762 equipment is not forfeitable. The court shall order the commonwealth to give notice by certified 763 or registered mail to the owner of said gaming equipment and to such other persons as appear to 764 have an interest therein, and the court shall promptly, but not less than two weeks after notice,
765 hold a hearing on the petition. Upon the motion of the owner of said gaming equipment the court 766 may continue the hearing on the petition pending the outcome of any criminal trial related to the 767 violation of this chapter. At such hearing the court shall hear evidence and make conclusions of 768 law, and shall thereupon issue a final order, from which the parties shall have a right of appeal.
769 In all such suits where a final order results in a forfeiture, said final order shall provide for 770 disposition of said gaming equipment, by the commonwealth in any manner not prohibited by 771 law, including official use by an authorized law enforcement or in other public agency, or sale at 772 public auction or by competitive bidding. The proceeds of any such sale shall be used to pay the

777 (a) Each gaming establishment shall pay to the commission a minimum sum equal to 778 27% of gross gaming revenues, post payout and pre-expenses, from all table games, slot

780 (b) There is hereby established a gaming investigative account. Any and all expenses 781 associated with the licensing of any applicant and monitoring of any licensee shall be borne by 782 the applicant or licensee. Pursuant to its regulations, the commission shall require each applicant 783 to deposit with the commission, together with the application therefore, an application fee which 784 shall be deposited in the gaming investigative account. Such fee shall constitute the anticipated 785 costs and charges incurred in the investigation and processing of the application, and any 786 additional sums as required by the commission and the authority to pay final costs and charges.
787 Expenses may be advanced from the gaming investigative account by the commission to the 788 authority. Any money received from an applicant in excess of the costs and charges incurred in 789 the investigation or the processing of the application shall be refunded pursuant to regulations
790 adopted by the commission. At the conclusion of the investigation the bureau shall provide the 791 applicant a written accounting of the costs and charges so incurred.

792 (c) Two-thirds all fees, revenue, and penalties collected pursuant to this act, with the 793 exception of those revenues collected as stated in Section 9 (a) of this act, shall be deposited in 794 the general fund. Funds deposited in the general fund, pursuant to this act, shall, subject to 795 appropriation, be expended for the support of the commission and the bureau in carrying out

796 their duties and responsibilities under this act. One-third of all fees, revenue, and penalties
797 collected pursuant to this act, with the exception of those revenues collected as stated in section
798 nine (a) of this act, shall go directly to cities and towns in the form of local aid toward general
799 operations using the lottery formula.

800 (d) All revenue received from any game or gaming device which is leased for operation 801 on the premises of the licensee-owner to a person other than the owner thereof, or located in an 802 area or space on the premises which is leased by the licensee-owner to any such person, must be 803 attributed to the owner for the purposes of this section and be counted as part of the gross
804 revenue of the owner. The lessee is liable to the owner for his proportionate share of the license 805 fees.

806 (e) In addition to any other tax or fee imposed by this act, there is also hereby imposed an 807 annual fee of 5 million dollars for gaming license holders, and an annual license fee of $1,000 808 upon every slot machine maintained for use or in use in any licensed gaming facility in the 809 commonwealth.

810 (f) All gaming license fees and penalties imposed by the provisions of this act must be 811 paid to the state treasurer, two-thirds to be deposited into the general fund and the remaining
812 third directly to a special account to be distributed to the cities and towns of the Commonwealth.
813 Fees shall be paid annually on or before June twentieth. Penalties imposed under this act shall be 814 paid within thirty days of the final determination of the commission of the violation.

815 (g) There is hereby imposed upon each slot machine operated in this state an annual 816 excise tax of five hundred dollars. If a slot machine is replaced by another, the replacement is

819 of a state gaming license to operate any slot machine for the ensuing fiscal year beginning July
820 first, from a licensee whose operation is continuing; collect the tax in advance from a licensee
821 who begins operation or puts additional slot machines into play during the fiscal year prorated
822 monthly after July thirty-first; include the proceeds of the tax in its reports of state gaming taxes
823 collected. The commission shall pay over not less than one half of the tax as collected to the 824 treasurer of the municipality within which the gaming facility is located to be deposited to the 825 general fund of said municipality. Not more than one half of the tax as collected shall go to 826 communities surrounding the host community for the purposes of traffic and public safety 827 concerns resulting from the operation of the gaming facility as prescribed according to the 828 commission.

829 (h) If the growth in lottery receipts is less than the average of the prior five years, the 830 difference in revenues will be provided to the lottery from the fees, revenue and penalties 831 collected pursuant to this act, for the purpose of local aid to the municipalities in the 832 Commonwealth, provided the lottery payout percentages do not change and the number of games
833 remains the same or greater. This provision will be applicable for the first 5 years for each 834 gaming facility licensed by the commission.

835 SECTION 10. Reporting Violations of Act.

836 All licensees, all registrants, all persons required to be qualified under this act, and all 837 persons employed by a gaming service industry licensed pursuant to this act, shall have a duty to 838 inform the commission or authority of any action which they believe would constitute a violation

856 personnel and other principal employees must qualify under standards promulgated by the 857 commission.

858 (c) The commission may exempt any person or field of commerce from the licensing 859 requirements of this subsection if the person or field of commerce demonstrates that it is 860 regulated by a public agency or that it will provide goods or services in insubstantial or

861 insignificant amounts or quantities, or provides professional services such as accountants, 862 auditors, attorneys, or broker dealers, and that licensing is not deemed necessary in order to 863 protect the public interest or to accomplish the policies established by this act. Upon granting an 864 exemption or at any time thereafter, the commission may limit or place such restrictions
865 thereupon as it may deem necessary in the public interest, and shall require the exempted person 866 to cooperate with the commission and the authority and, upon request, to provide information in 867 the same manner as required of a gaming service industry licensed pursuant to this section.

876 education strategies that address the findings of said study.

879 electronic gaming device the numerical odds of winning or if the odds cannot be calculated, the 880 manner by which a person may be notified of all previous winnings on each electronic gaming 881 device, and the number of previous winners.

882 SECTION 14. Recovery of Gaming Debts by Patrons.

883 (a) Whenever a licensee refuses payment of alleged winnings to a patron, the licensee and 884 the patron are unable to resolve the dispute to the satisfaction of the patron and the dispute 885 involves:

886 1) at least five hundred dollars, the licensee shall immediately notify the authority;

887 2) less than five hundred dollars, the licensee shall inform the patron of his right to 888 request that the authority conduct an investigation.

889 The authority shall conduct whatever investigation it deems necessary and shall 890 determine, in its sole discretion and without need for a hearing whether payment should be done.
891 In the event the authority determines that payment should be made, all costs of the investigation
892 shall be borne by the licensee. Failure of the licensee to notify the authority or inform the patron 893 as provided herein shall subject the licensee to disciplinary action.

894 (b) Any party aggrieved by the determination of the authority may file a petition for 895 reconsideration with the commission setting forth the basis of the request for reconsideration.
896 Any hearing for reconsideration shall be conducted pursuant to regulations adopted by the 897 commission.

900 the validity of the remainder of this act.
