An Act relative to restaurant training.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 140 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out
2 Section 6B and inserting in place there of the following new section:

3 Section 6B. (a) As used in this section, the term “department” shall mean the department
4 of public health.

5 (b) Every person licensed as an innholder or common victualer, when serving food, shall:

6 (1) prominently display a poster approved by the department relative to food allergy
7 awareness in the staff area. The poster shall provide, but not be limited to, information regarding 8 the risk of an allergic reaction and shall be developed by an individual or chain restaurant, an
9 industry trade group, a chamber of commerce or the Food Allergy and Anaphylactic Network;
10 and

11 (2) include on all printed menus a notice to customers of the customer's obligation to 12 inform the server about any food allergies or provide handouts that either educate customers on 13 food allergens or informs customers of the customer's obligation to inform servers about any 14 food allergies.

15 (c) A person in charge and certified food protection manager, as those terms are used in 16 the state sanitary code for food establishments, shall, in order to obtain his certification, view, as 17 part of an otherwise approved food protection manager course, a video concerning food allergies
18 or participate in an allergy training course. The department shall approve the video or food
19 allergy training course. The department shall also require that any certified food protection 20 manager examination offered by an accredited program recognized by the department shall 21 include questions concerning food allergies as they relate to food preparation. Any person
22 designated as an alternate person-in charge, as that term is used in the state sanitary code for food 23 establishments, shall, in addition to existing requirements, also be knowledgeable with regard to 24 the relevant issues concerning food allergies as they relate to food preparation.

25 (d) A violation of this section shall be subject to the remedies available under the state
26 sanitary code for food establishments.

27 (e) The department may adopt regulations to carry out this section.

28 (f) This section does not establish or change any private cause of action. This section
29 does not change any duty under any other statute or the common law, except as this section 30 expressly provides.

31 (g) The department shall develop a program for restaurants to be designated as "Food 32 Allergy Friendly" and shall maintain a listing of restaurants receiving such designation on its

33 website. Participation in the program shall be voluntary and the department shall, issue 34 guidelines and requirements for restaurants to receive such designation, provided that such 35 requirements shall include, but not be limited to, maintaining on the premises, and making
36 available to the public, a master list of all the ingredients used in the preparation of each food
37 item available for consumption.

38           SECTION 2. Chapter 527 of the acts of 2008 is hereby amended by striking out section 3
39 and inserting in place there of the following new section:

40           Section 3. Clause (2) of subsection (b) of section 6B of chapter 140 of the General Laws
41 shall take effective on January 1, 2012.
