317 guardian ad litem to bring a plaintiff's action within the applicable limitation period will not 318 prejudice the plaintiff's right to do so after his disability ceases.

319 (d) A defendant is estopped from asserting a defense of the statute of limitations when the 320 expiration of the statute is due to conduct by the defendant inducing the plaintiff to delay the 321 filing of the action or preventing the plaintiff from filing the action or threats made by the 322 defendant that caused duress upon the plaintiff.

323 (e) The suspension of the statute of limitations due to disability or estoppel applies to all 324 other related claims arising out of the trafficking situation. A criminal action includes 325 investigation and prosecution and remains pending until final adjudication in the trial court. Any 326 legal guardian, family member, representative of the human trafficking victim, or court

327 appointee may represent the human trafficking victim's rights, in the event the human trafficking 328 victim is deceased or otherwise unable to represent his own interests in court.

329           Section 14. (a) The following property shall be subject to forfeiture to the 330 commonwealth and all property rights therein shall be in the commonwealth:

331           (i) all conveyances, including aircraft, vehicles or vessels used, or intended for use, to 332 transport, conceal or otherwise facilitate a violation of section 2, 3 or 4;

333           (ii) all books, records, and research, including microfilm, tapes and data which are used, 334 or intended for use, in violation of section 2, 3 or 4;

338 any other thing of value, and all monies, negotiable instruments, and securities used or intended 339 to be used to facilitate any violation of section 2, 3, 4 or 5; and

340           (iv) all real property, including any right, title and interest in the whole of any lot or tract 341 of land and any appurtenances or improvements thereto, which is used in any manner or part, to 342 commit or to facilitate any violation of section 2, 3 or 4.

343           No forfeiture under this section shall extinguish a perfected security interest held by a 344 creditor in a conveyance or in any real property at the time of the filing of the forfeiture action.

345           (b) Property subject to forfeiture pursuant to clauses (i) to (iv), inclusive, shall, upon 346 motion of the attorney general or district attorney, be declared forfeit by any court having

347 jurisdiction over said property or having final jurisdiction over any related criminal proceeding 348 brought under this section.

349 (c) The court shall order forfeiture of all conveyances and real property subject to 350 forfeiture under this section, except as follows:

351 (i) no conveyance used by any person as a common carrier in the transaction of business 352 as a common carrier shall be forfeited unless it shall appear that the owner or other person in 353 charge of such conveyance was a consenting party or privy to a violation of section 2, 3 or 4;

354 (ii) no conveyance shall be forfeited by reason of any act or omission established by the 355 owner thereof to have been committed or omitted by any person other than such owner while 356 such conveyance was unlawfully in the possession of a person other than the owner in violation 357 of the criminal laws of the United States, or of the commonwealth, or of any state; and

358 (iii) no conveyance or real property shall be subject to forfeiture unless the owner thereof 359 knew or should have known that such conveyance or real property was used in violation of 360 section 2, 3 or 4.

361 (d) A district attorney or the attorney general may petition the superior court in the name 362 of the commonwealth in the nature of a proceeding in rem to order forfeiture of a conveyance, 363 real property, monies or other things of value subject to forfeiture under subsection (a). Such 364 petition shall be filed in the court having jurisdiction over the conveyance, real property, monies 365 or other things of value or having final jurisdiction over any related criminal proceeding brought 366 under section 2, 3 or 4. In all such suits in which the property is claimed by any person, other 367 than the commonwealth, the commonwealth shall have the burden of proving to the court the 368 existence of probable cause to institute the action, and any such claimant shall then have the 369 burden of proving that the property is not forfeitable pursuant to subsection (c). The owner of 370 the conveyance or real property, or other person claiming thereunder shall have the burden of 371 proof as to all exceptions set forth in subsections (c) and (j). The court shall order the 372 commonwealth to give notice by certified or registered mail to the owner of the conveyance, real 373 property, monies or other things of value and to such other persons as appear to have an interest 374 therein, and the court shall promptly, but not less than 2 weeks after notice, hold a hearing on the 375 petition. Upon the motion of the owner of the conveyance, real property, monies or other things 376 of value, the court may continue the hearing on the petition pending the outcome of any criminal 377 trial related to the violation of section 2, 3 or 4. At such hearing the court shall hear evidence 378 and make conclusions of law, and shall thereupon issue a final order, from which the parties shall 379 have a right of appeal. In all such suits where a final order results in a forfeiture, the final order 380 shall provide for disposition of the conveyance, real property, monies or any other thing of value 381 by the commonwealth or any subdivision thereof in any manner not prohibited by law, including 382 official use by an authorized law enforcement or other public agency, or sale at public auction or 383 by competitive bidding. The proceeds of any such sale shall be used to pay the reasonable 384 expenses of the forfeiture proceedings, seizure, storage, maintenance of custody, advertising and 385 notice and the balance thereof shall be distributed as further provided in this section.

386 (e) The final order of the court shall provide that the monies and the proceeds of any such 387 sale shall be distributed as follows:

388 (i) half shall be divided equally between the prosecuting district attorney or attorney
389 general and the city, town or state police department involved in the seizure. If more than 1 390 department was substantially involved in the seizure, the court having jurisdiction over the 391 forfeiture proceeding shall distribute the police portion equitably among these departments; and

392 (ii) half shall be deposited into the Victims of Human Trafficking Trust Fund established 393 in section 66A of chapter 10.

394 (f) All such monies and proceeds received by any prosecuting district attorney or attorney 395 general shall be deposited in the separate special law enforcement trust funds for each district 396 attorney and for the attorney general within the office of the state treasurer, established under 397 paragraph (d) of section 47 of chapter 94C. Each district attorney, the attorney general or the 398 state treasurer shall ensure that proper accounting procedures are in place to account for monies
399 and proceeds received and expended pursuant to this section. All such monies and proceeds 400 shall be expended without further appropriation to defray the costs of protracted investigations, 401 to provide additional technical equipment or expertise, to provide matching funds to obtain 402 federal grants, or for such other law enforcement purposes as the district attorney or attorney 403 general deems appropriate. The district attorney or attorney general may also expend monies 404 and proceeds for human trafficking prevention or to provide victims' services to human 405 trafficking victims. Within 90 days of the close of the fiscal year, each district attorney and the 406 attorney general shall file an annual report with the house and senate committees on ways and 407 means on the use of the monies in such trust fund to prohibit human trafficking.

408 (g) All such monies and proceeds received by any police department shall be deposited in 409 a special law enforcement trust fund and shall be expended without further appropriation to 410 defray the costs of protracted investigations, to provide additional technical equipment or 411 expertise, to provide matching funds to obtain federal grants, or to accomplish such other law 412 enforcement purposes as the chief of police of such city or town, or the colonel of state police 413 deems appropriate, but such funds shall not be considered a source of revenue to meet the 414 operating needs of such department.

415 (h) Any officer, department, or agency having custody of any property subject to 416 forfeiture under this section or having disposed of the property shall keep and maintain full and 417 complete records showing from whom it received the property, under what authority it held or 418 received or disposed of said property, to whom it delivered the property, the date and manner of 419 disposition of the property, and the exact kinds, quantities and forms of the property. The 420 records shall be open to inspection by all federal and state officers charged with enforcement of 421 federal and state human trafficking laws. Persons making final disposition of the property under 422 court order shall report, under oath, to the court the exact circumstances of such disposition.

423 (i) (i) During the pendency of the proceedings the court may issue at the request of the 424 commonwealth ex parte any preliminary order or process as is necessary to seize or secure the 425 property for which forfeiture is sought and to provide for its custody including, but not limited 426 to: an order that the commonwealth remove the property if possible and safeguard it in a secure 427 location in a reasonable fashion; that monies be deposited in an interest-bearing escrow account 428 and; that a substitute custodian be appointed to manage such property. Property taken or 429 detained under this section shall not be repleviable, but once seized shall be deemed to be 430 lawfully in the custody of the commonwealth pending forfeiture, subject only to the orders and 431 decrees of the court having jurisdiction thereof. Process for seizure of the property shall issue 432 only upon a showing of probable cause, and the application therefore and the issuance, execution 433 and return thereof shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 276, so far as applicable.

434 (ii) A district attorney or the attorney general may refer any real property, and any 435 furnishings, equipment and related personal property located therein, for which seizure is sought, 436 to the division of capital asset management and maintenance office of seized property
437 management, established under section 47 of chapter 94C. The office of seized property

438 management shall preserve and manage the property in a reasonable fashion and dispose of the 439 property upon a judgment ordering forfeiture, and to enter into contracts to preserve, manage and 440 dispose of the property. The office of seized property management may receive initial funding 441 from the special law enforcement trust funds of the attorney general and each district attorney 442 under paragraph (f) and shall subsequently be funded by a portion of the proceeds of each sale of 443 such managed property to the extent provided as payment of reasonable expenses in paragraph 444 (d).

445 (j) The owner of any real property which is the principal domicile of the immediate 446 family of the owner and which is subject to forfeiture under this section may file a petition for 447 homestead exemption with the court having jurisdiction over such forfeiture. The court may, in 448 its discretion, allow the petition exempting from forfeiture an amount allowed under section 1 of 449 chapter 188. The value of the balance of the principal domicile, if any, shall be forfeited as 450 provided in this section. Such homestead exemption may be acquired on only 1 principal 451 domicile for the benefit of the immediate family of the owner.

452 (k) A forfeiture proceeding affecting the title to real property or the use and occupation 453 thereof or the buildings thereon shall not have any effect except against the parties thereto and 454 persons having actual notice thereof, until a memorandum containing the names of the parties to 455 such proceeding, the name of the town wherein the affected real property lies, and a description 456 of the real property sufficiently accurate for identification is recorded in the registry of deeds for 457 the county or district wherein the real property lies. At any time after a judgment on the merits, 458 or after the discontinuance, dismissal or other final disposition is recorded by the court having 459 jurisdiction over such matter, the clerk of such court shall issue a certificate of the fact of such 460 judgment, discontinuance, dismissal or other final disposition, and such certificate shall be

461 recorded in the registry in which the original memorandum recorded pursuant to this section was 462 filed.

463           Section 15. In any prosecution of a person who is a human trafficking victim, it shall be 464 an affirmative defense that he was under duress or coerced into committing the offenses for 465 which he is being prosecuted, unless prohibited by the general laws. A human trafficking victim 466 is not criminally liable for any sexual conduct for a fee or other thing of value committed as a 467 direct result of, or incident or related to, being trafficked.

468           Section 16. Compensation is mandatory under this section. In addition to any other 469 amount of loss identified, the division of victim compensation and assistance in the department

471 following: (1) the gross income or value to the defendant of the victim's labor or services or (2)
