In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court (2025-2026)

An Act to protect consumers of tickets.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 182A of chapter 140 of the General Laws, as most recently
2 inserted by section 248 of chapter 238 of the acts of 2024, is hereby amended by striking out 3 subsection (b) and inserting in place thereof the following:-

4 (b) (1) No person, firm, corporation or other entity shall employ a paperless ticketing
5 system unless the consumer is given an option at the time of initial sale to purchase the same 6 paperless tickets in transferable form that the consumer can transfer at any price, and at any time,
7 and without additional fees.

8 (2) The established price for any given ticket shall be the same regardless of the form or 9 transferability of such ticket.

10 (3) The ability for a ticket to be transferred shall not constitute a special service for the 11 purpose of imposing a service charge subject to section 185D. It shall be unlawful to penalize, 12 discriminate against or deny access to a ticket buyer on the basis that the ticket was transferred or

13 resold, including if the ticket was transferred or resold independent from the initial sale ticketing 14 system.

15 (4) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, an operator of any such theatrical 16 exhibition, public show or public amusement or exhibition, or such operator's agent, may offer 17 paperless tickets that do not allow for transferability; provided, that: (i) those tickets shall be sold 18 or given to individuals or groups as part of a private event or a targeted promotion at a 19 discounted price offered because of the individual's or group's status or affiliation with religious 20 or charitable institutions, societies or organizations or civic leagues or organizations not 21 organized for profit but operated exclusively for the promotion of social welfare, associations of 22 veterans of any wars of the United States, students, or groups or individuals characterized by a 23 disability or economic hardship and tickets issued through a non-transferable ticketing system 24 pursuant to the exemption in this subsection shall not be offered promotionally to the general 25 public and shall be clearly marked as a ticket restricted to the specified individual or group; or 26 (ii) such tickets shall be included in a membership pass at a discounted price offered by a 27 professional sports organization for seating in venues or stadiums with a fixed capacity of not 28 less than 19,000 seats that guarantees entry to a specified number of events in a specified time 29 period with seat assignments: (A) assigned not more than 4 hours prior to the commencement of 30 the event; and (B) variable from game to game and not intended for season ticket holders.
31 Tickets provided under a membership pass may be restricted from being transferred or resold, 32 including through the operator or operator's agents, and shall be clearly marked as such prior to 33 initial offering or sale. Such membership pass shall not mean a subscription or season ticket 34 package offered for sale and shall not result in the sale of more than 5 per cent of the maximum

35 amount of all seats that will be made available at a venue for a particular event to be sold under 36 this subsection

37 SECTION 2. Subsection (c) of section 182A of chapter 140 of the General Laws, as 38 most recently inserted by section 248 of chapter 238 of the Acts of 2024, is hereby amended by

40 SECTION 3. Subsection (a) of section 185A of chapter 140 of the General Laws, as 41 most recently inserted by section 249 of chapter 238 of the acts of 2024, is hereby amended by 42 inserting at the end thereof the following:- provided, however that any primary ticket issuer and 43 any operator or manager of a website or other platform to facilitate resale, or resale through a 44 competitive bidding process, solely between third parties and that does not in any other manner
