SENATE No. 183

By Ms. Chandler, a petition (accompanied by bill, Senate, No. 183) of Harriette L. Chandler, Sonia Chang-Diaz, Kathi-Anne Reinstein, Byron Rushing and other members of the General Court for legislation to design civics as a high school graduation requirement. Education.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act to design, pilot, and implement civics as a high school graduation requirement.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1: Section 2 of Chapter 71 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008
2 Official Edition, is amended, in line 7, by inserting after “ ... for the duties of citizenship.” The 3 following:

4 Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the Department of 5 Elementary and Secondary Education and the Executive Office of Education, in collaboration
6 with a youth advisory committee, shall develop a new curriculum for a High School Civics 7 course which shall include but not be limited to: Function and composition of the branches of 8 local, state, and federal government, the history of social movements, current events, and 9 community-based action and service-learning projects. The curriculum shall be developed no 10 later than May 1, 2012. The Department of Elementary and Secondary Education and the 11 Executive Office of Education, in collaboration with a youth advisory committee, shall also 12 develop a pilot program for the implementation of this course which shall begin no later than the 13 beginning of the 2012-2013 academic school year. The Department of Elementary and

14 Secondary Education and the Executive Office of Education, in collaboration with a youth 15 advisory committee, shall also develop a plan for full implementation of this civics course as a 16 high school graduation requirement to begin no later than the first day of the 2014-2015
17 academic school year.

18 SECTION 2: There shall be a youth advisory committee consisting of 2 members of the 19 Governor's Youth Council, 2 members of the State Student Advisory Council, 1 member of the 20 Special Commission on Civic Engagement and Learning, 5 members of Teens Leading The 21 Way, and 2 youth designated by the Board of Education.

22 SECTION 3: The youth advisory committee, representatives from the Department of 23 Elementary and Secondary Education and the Executive Office of Education shall convene their 24 first meeting not later than 60 days after the effective date of this act.
