The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act to prevent unlawful and unnecessary foreclosures.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 35 of chapter 244 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following new subsection:-

3 Section 35B. Prerequisite to Commencing Foreclosure Proceedings For Certain 4 Mortgage Loans; Reasonable Steps and Good Faith Efforts; Safe Harbor; Regulatory Authority.

5 (a) Commercially Reasonable Efforts to Avoid Foreclosures. (1) A creditor shall not 6 commence foreclosure upon certain mortgage loans pursuant to this Chapter unless it has first 7 taken reasonable steps and good faith efforts to avoid foreclosure. The determination whether a 8 creditor has taken reasonable steps and good faith efforts prior to commencing foreclosure shall 9 consider, without limitation: (i) an assessment of the borrower’s current circumstances,
10 including without limitation the borrower’s current income, debts and obligations; (ii) the net 11 present value of receiving payments pursuant to a modified mortgage loan as compared to the 12 anticipated net recovery following foreclosure; (iii) the interests of the creditor, including,

13 without limitation, investors and, in the event the creditor has received federal or state money, 14 taxpayers.

15 (2) In interpreting this subsection (a), except as otherwise specified in a contract, a 16 servicer of pooled residential mortgages may determine whether the net present value of the 17 payments on the loan, as modified, is likely to be greater than the anticipated net recovery that 18 would result from foreclosure to all investors and holders of beneficial interests in such 19 investment, but not to any individual or groups of investors or beneficial interest holders, and 20 shall be deemed to act in the best interests of all such investors or holders of beneficial interests
21 if the servicer agrees to or implements a loan modification or takes reasonable loss mitigation
22 actions that comply with this Section. Further, any loan modification offered to the borrower
23 must comply with current federal and state law, including, without limitation, 940 C.M.R. 8.00 et 24 seq., and the borrower must be able to reasonably afford to repay the loan, as modified,
25 according to its scheduled payments. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prevent a 26 creditor from offering or accepting alternatives to foreclosure, such as a short sale or deed-in-lieu 27 of foreclosure, if the borrower requests such alternatives, rejects a loan modification offered 28 pursuant to this subsection, or does not qualify for a loan modification pursuant to this 29 subsection.

30 (b) Safe Harbor. A creditor shall be deemed to comply with subsection (a), if, prior to 31 commencing foreclosure on certain mortgage loans, the creditor:

32 (i) determines a borrower's current ability to make monthly payments (the "affordable 33 monthly payment"), reasonably taking into account the borrower's current circumstances
34 including income, debts and obligations;

35 (ii) identifies a loan modification that achieves the borrower’s affordable monthly 36 payment (“modified loan”), which loan modification may include one or more of the following:
37 reduction in principal; reduction in interest rate, or an increase in amortization period but not 38 more than a ten year increase not to exceed a forty year period;

39 (iii) conducts an analysis comparing the net present value of the modified loan and the 40 creditor’s anticipated net recovery that would result from foreclosure; and

41 (iv) either (a) in all circumstances where the net present value of the modified loan 42 exceeds the anticipated net recovery at foreclosure, offers and agrees to modify the loan in a 43 manner that provides the affordable monthly payment, or (b) in circumstances where the net
44 present value of the modified loan is less than the anticipated net recovery of the foreclosure,
45 notifies the borrower that no loan modification will be offered and provides a written summary 46 of the creditor’s net present value analysis, after which the creditor may proceed with the 47 foreclosure process in conformity with Section 35A of this chapter.

48 (c) The Attorney General may adopt, amend or repeal rules and regulations to aid in the 49 administration and enforcement of this Section, including regulations that determine further 50 requirements for reasonable steps and good faith efforts to avoid foreclosures as required by 51 subsection (a) and that provide safe harbors for compliance in addition to that set forth in 52 subsection (b).

53 (d) Prior to commencing foreclosure on certain mortgage loans, the creditor must certify 54 compliance with this Section in an affidavit based on personal knowledge. The creditor shall 55 record this affidavit based upon personal knowledge with the appropriate registry of deeds, or for

56 registered land, with the land court prior to providing a borrower with notice under section
57 fourteen of this Chapter.

58 (e) A violation of this Section constitutes a violation of G. L. c. 93A, § 2(a).

59 (f) This Act shall take effect upon its passage.

75 principal and interest fully amortized over the life of the loan;

82 combined Loan-to-Value ratio was above 95% or
- 83 (ix) the loan was underwritten where the ratio of the borrower's debt, including all 84 housing-related and recurring monthly debt, to the borrower's income exceeded 38%.

100 mortgage, in accordance with section fourteen of chapter two hundred and forty-four.

101 (b) No imposition of unfair costs. A creditor violates this Chapter if it imposes upon a 102 third party the cost of correcting, curing, or confirming documentation relating to the sale, 103 transfer, or assignment of a mortgage loan, including, without limitation, a creditor must bear the 104 costs related to curative actions taken because a foreclosure was commenced without the 110 offering of a loan modification, the borrower's history of payments, the validity of the 111 assignment of the mortgage loan, that the creditor is the record holder of the mortgage loan, or 112 the creditor's compliance with any other requirements of this Chapter.

139 SECTION 3. Section 14 of chapter 244 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010
140 Official Edition, is hereby amended by replacing the existing Section 14 with the following new 141 Section:

142 Section 14. The mortgagee or person having his estate in the land mortgaged, or a person 143 authorized by the power of sale, or the attorney duly authorized by a writing under seal, or the 144 legal guardian or conservator of such mortgagee or person acting in the name of such mortgagee 145 or person, may, upon breach of condition and without action, do all the acts authorized or 146 required by the power; but no sale under such power shall be effectual to foreclose a mortgage,
147 unless, previous to such sale, notice thereof has been published once in each of three successive 148 weeks, the first publication to be not less than twenty-one days before the day of sale, in a
149 newspaper, if any, published in the town where the land lies or in a newspaper with general
150 circulation in the town where the land lies and notice thereof has been served by delivering a 151 copy of the notice personally to the owner or owners of record of the equity of redemption as of 152 thirty days prior to the date of sale, said notice served by delivering a copy of the notice
153 personally at least thirty days prior to the date of sale to said owner or owners of to the address
154 set forth in section sixty-one of chapter one hundred and eighty-five, if the land is then registered
155 or, in the case of unregistered land, to the last owner or owners of the equity of redemption
156 appearing on the records of the holder of the mortgage, if any, or if none, to the owner or owners 157 as given on his deed or on the petition for probate by which he acquired title, if any, or if in 158 either case no owner appears, then mailed by registered mail to the address to which the tax
159 collector last sent the tax bill for the mortgaged premises to be sold, or if no tax bill has been sent 160 for the last preceding three years, then mailed by registered mail to the address of any of the

161 parcels of property in the name of said owner of record which are to be sold under the power of 162 sale and unless a copy of said notice of sale has been sent by registered mail to all persons of 163 record as of thirty days prior to the date of sale holding an interest in the property junior to the 164 mortgage being foreclosed, said notice to be mailed at least thirty days prior to the date of sale to 165 each such person at the address of such person set forth in any document evidencing the interest
166 or to the last address of such person known to the mortgagee. Any person of record as of thirty 167 days prior to the date of sale holding an interest in the property junior to the mortgage being 168 foreclosed may waive at any time, whether prior or subsequent to the date of sale, the right to 169 receive notice by mail to such person under this section and such waiver shall be deemed to 170 constitute compliance with such notice requirement for all purposes. If no newspaper is 171 published in such town, or if there is no newspaper with general circulation in the town where 172 the land lies, notice may be published in a newspaper published in the county where the land lies,
173 and this provision shall be implied in every power of sale mortgage in which it is not expressly 174 set forth. A newspaper which by its title page purports to be printed or published in such town, 175 city or county, and having a circulation therein, shall be sufficient for the purpose.
