The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court (2025-2026)

Resolve creating a special commission to study classroom temperatures.

1 Resolved, that notwithstanding any special or general law to the contrary there shall be a
2 special commission to study the regulation of minimum and maximum allowable air 3 temperatures in public school classrooms and facilities, as well as any relevant statistics on the 4 number of air-conditioned public schools in Massachusetts, the impact of indoor air quality on 5 children, including, but not limited to, children with respiratory conditions or special needs, and 6 the Commonwealth’s state funding and bidding processes for installing air conditioning and 7 heating upgrades in public schools.

8 The special commission shall consist of: the secretary of the executive office of 9 education, or their designee, who shall serve as chair; the commissioner of the department of 10 elementary and secondary education, or their designee; the commissioner of the department of 11 public health, or their designee; the executive director of the Massachusetts School Building 12 Authority; a representative of the Massachusetts Teachers Association; a representative of the 13 Massachusetts Association of School Committees; a representative of the Massachusetts Parent 14 Teacher Association; two teachers, selected by the Massachusetts Teachers Association, who 15 have experienced difficulties with classroom temperatures; a school nurse, selected by the 16 Massachusetts School Nurse Organization; the president of the Massachusetts Association of 17 School Superintendents, or their designee; two members of the House of Representatives, one of 18 whom to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the other to be 19 appointed by the minority leader; two members of the Senate, one of whom to be appointed by 20 the President of the Senate, and the other to be appointed by the minority leader. The chair shall 21 commence first meeting of the commission not later than December 1, 2025.

22 The special commission shall submit its findings and recommendations, together with 23 drafts of any legislation, to the clerks of the House of Representatives and the Senate and the 24 chairs of the joint committee on education not later than December 1, 2026.
