DISTRICT/ADDRESS:

SENATE No. 469

By Mr. Tarr, a petition (accompanied by bill, Senate, No. 469) of Bruce E. Tarr for legislation relative to health care mandates. Financial Services.

[SIMILAR MATTER FILED IN PREVIOUS SESSION
SEE SENATE, NO. 514 OF 2009-2010.]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act relative to health care mandates..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Subsection (b) of section 38C of Chapter 3 of the General Laws, as 2 appearing in the 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting at the end thereof the 3 following: Notwithstanding the foregoing or any general or special law or regulation to the 4 contrary, no mandated health benefit bill shall be reported favorably by any joint committee of 5 the general court or the house or senate committees on ways and means, unless and until the rate 6 of increase in the Consumer Price Index (CPI) for medical care services as reported by the 7 United States Bureau of Labor Statistics remains at zero or below zero for two consecutive 8 years. The Division of Health Care Finance and Policy shall file an annual report with the house 9 and senate committees on ways and means, the joint committee on insurance and the joint 10 committee on health care no later than the last day of January for the previous year certifying the 11 rate of increase in the CPI for medical care services.

12 SECTION 2 Section one of Chapter 175 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008
13 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting the following new definitions:-

14 “Flexible health benefit policy” means a health insurance policy that in whole or in part,
15 does not offer state mandated health benefits.

16 “Policy of Accident and Sickness Insurance,” any policy or contract covering the kind or 17 kinds of insurance described in subdivisions (a) through (d) of the sixth paragraph of section 47 18 of this chapter.

19 “State mandated health benefits” means coverage required or required to be offered in the 20 general or special laws as part of a policy of accident or sickness insurance that: 1. includes 21 coverage for specific health care services or benefits; 2. places limitations or restrictions on 22 deductibles, coinsurance, copayments, or any annual or lifetime maximum benefit amounts; or 3 23 includes a specific category of licensed health care practitioner from whom an insured is entitled 24 to receive care.

25 SECTION 3 Section 108 of Chapter 175 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 26 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out subsection 4(c) and inserting in place thereof 27 the following:

28 4(c). Within fifteen days after an insurer's receipt of notice of claim by a claimant or 29 provider under a policy of accident and sickness insurance which is delivered or issued for 30 delivery in the commonwealth, and which provides hospital expense, medical expense, surgical 31 expense or dental expense insurance, the insurer shall furnish such forms as are usually furnished
32 by it for filing proofs of loss. Within forty-five days from said receipt of notice if payment is not 33 made the insurer shall notify the claimant in writing specifying the reasons for the nonpayment

34 or whatever further documentation is necessary for payment of said claim within the terms of the 35 policy. If the insurer fails to comply with the provisions of this paragraph, said insurer shall pay,
36 in addition to any benefits which inure to such claimant or provider, interest on such benefits,
37 which shall accrue beginning forty-five days after the insurer's receipt of notice of claim at the 38 rate of one and one-half percent per month, not to exceed eighteen percent per year. The 39 provisions of this paragraph relating to interest payments shall not apply to a claim which an 40 insurer is investigating because of suspected fraud. Beginning on January 1, 2012, the provisions 41 of this paragraph shall only apply to claims for reimbursement submitted electronically.

42 SECTION 4. Section 108 of chapter 175 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 43 further amended by adding the following new paragraph at the end thereof:-

44 A carrier authorized to transact individual policies of accident or sickness insurance 45 under this section may offer a flexible health benefit policy, provided however, that for each sale 46 of a flexible health benefit policy the carrier shall provide to the prospective policyholder written 47 notice describing the state mandated health benefits that are not included in the policy and 48 provide to the prospective individual policyholder the option of purchasing at least one health 49 insurance policy that provides all state mandated health benefits.

50 SECTION 5. Section 110 of Chapter 175 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 51 Official Edition, is hereby further amended by striking out subsection (G) and inserting in place 52 thereof the following:

53 (G) For purposes of this section the term ""notice of a claim" shall mean any notification 54 whether in writing or otherwise, to an insurer or its authorized agent, by any person, firm,

55 association, or corporation asserting right to payment under a policy of insurance which 56 reasonably apprises the insurer of the existence of a claim.

57 Within fifteen days after an insurer's receipt of notice of claim by a claimant under a 58 general or blanket policy of accident and sickness insurance which is delivered or issued for 59 delivery in the commonwealth, and which provides hospital expense, medical expense, surgical
60 expense or dental expense insurance, the insurer shall furnish such forms as are usually furnished
61 by it for filing proofs of loss. Within forty-five days from said receipt of notice if payment is not 62 made the insurer shall notify the claimant in writing specifying the reasons for the nonpayment
63 or whatever further documentation is necessary for payment of said claim within the terms of the 64 policy. If the insurer fails to comply with the provisions of this paragraph, said insurer shall pay,
65 in addition to any benefits which inure to such claimant or provider, interest on such benefits,
66 which shall accrue beginning forty-five days after the insurer's receipt of notice of claim at the 67 rate of one and one-half percent per month, not to exceed eighteen percent per year. The 68 provisions of this paragraph relating to interest payments shall not apply to a claim which an 69 insurer is investigating because of suspected fraud. Beginning on January 1, 2012, the provisions
70 of this paragraph shall only apply to claims for reimbursement submitted electronically.

71 SECTION 6. Section 110 of chapter 175, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 72 inserting the following new paragraph at the end thereof:- A carrier authorized to transact group 73 policies of accident or sickness insurance under this section may offer one or more flexible 74 health benefit policies; provided however, that for each sale of a flexible health benefit policy the 75 carrier shall provide to the prospective group policyholder written notice describing the state 76 mandated benefits that are not included in the policy and provide to the prospective group 77 policyholder the option of purchasing at least one health insurance policy that provides all state

78 mandated benefits. The carrier shall provide each subscriber under a group policy upon 79 enrollment with written notice stating that this a flexible health benefit policy and describing the 80 state mandated health benefits that are not included in the policy.

81 SECTION 7. Chapter 176A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 20082 Official 82 Edition, is hereby amended by inserting the following new section:-

83 Section 1D. Definitions The following words, as used in this chapter, unless the text 84 otherwise requires or a different meaning is specifically required, shall mean-

85 "Flexible health benefit policy" means a health insurance policy that in whole or in part,
86 does not offer state mandated health benefits.

87 "Policy of Accident and Sickness Insurance," any policy or contract covering the kind or 88 kinds of insurance described in subdivisions (a) through (d) of the sixth paragraph of section 47
89 of chapter 175 of the general laws.

90 "State mandated health benefits" means coverage required or required to be offered in the 91 general or special laws as part of a policy of accident or sickness insurance that: 1. includes 92 coverage for specific health care services or benefits; 2. places limitations or restrictions on 93 deductibles, coinsurance, copayments, or any annual or lifetime maximum benefit amounts; 94 or 3. includes a specific category of licensed health care practitioner from whom an insured is 95 entitled to receive care.

96 SECTION 8. Section 8 of Chapter 176A of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 97 further amended by adding the following paragraphs at the end thereof:-

98 (h) A non-profit hospital service corporation authorized to transact individual policies of 99 accident or sickness insurance under this section may offer a one flexible health benefit policy, 100 provided however, that for each sale of a flexible health benefit policy the non-profit hospital 101 service corporation shall provide to the prospective policyholder written notice describing the 102 state mandated health benefits that are not included in the policy and provide to the prospective 103 individual policyholder the option of purchasing at least one health insurance policy that 104 provides all state mandated health benefits.

105 (i) A non-profit hospital service corporation authorized to transact group policies of 106 accident or sickness insurance under this section may offer one or more flexible health benefit 107 policies; provided however, that for each sale of a flexible health benefit policy the non-profit 108 hospital service corporation shall provide to the prospective group policyholder written notice 109 describing the state mandated benefits that are not included in the policy and provide to the 110 prospective group policyholder the option of purchasing at least on health insurance policy that 111 provides all state mandated benefits. The non-profit hospital service corporation shall provide 112 each subscriber under a group policy upon enrollment with written notice stating that this a 113 flexible health benefit policy and describing the state mandated health benefits that are not 114 included in the policy.

115 SECTION 9. Section one of Chapter 176B of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2002
116 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting the following new definitions:- “Flexible health 117 benefit policy” means a health insurance policy that in whole or in part, does not offer state 118 mandated health benefits. "State mandated health benefits" means coverage required or required 119 to be offered in the general or special laws as part of a policy of accident or sickness insurance 120 that: 1. includes coverage for specific health care services or benefits; 2 places limitations or

121 restrictions on deductibles, coinsurance, copayments, or any annual or lifetime maximum benefit 122 amounts; or 3 includes a specific category of licensed health care practitioner from whom 123 an insured is entitled to receive care.

124 “Policy of Accident and Sickness Insurance,” any policy or contract covering the kind or 125 kinds of insurance described in subdivisions (a) through (d) of the sixth paragraph of section 47
126 of chapter 175 of the general laws.

127 SECTION 10. Section 4 of chapter 176B of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 128 further amended by adding the following paragraphs at the end thereof:- A medical service 129 corporation authorized to transact individual policies of accident or sickness insurance under this 130 chapter may offer a one flexible health benefit policy, provided however, that for each sale of a 131 flexible health benefit policy the medical service corporation shall provide to the prospective 132 policyholder written notice describing the state mandated health benefits that are not included in 133 the policy and provide to the prospective individual policyholder the option of purchasing at least 134 one health insurance policy that provides all state mandated health benefits. A medical service 135 corporation authorized to transact group policies of accident or sickness insurance under this 136 section may offer one or more flexible health benefit policies; provided however, that for each 137 sale of a flexible health benefit policy the medical service corporation shall provide to the 138 prospective group policyholder written notice describing the state mandated benefits that are not 139 included in the policy and provide to the prospective group policyholder the option of purchasing 140 at least one health insurance policy that provides all state mandated benefits. The medical service 141 corporation shall provide each subscriber under a group policy upon enrollment with written 142 notice stating that this a flexible health benefit policy and describing the state mandated health 143 benefits that are not included in the policy.

144 SECTION 11. Section one of Chapter 176G of the General Laws, as appearing in the 145 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting the following new definitions:-

146 "Flexible health benefit policy" means a health insurance policy that in whole or in part, 147 does not offer state mandated health benefits.

148 "Policy of Accident and Sickness Insurance," any policy or contract covering the kind or 149 kinds of insurance described in subdivisions (a) through (d) of the sixth paragraph of section 47
150 of chapter 175 of the general laws.

151 "State mandated health benefits" means coverage required or required to be offered in the 152 general or special laws as part of a policy of accident or sickness insurance that: (1) includes 153 coverage for specific health care services or benefits; (2) places limitations or restrictions on 154 deductibles, coinsurance, copayments, or any annual or lifetime maximum benefit amounts; or 155 (3) includes a specific category of licensed health care practitioner from whom an insured is 156 entitled to receive care.

157 SECTION 12. Section 4 of chapter 176G of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 158 further amended by adding the following paragraph at the end thereof:-

159 A health maintenance organization authorized to transact individual policies of accident 160 or sickness insurance under this chapter may offer a one flexible health benefit policy, provided 161 however, that for each sale of a flexible health benefit policy the health maintenance 162 organization shall provide to the prospective policyholder written notice describing the state 163 mandated health benefits that are not included in the policy and provide to the prospective 164 individual policyholder the option of purchasing at least one health insurance policy that 165 provides all state mandated health benefits.

166 SECTION 13. Chapter 176G, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by inserting 167 after Section 4 the following new section:

168 Section 4A. A health maintenance organization authorized to transact group policies of 169 accident or sickness insurance under this chapter may offer one or more flexible health benefit 170 policies; provided however, that for each sale of a flexible health benefit policy the health 171 maintenance organization shall provide to the prospective group policyholder written notice 172 describing the state mandated benefits that are not included in the policy and provide to the 173 prospective group policyholder the option of purchasing at least on health insurance policy that 174 provides all state mandated benefits. The health maintenance organization shall provide each 175 subscriber under a group policy upon enrollment with written notice stating that this a flexible 176 health benefit policy and describing the state mandated health benefits that are not included in 177 the policy.

178 SECTION 14. Chapter 176G of the General Laws, as appearing in the Official Edition, is 179 hereby amended by striking out section 6 and inserting in place thereof the following:

180 Section 6. A health maintenance organization may enter into contractual arrangements 181 with any other person or company for the provision, to the health maintenance organization, of 182 health services, insurance, reinsurance and administrative, marketing, underwriting or other 183 services on a nondiscriminatory basis. A health maintenance organization shall not refuse to 184 contract with or compensate for covered services an otherwise eligible provider solely because 185 such provider has in good faith communicated with one or more of his current, former or 186 prospective patients regarding the provisions, terms or requirements of the organization's 187 products as they relate to the needs of such provider's patients.

188 No contract between a participating provider of health care services and a health 189 maintenance organization shall be issued or delivered in the commonwealth unless it contains a 190 provision requiring that within 45 days after the receipt by the organization of completed forms 191 for reimbursement to the provider of health care services, the health maintenance organization 192 shall (i) make payments for such services provided, (ii) notify the provider in writing of the 193 reason or reasons for nonpayment, or (iii) notify the provider in writing of what additional 194 information or documentation is necessary to complete said forms for such reimbursement. If the 195 health maintenance organization fails to comply with this paragraph for any claims related to the 196 provision of health care services, said health maintenance organization shall pay, in addition to 197 any reimbursement for health care services provided, interest on such benefits, which shall 198 accrue beginning 45 days after the health maintenance organization's receipt of request for 199 reimbursement at the rate of 1.5 per cent per month, not to exceed 18 per cent per year. The 200 provisions of this paragraph relating to interest payments shall not apply to a claim that the 201 health maintenance organization is investigating because of suspected fraud. Beginning on 202 January 1, 2012, the provisions of this paragraph shall only apply to claims for reimbursement 203 submitted electronically.

204 SECTION 15. Section 14 of Chapter 176G, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 205 striking out the second paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following:- A license 206 granted to a health maintenance organization pursuant to this section shall be renewed every two 207 years. The fee for such renewal in an amount determined by the commissioner shall be no less 208 than $1000.

209 SECTION 16. Chapter 176I of the General Laws, as appearing in the Official Edition, 210 is hereby amended by striking section 2 and inserting in place thereof the following:

211 Section 2. An organization may enter into a preferred provider arrangement with one or 212 more health care providers upon a determination by the commissioner that the organization and 213 the arrangement comply with the requirements of this chapter and the regulations hereunder. An 214 organization shall not condition its willingness to allow any health care provider to participate in 215 a preferred provider arrangement on such health care provider's agreeing to enter into other 216 contracts or arrangements with the organization that are not part of or related to such preferred 217 provider arrangements. An organization shall not refuse to contract with or compensate for 218 covered services an otherwise eligible participating or nonparticipating provider solely because 219 such provider has in good faith communicated with one or more of his current, former or 220 prospective patients regarding the provisions, terms or requirements of the organization's 221 products as they relate to the needs of such provider's patients.

222 An organization shall submit information concerning any proposed preferred provider 223 arrangements to the commissioner for approval in accordance with regulations promulgated by 224 the commissioner. Said regulations shall comply with the applicable provisions of chapter thirty 225 A of the General Laws. Said information shall include at least the following: (a) a description of 226 the health services and any other benefits to which the covered person is entitled; (b) a 227 description of the locations where and the manner in which health services and other benefits 228 may be obtained; (c) a copy of the evidence of coverage; (d) copies of any contracts with 229 preferred providers; (e) a description of the rating methodology and rates. The arrangement shall 230 meet the following standards:

231 (a) Standards for maintaining quality health care, including satisfying any quality 232 assurance regulations promulgated by any state agency;

233 (b) Standards for controlling health care costs;

234 (c) Standards for assuring reasonable levels of access of health care services and an 235 adequate number and geographical distribution of preferred providers to render those services;

236 (d) Standards for assuring appropriate utilization of health care service; and 237 (e) Other standards deemed appropriate by the commissioner. No organization may enter 238 into a preferred provider arrangement with one or more health care providers unless said written 239 arrangement contains a provision requiring that within 45 days after the receipt by the 240 organization of completed forms for reimbursement to the health care provider, the organization 241 shall (i) make payments for the provision of such services, (ii) notify the provider in writing of 242 the reason or reasons for nonpayment, or (iii) notify the provider in writing of what additional 243 information or documentation is necessary to complete said forms for such reimbursement. If the 244 organization fails to comply with the provisions of this paragraph for any claims related to the 245 provision of health care services, said organization shall pay, in addition to any reimbursement 246 for health care services provided, interest on such benefits, which shall accrue beginning 45 days 247 after the organization's receipt of request for reimbursement at the rate of 1.5 per cent per month, 248 not to exceed 18 per cent per year. The provisions of this paragraph relating to interest payments 249 shall not apply to a claim that the organization is investigating because of suspected fraud.

250 Beginning on January 1, 2012, the provisions of this paragraph shall only apply to claims for 251 reimbursement submitted electronically

252 SECTION 17. Chapter 176M of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008 Official 253 Edition, is hereby amended by inserting in section one the following new definitions:-

254 “Flexible health benefit policy” means a health insurance that, in whole or in part, does 255 not offer state mandated health benefits.

256 "State mandated health benefits" means coverage required to be offered any general or 257 special law that: 1. includes coverage for specific health care services or benefits; 2. places 258 limitations or restrictions on deductibles, coinsurance, copayments, or any annual or lifetime 259 maximum benefit amounts; or 3. includes a specific category of licensed health care practitioner 260 from whom an insured is entitled to receive care.

261 SECTION 18. Section 2 of said chapter 176M is hereby amended by striking out the first 262 sentence of paragraph (d) and inserting in place thereof the following:

263 A carrier that participates in the non-group health insurance market shall make available 264 to eligible individuals a standard guaranteed health plan established pursuant to paragraph (c) 265 and may additionally make available to eligible individuals no more than two alternative 266 guaranteed issue health plans, one of which may be a flexible health benefit policy, with benefits 267 and cost sharing requirements, including deductibles, that differ from the standard guaranteed 268 issue health plan.
