The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

Resolve providing for an investigation and study by a special commission (including members of the General Court) relative to creating and expanding access to opportunity in low-opportunity communities.

1 Resolved, SECTION 1. Preamble.

2 Whereas the legislature finds that nationwide, 1 in 7 Americans now live in poverty, the 3 largest number recorded in over 51 years of tracking poverty data;

4 Whereas, in the Commonwealth, 1 in 2 children in Springfield live in poverty, 1 in 3 in 5 New Bedford and Lawrence live in poverty, and 1 in 2 people living in poverty are women;

6 Whereas, in the Commonwealth, 9 out of 10 high-income and low-income Latino and 7 African-American households are isolated in low-opportunity communities, and 3 out of 10 8 residents live in low-opportunity communities;

9 Whereas, the Commonwealth recognizes the imperative for long range planning to create 10 and expand economic and social opportunity for all its citizens and reduce the incidence of 11 childhood and adult poverty;

12 SECTION 2. Commission-- Creation and Membership.

13 Be It Resolved, that a special commission is hereby established for the purposes of: a) 14 investigating, devising and recommending statewide strategies to create and expand opportunity 15 in low-opportunity communities; and b) investigating, identifying and recommending public 16 policy strategies and legislation that have the potential to achieve at least a 50 percent reduction 17 in poverty in the state by June 30, 2021.

18 The commission shall consist of 3 members of the senate, two of whom shall be 19 appointed by the senate president and one to be appointed by the senate minority leader; 3 20 members of the house of representatives, two of whom shall be appointed by the speaker and one 21 of whom to be appointed by the house minority leader; the assistant secretary for access and 22 opportunity; the secretary for health and human services or her designee; the undersecretary of 23 the department of housing and community development or her designee; the commissioner of the 24 department of transitional assistance or her designee; the secretary of labor and workforce
25 development or her designee; the secretary of education or his designee; 2 mayors, town
26 managers or chairs of boards of selectmen or their designees nominated by the Massachusetts
27 Municipal Association; 2 directors of community action agencies or their designees as nominated
28 by the Massachusetts Association for Community Action; 2 directors of community development
29 corporations or their designees as nominated by the Massachusetts Association of Community 30 Development Corporations; and 5 persons to be appointed by the governor, three of whom shall

31 be representatives from academic institutions, one from the business community; and one shall 32 be from an organization providing legal services to low-income people. The governor shall 33 designate a member of the commission to serve as one co-chairperson and the members of the 34 commission shall elect a member of the commission to serve as one co-chairperson.

35 SECTION 3. Commission-- Duties.

36 The commission shall develop a comprehensive strategy to create, foster and expand 37 opportunity in low-opportunity communities, including a consensus budget proposal, capable of 38 being implemented over a 5 year period, with a focus on the collaboration of the department of 39 housing and community development, the executive office of health and human services, the 40 executive office of education and other state agencies, departments, and quasi-public entities in 41 the planning and distribution of resources that will create coordinated efforts to expand 42 opportunity, reduce the incidence of poverty, develop jobs and economic opportunities, 43 transportation, and provide other appropriate services. The commission shall also develop 44 comprehensive procedures, priorities and quantifiable benchmarks for gradual reduction poverty.

45 SECTION 4. Commission-- Final Report.

46 The commission shall file its strategic plan, including a timeline for implementation, cost 47 estimates and finance mechanisms and its recommendations, and its budget proposals together 48 with drafts of legislation and regulations, if any, necessary to carry out its recommendations with 49 the clerks of the senate and the house of representatives, the joint committee on children and 50 families, the joint committee on housing, the joint committee on education, the joint committee 51 on community development and small business, and the senate and house committees on ways
52 and means not later than June 30, 2012.
