amended by inserting after section 34D the following new section:-

10 Section 34E. Custody of companion animals

11 (a) Upon filing a complaint for divorce or separate support, any party may request that 12 the court award care and custody of a pet;

13 (b) In awarding sole or shared custody of a pet, the court shall consider the best interest
14 of the animal, taking into account their health, safety, comfort, and well-being and any relevant 15 facts, including, but not limited to:

16 (i) Whether the parties are seeking sole or shared custody of the animal; (ii) Each party's 17 history with the animal, including in acquiring the animal and subsequent amount of time spent,
18 expenses incurred, and caregiving responsibilities undertaken such as feeding, walking, playing,
19 grooming, training, and veterinary visits; (iii) The emotional attachment of each party to the 20 animal and, if relevant, of any children in the household; and (iv) Whether any party or person
21 residing with any party has a history of abuse, cruelty, neglect, or violence toward animals or 22 humans including those resulting in a conviction, continuance without a finding, or abuse
23 prevention order.

24 (c) In awarding shared custody of a pet, the court shall order a division of care and 25 custody, including, but not limited to the division of time and expenses such as food, toys,
26 grooming, training, and veterinary visits. In the event of a substantial change of circumstance, a 27 party may file a complaint for modification;

28 (d) Before the court awards custody of a pet (i) the animal may not be transferred,
29 encumbered, concealed, or disposed of without the written agreement of all parties or an order of 30 the court; and (ii) a party may seek a temporary order regarding custody, care, and payment of 31 expenses of the animal, but no party shall be prejudiced by such temporary order when seeking a 32 final disposition of these issues; and

33 (e) At any time prior to the court's decision, the parties may enter into an agreement
34 allocating the sole or shared custody of the pet.

35           (f) The court may enforce a pet custody agreement, including through a complaint for 36 contempt to enforce a judgment of divorce and separation agreement and through a complaint in 37 equity to enforce an agreement entered into by non-married individuals. The court may award an 38 equitable remedy such as shared custody or, alternatively, by determining sole custody by one
39 party is in the best interest of the animal using the process established in this section.