55 (B) a legislative body conducting a hearing or similar process.

56 Section 3. This chapter applies to a collaborative law participation agreement that meets 57 the requirements of Section 4 signed on or after the effective date of this chapter.

58 Section 4. (a) A collaborative law participation agreement must:

59 (1) be in a record;

60 (2) be signed by the parties;

61 (3) state the parties’ intention to resolve a collaborative matter through a 62 collaborative law process under this chapter;

63 (4) describe the nature and scope of the matter;

64 (5) identify the collaborative lawyer who represents each party in the process; and

65 (6) contain a statement by each collaborative lawyer confirming the lawyer’s 66 representation of a party in the collaborative law process.

67 (b) Parties may agree to include in a collaborative law participation agreement additional 68 provisions not inconsistent with this chapter.

69 Section 5. (a) A collaborative law process begins when the parties sign a collaborative 70 law participation agreement.

71 (b) A tribunal may not order a party to participate in a collaborative law process over that 72 party's objection.

73 (c) A collaborative law process is concluded by a:

74 (1) resolution of a collaborative matter as evidenced by a signed record;

75 (2) resolution of a part of the collaborative matter, evidenced by a signed record, 76 in which the parties agree that the remaining parts of the matter will not be resolved in the 77 process; or

78 (3) termination of the process.

79 (d) A collaborative law process terminates:

80 (1) when a party gives notice to other parties in a record that the process is ended;

81 (2) when a party:

82 (A) begins a proceeding related to a collaborative matter without the 83 agreement of all parties; or

84 (B) in a pending proceeding related to the matter:

85 (i) initiates a pleading, motion, order to show cause, or request for 86 a conference with the tribunal;

87 (ii) requests that the proceeding be put on the tribunal's active 88 calendar; or

89 (iii) takes similar action requiring notice to be sent to the parties; or

90 (3) except as otherwise provided by subsection (g), when a party discharges a 91 collaborative lawyer or a collaborative lawyer withdraws from further representation of a party.

92 (e) A party's collaborative lawyer shall give prompt notice to all other parties in a record
93 of a discharge or withdrawal.

94 (f) A party may terminate a collaborative law process with or without cause.

95 (g) Notwithstanding the discharge or withdrawal of a collaborative lawyer, a 96 collaborative law process continues, if not later than 30 days after the date that the notice of the 97 discharge or withdrawal of a collaborative lawyer required by subsection (e) is sent to the 98 parties:

99 (1) the unrepresented party engages a successor collaborative lawyer; and

100 (2) in a signed record:

101 (A) the parties consent to continue the process by reaffirming the 102 collaborative law participation agreement;

103 (B) the agreement is amended to identify the successor collaborative 104 lawyer; and

105 (C) the successor collaborative lawyer confirms the lawyer's
106 representation of a party in the collaborative process.

107 (h) A collaborative law process does not conclude if, with the consent of the parties, a 108 party requests a tribunal to approve a resolution of the collaborative matter or any part thereof as 109 evidenced by a signed record.

110 (i) A collaborative law participation agreement may provide additional methods of 111 concluding a collaborative law process.

112 Section 6. (a) Persons in a proceeding pending before a tribunal may sign a collaborative 113 law participation agreement to seek to resolve a collaborative matter related to the proceeding.
114 The parties shall file promptly with the tribunal a notice of the agreement after it is signed.
115 Subject to subsection (c) and Sections 7 and 8, the filing operates as an application for a stay of 116 the proceeding.

117 (b) The parties shall file promptly with the tribunal notice in a record when a 118 collaborative law process concludes. The stay of the proceeding under subsection (a) is lifted 119 when the notice is filed. The notice may not specify any reason for termination of the process.

120 (c) A tribunal in which a proceeding is stayed under subsection (a) may require the 121 parties and collaborative lawyers to provide a status report on the collaborative law process and 122 the proceeding. A status report may include only information on whether the process is ongoing 123 or concluded. It may not include a report, assessment, evaluation, recommendation, finding, or 124 other communication regarding a collaborative law process or collaborative law matter.

125 (d) A tribunal may not consider a communication made in violation of subsection (c).

126 (e) A tribunal shall provide parties notice and an opportunity to be heard before 127 dismissing a proceeding in which a notice of collaborative process is filed based on delay or 128 failure to prosecute.

129 Section 7. During a collaborative law process, a tribunal may issue emergency orders to 130 protect the health, safety, welfare, or interest of a party or family or household member.

131 Section 8. A tribunal may approve an agreement resulting from a collaborative law 132 process.

133 Section 9. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), a collaborative lawyer is 134 disqualified from appearing before a tribunal to represent a party in a proceeding related to the 135 collaborative matter.

136 (b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c) and Sections 10 and 11, a lawyer in a 137 law firm with which the collaborative lawyer is associated is disqualified from appearing before 138 a tribunal to represent a party in a proceeding related to the collaborative matter if the 139 collaborative lawyer is disqualified from doing so under subsection (a).

140 (c) A collaborative lawyer or a lawyer in a law firm with which the collaborative lawyer
141 is associated may represent a party:

142 (1) to ask a tribunal to approve an agreement resulting from the collaborative law
143 process; or

144 (2) to seek or defend an emergency order to protect the health, safety, welfare, or 145 interest of a party, or family or household member if a successor lawyer is not immediately 146 available to represent that person.

147 (d) If subsection (c)(2) applies, a collaborative lawyer, or lawyer in a law firm with which 148 the collaborative lawyer is associated, may represent a party or family or household member 149 only until the person is represented by a successor lawyer or reasonable measures are taken to 150 protect the health, safety, welfare, or interest of the person.

151 Section 10. (a) The disqualification of Section 9(a) applies to a collaborative lawyer
152 representing a party with or without fee.

153 (b) After a collaborative law process concludes, another lawyer in a law firm with which 154 a collaborative lawyer disqualified under Section 9(a) is associated may represent a party without 155 fee in the collaborative matter or a matter related to the collaborative matter if:

156 (1) the party has an annual income that qualifies the party for free legal 157 representation under the criteria established by the law firm for free legal representation;

158 (2) the collaborative law participation agreement so provides; and

159 (3) the collaborative lawyer is isolated from any participation in the collaborative
160 matter or a matter related to the collaborative matter through procedures within the law firm
161 which are reasonably calculated to isolate the collaborative lawyer from such participation.

162 Section 11. (a) The disqualification of Section 9(a) applies to a collaborative lawyer
163 representing a party that is a government or governmental subdivision, agency, or 164 instrumentality.

165 (b) After a collaborative law process concludes, another lawyer in a law firm with which 166 the collaborative lawyer is associated may represent a government or governmental subdivision,

167 agency, or instrumentality in the collaborative matter or a matter related to the collaborative 168 matter if:

169 (1) the collaborative law participation agreement so provides; and

170 (2) the collaborative lawyer is isolated from any participation in the collaborative
171 matter or a matter related to the collaborative matter through procedures within the law firm
172 which are reasonably calculated to isolate the collaborative lawyer from such participation.

173 Section 12. Except as provided by law other than this [act], during the collaborative law
174 process, on the request of another party, a party shall make timely, full, candid, and informal
175 disclosure of information related to the collaborative matter without formal discovery. A party 176 also shall update promptly previously disclosed information that has materially changed. The 177 parties may define the scope of disclosure during the collaborative law process.

178 Section 13. This chapter does not affect:

179 (1) the professional responsibility obligations and standards applicable to a lawyer or 180 other licensed professional; or

181 (2) the obligation of a person to report abuse or neglect, abandonment, or exploitation of 182 a child or adult under the law of this state.

183 Section 14. Before a prospective party signs a collaborative law participation agreement, 184 a prospective collaborative lawyer shall:

185 (1) assess with the prospective party factors the lawyer reasonably believes relate to 186 whether a collaborative law process is appropriate for the prospective party's matter;

187 (2) provide the prospective party with information that the lawyer reasonably believes is 188 sufficient for the party to make an informed decision about the material benefits and risks of a 189 collaborative law process as compared to the material benefits and risks of other reasonably 190 available alternatives for resolving the proposed collaborative matter, such as litigation, 191 mediation, arbitration, or expert evaluation; and

192 (3) advise the prospective party that:

193 (A) after signing an agreement if a party initiates a proceeding or seeks tribunal
194 intervention in a pending proceeding related to the collaborative matter, the collaborative law
195 process terminates;

196 (B) participation in a collaborative law process is voluntary and any party has the 197 right to terminate unilaterally a collaborative law process with or without cause; and

198 (C) the collaborative lawyer and any lawyer in a law firm with which the 199 collaborative lawyer is associated may not appear before a tribunal to represent a party in a 200 proceeding related to the collaborative matter, except as authorized by Section 9(c), 10(b), or 201 11(b).

202 Section 15. (a) Before a prospective party signs a collaborative law participation 203 agreement, a prospective collaborative lawyer shall make reasonable inquiry whether the 204 prospective party has a history of a coercive or violent relationship with another prospective 205 party.

206 (b) Throughout a collaborative law process, a collaborative lawyer reasonably and 207 continuously shall assess whether the party the collaborative lawyer represents has a history of a 208 coercive or violent relationship with another party.

209 (c) If a collaborative lawyer reasonably believes that the party the lawyer represents or 210 the prospective party who consults the lawyer has a history of a coercive or violent relationship
211 with another party or prospective party, the lawyer may not begin or continue a collaborative law 212 process unless:

213 (1) the party or the prospective party requests beginning or continuing a process;
214 and

215 (2) the collaborative lawyer reasonably believes that the safety of the party or 216 prospective party can be protected adequately during a process.

217 Section 16. A collaborative law communication is confidential to the extent agreed by the 218 parties in a signed record or as provided by law of this state other than this chapter.

219 Section 17. (a) Subject to Sections 18 and 19, a collaborative law communication is 220 privileged under subsection (b), is not subject to discovery, and is not admissible in evidence.

221 (b) In a proceeding, the following privileges apply:

222 (1) A party may refuse to disclose, and may prevent any other person from 223 disclosing, a collaborative law communication.

224 (2) A nonparty participant may refuse to disclose, and may prevent any other 225 person from disclosing, a collaborative law communication of the nonparty participant.

226 (c) Evidence or information that is otherwise admissible or subject to discovery does not 227 become inadmissible or protected from discovery solely because of its disclosure or use in a 228 collaborative law process.

229 Section 18. (a) A privilege under Section 17 may be waived in a record or orally during a
230 proceeding if it is expressly waived by all parties and, in the case of the privilege of a nonparty 231 participant, it is also expressly waived by the nonparty participant.

232 (b) A person that makes a disclosure or representation about a collaborative law 233 communication which prejudices another person in a proceeding may not assert a privilege under 234 Section 17, but this preclusion applies only to the extent necessary for the person prejudiced to 235 respond to the disclosure or representation.

236 Section 19. (a) There is no privilege under Section 17 for a collaborative law 237 communication that is:

238 (1) available to the public under chapter 4, section 7 and chapter 66, section 10, or made 239 during a session of a collaborative law process that is open, or is required by law to be open, to 240 the public;

241 (2) a threat or statement of a plan to inflict bodily injury or commit a crime of violence;

242 (3) intentionally used to plan a crime, commit or attempt to commit a crime, or conceal 243 an ongoing crime or ongoing criminal activity; or

244 (4) in an agreement resulting from the collaborative law process, evidenced by a record
245 signed by all parties to the agreement.

246 (b) The privileges under Section 17 for a collaborative law communication do not apply 247 to the extent that a communication is:

248 (1) sought or offered to prove or disprove a claim or complaint of professional 249 misconduct or malpractice arising from or related to a collaborative law process; or

250 (2) sought or offered to prove or disprove abuse, neglect, abandonment, or 251 exploitation of a child or adult, unless the [child protective services agency or adult protective 252 services agency] is a party to or otherwise participates in the process.

253 (c) There is no privilege under Section 17 if a tribunal finds, after a hearing in camera,
254 that the party seeking discovery or the proponent of the evidence has shown the evidence is not 255 otherwise available, the need for the evidence substantially outweighs the interest in protecting 256 confidentiality, and the collaborative law communication is sought or offered in:

257 (1) a court proceeding involving a felony or misdemeanor; or

258 (2) a proceeding seeking rescission or reformation of a contract arising out of the 259 collaborative law process or in which a defense to avoid liability on the contract is asserted.

260 (d) If a collaborative law communication is subject to an exception under subsection (b) 261 or (c), only the part of the communication necessary for the application of the exception may be 262 disclosed or admitted.

263 (e) Disclosure or admission of evidence excepted from the privilege under subsection (b)
264 or (c) does not make the evidence or any other collaborative law communication discoverable or 265 admissible for any other purpose.

266 (f) The privileges under Section 17 do not apply if the parties agree in advance in a 267 signed record, or if a record of a proceeding reflects agreement by the parties, that all or part of a
268 collaborative law process is not privileged. This subsection does not apply to a collaborative law 269 communication made by a person that did not receive actual notice of the agreement before the 270 communication was made.

271

272 Section 20. (a) If an agreement fails to meet the requirements of Section 4, or a lawyer
273 fails to comply with Section 14 or 15, a tribunal may nonetheless find that the parties intended to 274 enter into a collaborative law participation agreement if they:

275 (1) signed a record indicating an intention to enter into a collaborative law 276 participation agreement; and

277 (2) reasonably believed they were participating in a collaborative law process.

278 (b) If a tribunal makes the findings specified in subsection (a), and the interests of justice
279 require, the tribunal may:

280 (1) enforce an agreement evidenced by a record resulting from the process in 281 which the parties participated;

282 (2) apply the disqualification provisions of Sections 5, 6, 9, 10, and 11; and 283 (3) apply a privilege under Section 17.

284 Section 21. In applying and construing this uniform act, consideration must be given to 285 the need to promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that 286 enact it.

287 Section 22. This chapter modifies, limits, and supersedes the federal Electronic 288 Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, 15 U.S.C. Section 7001, et seq., but does not 289 modify, limit, or supersede Section 101(c) of that act, 15 U.S.C Section 7001(c), or authorize 290 electronic delivery of any of the notices described in Section 103(b) of that act, 15 U.S.C.
291 Section 7003(b).

292 SECTION 2. This Act takes effect on July first, two thousand and twelve.

293 two thousand and twelve.
