HOUSE . . . . . No. 2130

By Mr. Sciortino of Medford, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 2130) of Forry and others to expand housing opportunities for persons displaced by public action or natural disaster and persons who are homeless or facing imminent homelessness Joint Committee on Housing.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act to expand housing opportunities.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, tenant
2 selection plans for units with development or project-based subsidies which limit tenants' rental 3 contributions to a percentage of household income shall include a tenant selection preference for 4 homeless and imminently homeless families as defined below. The preference shall apply only 5 to the extent consistent with any applicable federal requirements, in any rental housing financed 6 or refinanced by public instrumentalities of the Commonwealth, including, but not limited to,
7 those entities described in G.L. c. 23B, § 2(b), G.L. c. 23G, and Section 7 of chapter 708 of the 8 Acts of 1966 as most recently amended,. As between applicants equally in need and eligible for 9 occupancy of the unit, the preference shall apply to persons displaced by public action or natural 10 disaster and persons who are homeless or facing imminent homelessness for reasons beyond the 11 applicants' ability reasonably to control or prevent. For purposes of the preceding sentence, 12 persons who are homeless or facing imminent homelessness for reasons beyond the applicant's 13 ability reasonably to control or prevent shall include, but need not be limited to, those who both

14 (a) are living in emergency shelter, on the street, in cars, in housing that is unsafe due to 15 domestic violence or medical conditions, in other places not suitable for human habitation, in 16 transitional housing, or in private market units made affordable only due to temporary rental 17 subsidies or are within 90 days of having no identified, safe and affordable housing options and 18 (b) either (i) have been displaced or are facing displacement by court-ordered eviction without 19 fault, which shall include eviction for nonpayment of rent where the tenant's rent and shelter cost 20 burden exceeded or exceeds fifty percent of adjusted income at the time of the eviction and 21 where the nonpayment arose from changes in circumstances which were beyond the tenant's 22 ability to prevent or control, such as departure of a household member, job loss or reduction of 23 income, or illness or high medical costs; (ii) are victims of domestic violence who have been 24 displaced or are at imminent risk of harm or displacement as a result of such violence, or (iii) are 25 persons with medical emergencies or conditions who cannot be or could not be accommodated in 26 their existing or former housing or for whom lack of suitable housing is a significant impediment 27 to treatment or recovery.

28 SECTION 2. Subsection (r) of section 3 of chapter 23B of the General Laws is hereby 29 amended by adding the following additional words: - provided further, however, that a 30 household that otherwise qualifies for any preference or priority for state subsidized housing or 31 rental assistance based on homeless or at-risk status shall retain that preference or priority 32 notwithstanding receipt of rental assistance that is intended to be temporary, including, but not 33 limited to, any temporary or bridge subsidies provided with state, federal or local funds and the 34 department shall incorporate this policy into its regulations governing tenant selection criteria.
