An Act protecting victims of rape and their children.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           Section 3 of chapter 209C of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2020 Official Edition,
2 is hereby amended by striking the fourth sentence in subsection (a) and inserting in place thereof
3 the following sentence:-

4           “No court shall make an order providing visitation rights to a parent who was convicted
5 of rape, under sections 22 to 23B, inclusive, of chapter 265 or section 2, 3, or 4 of chapter 272, 6 and is seeking to obtain visitation with the child who was conceived during the commission of 7 that rape; provided, that in the absence of a conviction a court shall not make an order providing 8 said visitation rights whenever clear and convincing evidence of the commission of rape can be 9 established”.
