The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court (2025-2026)

An Act addressing rising insurance costs for manufactured home residents.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, there shall be a 2 special commission established to investigate the availability, affordability, and regulatory 3 treatment of homeowners insurance for manufactured and mobile homes in the Commonwealth.
4 The scope of the commission shall include but not be limited to: (i) the causes of rising
5 premiums for manufactured and mobile homeowners; (ii) the current extent of insurer
6 participation in this market segment and the impacts of market concentration on policy pricing 7 and accessibility; (iii) the role of state regulations, statutes, and administrative practices in 8 contributing to or alleviating these insurance challenges; (iv) the adequacy and limitations of the 9 FAIR Plan and other existing consumer protections for manufactured homeowners; (v) how the 10 Commonwealth compares to other states in terms of regulatory burden, coverage availability, 11 and rate trends for manufactured housing; and (vi) potential policy or legislative solutions

12 designed to expand coverage options, improve affordability, and ensure long-term market 13 stability for homeowners residing in manufactured housing communities.

14 SECTION 2. The commission shall consist of the following members: the house and 15 senate chairs of the joint committee on financial services, who shall serve as co-chairs; the 16 commissioner of insurance or a designee; the attorney general or a designee; the secretary of the 17 executive office of housing and livable communities or a designee; one member appointed by the 18 speaker of the house of representatives; one member appointed by the president of the senate;
19 one member appointed by the minority leader of the house of representatives; one member
20 appointed by the minority leader of the senate; one representative from the Massachusetts
21 Manufactured Housing Association, appointed by its board of directors; one municipal official 22 from a city or town with a significant number of manufactured home communities, appointed by 23 the Massachusetts Municipal Association; and one consumer advocate with experience in elder 24 housing appointed by the governor.

25 SECTION 3. The commission shall submit its report and findings, together with any 26 recommendations or drafts of legislation, to the clerks of the house of representatives and the 27 senate, the joint committee on financial services, and the house and senate committees on ways 28 and means no later than twelve months after the passage of this act.
