

SENATE, NO. 2369

[Senate, April 12, 2010 - New draft of Senate, No. 1861 reported from the committee on the Judiciary.]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

IN THE YEAR OF TWO THOUSAND AND TEN

AN ACT TO CLARIFY RECORDING REQUIREMENTS AT REGISTRIES OF DEEDS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled,

And by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter 36 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 14 and
2 inserting in place thereof the following section:

3 Section 14. Each register shall keep a record, in book or electronic form, into which the 4 register shall enter recording information for all instruments accepted for record, in the order in 5 which they are recorded. Upon recording of an instrument, the following information shall be 6 entered into the record: the day, hour and minute when the register assigns an instrument
7 number, and/or book and page number as the case may be; the instrument number and/or book

8 and page number so assigned; the names of the grantors and grantees in the instrument; and the 9 city or town in which the land lies.

10 No instrument received by the register shall be considered recorded, until the register
11 assigns to the instrument an instrument number, and/or book and page number as the case may 12 be.

13 Any change or correction made to the record shall be accessible to the public through the 14 computer system in that particular registry district. Such change or correction made to the record
15 shall be maintained by the register and shall be available for public inspection at said registry
16 district during registry business hours. Any change or correction to the record shall document
17 the nature and date of the change or correction.
