The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act relative to civil rights and public safety.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 121 of chapter 140 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by deleting the section in its entirety and replacing it with 3 the following:-

4 Section 121. No county, municipality, township or other community entity within the 5 Commonwealth of Massachusetts may enact, pass or enforce any law, ordinance or regulation 6 concerning the lawful ownership, use, possession, transfer, purchase, receipt or transportation of 7 firearms, antique firearms, ammunition or ammunition components.

8 The right to keep and bear arms as an individual civil right shall be presumed to exist in 9 all matters regarding the ownership, use, possession, transfer, purchase, receipt or transportation

10 of firearms, antique firearms, ammunition or ammunition components unless expressly 11 prohibited by the laws of this Commonwealth.

12 SECTION 2. Section 121A of chapter 140 of the General Laws is hereby 13 repealed.

14 SECTION 3. Chapter 140 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out
15 Section 122, in its entirety, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

16 Section 122. As used in sections 122 to 129D inclusive, the following words shall, unless 17 the context clearly requires otherwise, have the following meanings:-

18 “Ammunition”, assembled cartridges or shells containing cases or hulls, primers, bullets 19 or shot and propellant powder designed for use in any firearm.

20 “Antique Firearm”, shall mean;

21 (A) any firearm manufactured in or prior to the year 1899;

22 (B) any replica of any firearm described in clause (A) if such replica: (i) is not designed 23 or redesigned for using rimfire or conventional centerfire cartridges; or (ii) uses rimfire or 24 conventional centerfire cartridges which are no longer manufactured in the United States and 25 which are not readily available in the ordinary channels of commercial trade.

26 “Firearm”, any device which will, or is designed to, or may readily be converted to, 27 expel a projectile by the action of a propellant powder. Such term does not include an antique 28 firearm. This term shall be meant to include a rifle, shotgun or handgun. The term shall not 29 include B.B. guns or other air guns.

30 “Handgun”, a firearm which has a short stock and is designed to be held and fired by 31 the use of a single hand.

32 “Imitation firearm”, a replica firearm which is designed, manufactured or altered in

63 or within 90 days after the expiration of the time limit in which the local licensing agent is 64 required to respond to the applicant, file a petition to obtain judicial review in the district court
65 having jurisdiction in the city or town wherein the applicant filed for or was issued such card. A 66 justice of such court, after a hearing and a finding of the facts, shall determine if the petitioner is 67 presently eligible for a firearm identification card. In said hearing, the burden of evidence shall 68 be on the entity denying the card. The presumption of innocence in regard to the person seeking 69 a card shall exist. If the justice finds in favor of the petitioner, said justice shall order the local 70 licensing agent to issue the firearms identification card to the petitioner within 10 days. The local

71 licensing agent shall have no right to appeal the decision of a court order to issue said card. A 72 refusal to issue said card by the local licensing agent shall place the local licensing agent in 73 contempt of court.

74 SECTION 6. Chapter 140 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out
75 Section 123, in its entirety, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

76 Section 123. A firearm identification card shall be issued and possessed subject to 77 the following conditions and restrictions:

78 (1) Any person legally residing or having a place of business within the jurisdiction of 79 the local licensing agent or any person residing in an area of exclusive federal jurisdiction
80 located within a city or town may submit to the local licensing agent an application for a firearm 81 identification card, or renewal of the same, which the local licensing agent shall issue unless the 82 applicant has been deemed to be a prohibited person Section 9A of Chapter 269.

83 (2) Upon receiving an application for a firearm identification card, the local licensing 84 agent or person accepting applications on behalf of the local licensing agent shall immediately 85 issue a receipt form for said application. Said form shall be made standard and supplied by the 86 Secretary of Public Safety.

87 (3) Within seven days of the receipt of a completed application for a firearm
88 identification card, the local licensing agent shall forward one copy of the application and one
89 copy of the applicant's fingerprints to the Secretary of Public Safety. The taking of fingerprints 90 shall not be required in issuing the renewal of a card if the renewal applicant's fingerprints are on 91 file with the Secretary of Public Safety. The Secretary of Public Safety shall within 15 days
92 advise the local licensing agent, in writing, of the applicant's status as a prohibited person. If the

93 information from Secretary of Public Safety does not state in writing that the applicant is a 94 prohibited person, the local licensing agent shall, within 30 days from the date of application, 95 issue the firearm identification card.

96 (4) If the applicant is determined to be a prohibited person, the local licensing agent
97 shall, within 30 days from the date of application, issue the applicant a denial/revocation form.
98 This form shall be made standard in form and supplied by the Secretary of Public Safety. The 99 denial/revocation form shall include the applicant's personal information, date of denial, a copy
100 of their prohibited person file, prohibited person file number and the relevant information
101 regarding an appeal as a prohibited person under section 122B.

103 condition for the issuance of a firearm identification card not specified within this section.

104 (6) A firearm identification card shall be revoked or suspended by the local licensing
105 agent or his designee upon receiving notice from the Secretary of Public Safety that the card 106 holder has become a prohibited person.

107 (7) Upon revocation of a Firearm Identification Card, the local licensing agent shall 108 take possession of such card and the person whose card is so revoked or suspended shall take all 109 action required under the provisions of section 125. No appeal or post-judgment motion shall 110 operate to stay such revocation. A revoked or suspended card shall be reinstated when it is 111 determined by the Secretary of Public Safety that the card holder or applicant is no longer a 112 prohibited person.

113 (8) A firearm identification card shall be valid for all lawful purposes subject to the 114 following age based conditions:

115 (a) A firearm identification card holder aged 15 through 17 shall be entitled to borrow,
116 possess, carry, or transport any rifle or shotgun;

124 contain an identification number, name, address, photograph, place and date of birth, height,
125 weight, hair color, eye color and signature of the cardholder and shall be marked "Firearm 126 Identification Card".

127 (10) The application for such card shall be made in a standard form provided by the 128 Secretary of Public Safety. The application shall not require the applicant to divulge to any 129 person not directly involved with the licensing process under this section that they are applying 130 for a firearm identification card, nor shall the application require that the applicant supply any 131 letters of reference. Any applicant shall have the right to file an amended application if it is 132 found that the applicant did not correctly understand the questions being asked. No applicant
133 shall be denied a firearms identification card because of the need to submit an amended
134 application. The local licensing agent may not prescribe any other condition for the issuance of a 135 firearm identification card.

136 (11) Any person who knowingly files an application containing false information with 137 the expressed intent to deceive the local licensing agent shall be punished by a fine of not less 138 than $500 nor more than $5,000.

139 (12) A Firearm Identification Card shall be valid for a period of not less than 6 years
140 from the date of issue, except that if the cardholder applied for renewal before the card expired,
141 the card shall remain valid until revoked or renewed. A card issued on February 29 shall expire

148 (14) The fee for an application for a firearm identification card shall be $40, which 149 shall be payable to the city or town of the local licensing agent and shall not be prorated or 150 refunded in the case of revocation or denial.

151 (15) Any person of the age of 70 or older or under the age of 18 upon filing for such 152 card or renewal shall be exempt from the requirement of paying a fee for a firearm identification 153 card. All fees for an application for a firearm identification card shall be prorated if it is 154 determined that the applicant will turn 70 years of age during the upcoming license term.

155 (16) Upon issuance of a firearm identification card under this section, the local 156 licensing agent shall forward a copy of such approved application and card to the Secretary of 157 Public Safety, who shall inform the local licensing agent forthwith of the existence of any

158 disqualifying condition discovered or occurring subsequent to the issuance of a firearm 159 identification card under this section.

160 (17) Nothing in this section shall authorize the purchase, possession or transfer of any 161 firearm or ammunition that is prohibited by state or federal law.

162 (18) Transition. Any license to carry a firearm or firearms identification card that is 163 not expired, suspended or revoked at the time of passage of this act shall be deemed to be a 164 firearms identification card as described in this section. All licenses to carry a firearm shall be
