HOUSE No. 2227

By Mr. Kafka of Stoughton, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 2227) of Louis L. Kafka relative to the prosecution of persons charged with the crime of checking fraud. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven
—————

An Act relative to checking fraud.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 37 of Chapter 266 of the Massachusetts General Laws, as appearing
2 in the 2002 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the words “thereby shall be 3 guilty of attempted larceny” the following sentence: Whoever is charged with violating this 4 section may be arrested, prosecuted, and punished in the same jurisdiction in which the check’s 5 information was illegally obtained, or where the check’s information was attempted to be 6 illegally used with the intent to defraud the account holder. Additionally, if where or how the 7 information was obtained is unknown, but the law enforcement officer has probable cause to 8 charge the violator, as defined in the Massachusetts General Laws Section 94A of Chapter 231,
9 then the violator may be arrested, prosecuted, and punished in the jurisdiction of the account 10 holder’s residence or place of business.

11 SECTION 2. Section 37 of Chapter 266 of the Massachusetts General Laws, as appearing 12 in the 2002 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the words “thereby shall be 13 guilty of larceny” the following sentence: Whoever is charged with violating this section may be

14 arrested, prosecuted, and punished in the same jurisdiction in which the check's information was 15 illegally obtained, or where the check's information was illegally used, defrauding the account
16 holder. Additionally, if where or how the information was obtained is unknown, but the law
17 enforcement officer has probable cause to charge the violator, as defined in the Massachusetts 18 General Laws Section 94A of Chapter 231, then the violator may be arrested, prosecuted, and 19 punished in the jurisdiction of the account holder's residence or place of business.
