[SIMILAR MATTER FILED IN PREVIOUS SESSION
SEE SENATE, NO. 2265 OF 2009-2010.]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act improving juror service responses.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 4 of chapter 234A of the General Laws, as appearing in 2 the 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out, in lines 8 and 9, the words “the 3 juror confirmation form” and inserting in place thereof the following words: - “a juror 4 summons response.

5 SECTION 2. Section 21 of said chapter 234A, as so appearing, is hereby 6 amended by striking out, in line 5, the words “, and an alternate month, day, and year,”.

7 SECTION 3. Section 22 of said chapter 234A, as so appearing, is hereby 8 amended by striking out the first sentence and inserting in place thereof the following sentence:-
9 The office of jury commissioner shall provide a confidential juror questionnaire to each 10 prospective juror.

SECTION 4. Said chapter 234A is hereby further amended by striking out sections 24 to 26, inclusive, as so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following sections:—

Section 24. Every grand or trial juror shall respond to the juror summons within 10 days of receipt. The office of jury commissioner shall provide a means for the juror to respond. If the juror is unable to complete and sign the response, the juror may authorize another person to complete and sign the response on his behalf. A notice of the juror's duty to respond to the summons within 10 days of receipt thereof shall appear prominently on the face of the juror summons. Grand and trial jurors may confirm their service by any other means approved by the jury commissioner including, but not limited to, telephonic and electronic means, and such confirmation shall be as valid and binding as if it were made in writing.

Section 25. A grand or trial juror from whom the office of jury commissioner has not received a response to the juror summons by the eighth week preceding the term of service for which the juror was summoned shall be summoned a second time. The second summons shall have the same content and form as the first summons, except the words "Second Summons" shall appear prominently on the face of the summons. The second summons shall be sent by first-class mail, registered mail, or served by a sheriff or constable. A juror who receives a second summons shall respond to the second summons within 5 days of receipt thereof by any of the means set forth in section 24.

Section 26. On or before the sixth week preceding any term of grand or trial juror service, the office of jury commissioner may summon additional grand or trial jurors if it appears from the responses to the juror summonses that the number of previously summoned

33 jurors who will report for service will be inadequate for the needs of the court. A juror who is 34 summoned under this section shall respond to the juror summons within 10 days of receipt 35 thereof. A grand or trial juror summoned under this section from whom the office of jury 36 commissioner has not received a response to the juror summons by the third week preceding the 37 term of service for which he was summoned shall be summoned a second time. The second 38 summons shall have the same content and form as the first summons, except the words "Second 39 Summons" shall appear prominently on the face of the summons. The second summons shall be 40 sent by first-class mail, registered mail, or served by a sheriff or constable. A juror who 41 receives a second summons shall respond to the second summons within 5 days of receipt 42 thereof by the any of the means set forth in section 24.

43 SECTION 5. Said chapter 234A is hereby further amended by striking out 44 section 34, as so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

45 Section 34. A trial juror shall have the right to one postponement of his term of 46 juror service for not more than one year. The trial juror must exercise this right by responding to 47 the juror summons and indicating an election to postpone. The month, day and year to which 48 such service is to be postponed shall be indicated in the response to the juror summons. The 49 office of jury commissioner shall have authority to effectuate such first postponements. If the 50 postponement date so designated is improper, unavailable, or inconvenient for the court, the 51 office of jury commissioner shall assign a date of service which is reasonably close to the 52 postponement date selected by the trial juror. The jury commissioner, with the approval of the 53 jury management advisory committee, shall have discretionary authority to limit the number of 54 postponements allowed each day in each courthouse in order to maintain the integrity of the 55 demographic cross-sections appearing in the juror pools.

56 SECTION 6. Section 36 of said chapter 234A, as so appearing, is hereby 57 amended by striking out, in lines 1 and 2, the words “the juror confirmation form” and inserting 58 in place thereof the following words:— a response to a juror summons.
