The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court (2025-2026)

An Act prohibiting soliciting acts of terrorism.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter 269 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2022 Official Edition, is hereby 2 amended by inserting after section 14 the following new section:-

3 SECTION 14 c

4 (a) As used in this section, the term “solicits” shall mean to lure, induce, persuade, tempt, 5 incite, coax, invite, counsel, advise, request or command.

6 The term "critical infrastructure" shall mean critical public or private infrastructure 7 resource systems involved in providing services necessary to ensure or protect the public health, 8 safety and welfare, including, but not limited to, a public water system or a public water source;
9 an emergency, governmental, medical, fire or law enforcement response system; a public utility 10 system; a financial system; an educational system; or a food or clothing distribution system.

11 (b) Whoever solicits or otherwise entices or communicates or causes to be communicated 12 or published, either directly or indirectly, orally, in writing, by mail, by use of a telephone or 13 telecommunication device including, but not limited to, electronic mail, internet 14 communications, and facsimile communications, through an electronic communication device or 15 by any other means, the commission of a crime that involves acts dangerous to (i) human life; (ii)
16 property; or (iii) critical infrastructure, shall be punished as follows:

17 For acts dangerous to human life, by imprisonment for not more than 20 years in the state
18 prison or for not more than 2½ half years in a jail or house of correction, or by a fine of not more 19 than $20,000, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

20 For acts dangerous to property or critical infrastructure, by imprisonment for not more 21 than 10 years in the state prison or for not more than 2½ years in a jail or house of correction, or 22 by a fine of not more than $10,000, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

23 If a person is convicted of a crime of solicitation, counsel, advice or enticement for which 24 crime the penalty is expressly set forth in any other section of the General Laws, the provisions 25 of this section shall not apply to said crime and the penalty therefor shall be imposed pursuant to 26 the provisions of such other section.

27 Any person who is found guilty of solicitation, counsel, advice or enticement which 28 results in the loss of human life shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for life and 29 shall be eligible for parole after the term of years fixed by the court pursuant to section 24 of 30 chapter 279.

31 (c) Notwithstanding any other law, an indictment may be found at any time without 32 limitation for any violation of this section, if the commission of such offense resulted in, or

33 created a foreseeable risk of, death or serious bodily injury to another person; damage to 34 property; or infrastructure.

35 (d) The court shall, after conviction, conduct a hearing to ascertain the extent of costs 36 incurred, damages and financial loss suffered by an individual, public or private entity and the 37 amount of property damage caused as a result of the defendant's crime. A person found guilty of 38 violating this section shall, in all cases, in addition to any other punishment, be ordered to make 39 restitution to the individual, public or private entity for any costs incurred, damages and financial 40 loss sustained as a result of the commission of the crime. Restitution shall be imposed in addition 41 to incarceration or fine, and not in lieu thereof, however, the court shall consider the defendant's 42 present and future ability to pay in its determinations regarding a fine. In determining the 43 amount, time and method of payment of restitution, the court shall consider the financial 44 resources of the defendant and the burden restitution will impose on the defendant.

45 (e) The attorney general of the commonwealth is hereby authorized and directed to 46 undertake a review and examination of any and all sections and provisions of the general laws 47 relative to acts of terrorism and acts construed as terrorism. Such review and examination shall 48 include but not be limited to: 1) an analysis of the efficacy and suitability of such existing 49 measures to characterize, punish and enable just prosecution of acts of terrorism particularly in 50 light of changes in technology, circumstances, and information obtained by analyzing the 51 methods and strategies employed in terrorist threats and or acts over the past 10 years, 2) an 52 appraisal of the efficacy and suitability of such existing measures, including sanctions and 53 punishments, to deter such acts of terrorism, 3) an identification and cost estimate of any 54 additional resources necessary to protect public safety from terrorist acts or threats thereof, and 55 4) recommendations, if necessary, for statutory or regulatory changes to address terrorist threats

56 or acts so as to protect public safety. A report containing the results of said review and 57 examination, together with any legislative and regulatory recommendations, shall be filed with 58 the clerks of the house and senate and the joint committee on public safety and homeland
59 security, not later than May 1, 2026.
