The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act to prevent unlawful and unnecessary foreclosures .

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 35 of chapter 244 of the General Laws, as appearing in 2 the 2010 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following new subsection:-

3 Section 35B. Prerequisite to Commencing Foreclosure Proceedings For 4 Certain Mortgage Loans; Reasonable Steps and Good Faith Efforts; Safe Harbor; Regulatory 5 Authority.

6 (a) Commercially Reasonable Efforts to Avoid Foreclosures. (1) A creditor
7 shall not commence foreclosure upon certain mortgage loans pursuant to this Chapter unless it
8 has first taken reasonable steps and good faith efforts to avoid foreclosure. The determination 9 whether a creditor has taken reasonable steps and good faith efforts prior to commencing 10 foreclosure shall consider, without limitation: (i) an assessment of the borrower’s current 11 circumstances, including without limitation the borrower’s current income, debts and 12 obligations; (ii) the net present value of receiving payments pursuant to a modified mortgage

13 loan as compared to the anticipated net recovery following foreclosure; (iii) the interests of the 14 creditor, including, without limitation, investors and, in the event the creditor has received 15 federal or state money, taxpayers.

16 (2) In interpreting this subsection (a), except as otherwise specified 17 in a contract, a servicer of pooled residential mortgages may determine whether the net present 18 value of the payments on the loan, as modified, is likely to be greater than the anticipated net 19 recovery that would result from foreclosure to all investors and holders of beneficial interests in 20 such investment, but not to any individual or groups of investors or beneficial interest holders, 21 and shall be deemed to act in the best interests of all such investors or holders of beneficial 22 interests if the servicer agrees to or implements a loan modification or takes reasonable loss 23 mitigation actions that comply with this Section. Further, any loan modification offered to the 24 borrower must comply with current federal and state law, including, without limitation, 940
25 C.M.R. 8.00 et seq., and the borrower must be able to reasonably afford to repay the loan, as 26 modified, according to its scheduled payments. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to 27 prevent a creditor from offering or accepting alternatives to foreclosure, such as a short sale or 28 deed-in-lieu of foreclosure, if the borrower requests such alternatives, rejects a loan modification 29 offered pursuant to this subsection, or does not qualify for a loan modification pursuant to this 30 subsection.

31 (b) Safe Harbor. A creditor shall be deemed to comply with subsection (a), if, 32 prior to commencing foreclosure on certain mortgage loans, the creditor:

33 (i) determines a borrower’s current ability to make monthly
34 payments (the “affordable monthly payment”), reasonably taking into account the borrower’s 35 current circumstances including income, debts and obligations;

36 (ii) identifies a loan modification that achieves the 37 borrower’s affordable monthly payment (“modified loan”), which loan modification may include 38 one or more of the following: reduction in principal; reduction in interest rate, or an increase in 39 amortization period but not more than a ten year increase not to exceed a forty year period;

40 (iii) conducts an analysis comparing the net present value
41 of the modified loan and the creditor’s anticipated net recovery that would result from 42 foreclosure; and

43 (iv) either (a) in all circumstances where the net present
44 value of the modified loan exceeds the anticipated net recovery at foreclosure, offers and agrees 45 to modify the loan in a manner that provides the affordable monthly payment, or (b) in 46 circumstances where the net present value of the modified loan is less than the anticipated net 47 recovery of the foreclosure, notifies the borrower that no loan modification will be offered and 48 provides a written summary of the creditor’s net present value analysis, after which the creditor
49 may proceed with the foreclosure process in conformity with Section 35A of this chapter.

50 (c) The Attorney General may adopt, amend or repeal rules and regulations to 51 aid in the administration and enforcement of this Section, including regulations that determine 52 further requirements for reasonable steps and good faith efforts to avoid foreclosures as required 53 by subsection (a) and that provide safe harbors for compliance in addition to that set forth in 54 subsection (b).

55 (d) Prior to commencing foreclosure on certain mortgage loans, the creditor 56 must certify compliance with this Section in an affidavit based on personal knowledge. The 57 creditor shall record this affidavit based upon personal knowledge with the appropriate registry 58 of deeds, or for registered land, with the land court prior to providing a borrower with notice
59 under section fourteen of this Chapter.

60 (e) A violation of this Section constitutes a violation of G. L. c. 93A, § 2(a).

61 (f) This Act shall take effect upon its passage.

62 For purposes of this section:

63 "Creditor", a person or entity that holds or controls, partially, wholly, indirectly, directly,
64 or in a nominee capacity, a mortgage loan securing a residential property, including, without 65 limitation, an originator, holder, investor, assignee, successor, trust, trustee, nominee holder,

74 years or less, which term is followed by a period where the interest rate may exceed the 75 introductory rate;

- 76 (ii) interest-only payments for any period of time;
- 77 (iii) a payment option feature, where any one of the 78 payment options is less than principal and interest fully amortized over the life of the loan;
- 79 (iv) did not require full documentation of income or 80 assets;
- 81 (v) prepayment penalties;
- 82 (vi) the loan was a refinance of an existing loan that 83 occurred within twelve months of the most recent mortgage loan;
- 84 (vii) the loan was underwritten with a Loan-to-Value 85 ratio at or above 90%;
- 86 (viii) the loan was underwritten as a component of a loan 87 transaction wherein the combined Loan-to-Value ratio was above 95% or
- 88 (ix) the loan was underwritten where the ratio of the 89 borrower's debt, including all housing-related and recurring monthly debt, to the borrower's 90 income exceeded 38%.

91 "Mortgage loan", a loan to a natural person made primarily for personal, family or 92 household purposes secured wholly or partially by a mortgage on residential property

93 "Owner-occupied residential property" shall mean real property located in the

101 Section 35C. Prohibited Conduct In Connection with Foreclosure

102 (a) Proper documentation prior to foreclosure. A creditor may not commence 103 foreclosure when it knows or should know that it is not the present holder of the mortgage loan, 104 including, without limitation, if the creditor is not the original mortgagee and commences 105 foreclosure without possessing a valid written, signed and dated assignment evidencing the 106 assignment of the mortgage, in accordance with section fourteen of chapter two hundred and 107 forty-four.

108 (b) No imposition of unfair costs. A creditor violates this Chapter if it imposes 109 upon a third party the cost of correcting, curing, or confirming documentation relating to the sale, 110 transfer, or assignment of a mortgage loan, including, without limitation, a creditor must bear the 111 costs related to curative actions taken because a foreclosure was commenced without the 114 (c) No misrepresentations. A creditor violates this Chapter if it makes 115 statements to a state or federal court related to foreclosure or compliance with this Chapter,

117 statements about the offering of a loan modification, the borrower's history of payments, the 118 validity of the assignment of the mortgage loan, that the creditor is the record holder of the 119 mortgage loan, or the creditor's compliance with any other requirements of this Chapter.

120 (d) No imposition of fees for services not performed. A creditor violates this 121 Chapter if the creditor imposes a fee upon a borrower for goods not rendered or services not 122 performed in connection with a foreclosure.

123 (e) Business Referrals. No person shall give and no person shall accept any fee, 124 kickback, or thing of value pursuant to any agreement or understanding, oral or otherwise, 125 incident to or a part of a foreclosure involving a mortgage loan for having referred foreclosure 126 business or services to any person.

127 (f) Splitting charges: No person shall give and no person shall accept any 128 portion, split, or percentage of any charge made or received for the rendering of a service in 129 connection with a transaction involving a foreclosure upon a mortgage loan other than for 130 services actually performed.

131 (g) The Attorney General may adopt, amend or repeal rules and regulations to 132 aid in the administration and enforcement of this Section.

133 (h) A violation of this Section constitutes a violation of G. L. c. 93A, § 2(a).

138 limitation, an originator, holder, investor, assignee, successor, trust, trustee, nominee holder, 139 Mortgage Electronic Registration System or mortgage servicer, including the Federal National

145

146 SECTION 3. Section 14 of chapter 244 of the General Laws, as appearing in 147 the 2010 Official Edition, is hereby amended by replacing the existing Section 14 with the 148 following new Section:

149 Section 14. The mortgagee or person having his estate in the land mortgaged, 150 or a person authorized by the power of sale, or the attorney duly authorized by a writing under 151 seal, or the legal guardian or conservator of such mortgagee or person acting in the name of such 152 mortgagee or person, may, upon breach of condition and without action, do all the acts 153 authorized or required by the power; but no sale under such power shall be effectual to foreclose 154 a mortgage, unless, previous to such sale, notice thereof has been published once in each of three 155 successive weeks, the first publication to be not less than twenty-one days before the day of sale, 156 in a newspaper, if any, published in the town where the land lies or in a newspaper with general 157 circulation in the town where the land lies and notice thereof has been served by delivering a 158 copy of the notice personally to the owner or owners of record of the equity of redemption as of 159 thirty days prior to the date of sale, said notice served by delivering a copy of the notice

160 personally at least thirty days prior to the date of sale to said owner or owners of to the address 161 set forth in section sixty-one of chapter one hundred and eighty-five, if the land is then registered 162 or, in the case of unregistered land, to the last owner or owners of the equity of redemption
163 appearing on the records of the holder of the mortgage, if any, or if none, to the owner or owners 164 as given on his deed or on the petition for probate by which he acquired title, if any, or if in 165 either case no owner appears, then mailed by registered mail to the address to which the tax 166 collector last sent the tax bill for the mortgaged premises to be sold, or if no tax bill has been sent 167 for the last preceding three years, then mailed by registered mail to the address of any of the 168 parcels of property in the name of said owner of record which are to be sold under the power of 169 sale and unless a copy of said notice of sale has been sent by registered mail to all persons of 170 record as of thirty days prior to the date of sale holding an interest in the property junior to the 171 mortgage being foreclosed, said notice to be mailed at least thirty days prior to the date of sale to 172 each such person at the address of such person set forth in any document evidencing the interest 173 or to the last address of such person known to the mortgagee. Any person of record as of thirty 174 days prior to the date of sale holding an interest in the property junior to the mortgage being 175 foreclosed may waive at any time, whether prior or subsequent to the date of sale, the right to 176 receive notice by mail to such person under this section and such waiver shall be deemed to 177 constitute compliance with such notice requirement for all purposes. If no newspaper is 178 published in such town, or if there is no newspaper with general circulation in the town where 179 the land lies, notice may be published in a newspaper published in the county where the land lies, 180 and this provision shall be implied in every power of sale mortgage in which it is not expressly 181 set forth. A newspaper which by its title page purports to be printed or published in such town, 182 city or county, and having a circulation therein, shall be sufficient for the purpose.
