The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act relative to the prevention of overcompensation in the higher education pension system.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, a commission 2 shall be established to study current compensation practices of the state pension system for 3 retirees from the state’s higher education system. The goal of the commission shall be to review
4 inordinate and excessive compensation packages, including, but not limited to, housing 5 allowances and annuities and make a full report to the legislature with recommendations for 6 legislation to prevent overcompensation. The commission will consist of the Treasurer and 7 Receiver General of the Commonwealth, or his designee; the Commissioner of Higher
8 Education, or his designee; the Executive Director of the Pension Reserves Investment
9 Management Board, or his designee; 3 members of the House of Representatives that are chosen
10 by the Speaker, one of which is a member of the minority party; 3 members of the Senate, 11 chosen by the Senate President, one of which is a member of the minority party; the Secretary of 12 Administration and Finance, or his designee; and one member chosen by the governor. Said 13 commission shall submit said report back to the legislature with findings and recommendations

14 for legislation on or before December 31, 2012.
