The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court (2025-2026)

An Act to protect the privacy of lottery winners.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 24 of Chapter 10 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2022 Official Edition,
2 is hereby amended by inserting at the end of the first paragraph the following:-

3 “Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the name, address or other 4 identifying information of any holder of a winning lottery ticket shall not be deemed public
5 records of the commission and shall not be subject to section 10 of chapter 66. The commission
6 shall not publicly disclose the name, address, or other identifying information of any holder of a 7 winning ticket or require any winning ticket holder to perform any public act in connection with 8 the awarding, payment, or collection of prize moneys where a holder of a winning ticket 9 provides a written request to the commission. Upon a claim, the commission shall inform, in 10 writing, the winning ticket holder of the right to refuse public disclosure of name, address, or

- 11 other identifying information as well as the right to refuse to perform any public act in
- 12 connection with the awarding, payment, or collection of prize moneys.".
