Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- SECTION 1. Section 1(w) of chapter 151A of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after the word "quarter" in the first sentence, the following words:--; provided further, that if the individual has worked for 15 or more weeks and such deeming renders the individual ineligible for unemployment benefits, the amount shall be equal to one twenty-sixth of the total wages.
- 6 SECTION 2. Section 14(a) of said chapter 151A is hereby amended by striking out 7 paragraph (4) and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:-

SECTION 5. Section 29(b) of said chapter 151A is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following sentence:-

Nothing herein shall permit a reduction of benefits solely because an individual leaves a subsidiary part-time job during his or her base period.

SECTION 6. Section 47 of said chapter 151A is hereby amended by inserting after the fourth paragraph the following paragraph:-

25 The receipt of any notice of termination of employment or of any substantial alteration in the terms of employment within six months after an employee has provided evidence in 26 connection with a claim for benefits under this chapter, or has testified at any hearing conducted under any provision of this chapter, shall create a rebuttable presumption that such notice or other action is a reprisal against the employee for providing evidence. Such presumption shall be 30 rebutted only by clear and convincing evidence that such employer's action was not a reprisal against the employee and that the employer had sufficient independent justification for taking 32 such action, and would have in fact taken such action, in the same manner and at the same time 33 the action was taken, regardless of the employee's providing evidence in connection with a claim 34 for benefit under this chapter. An employing unit found to have threatened, coerced or taken 35 reprisal against any employee pursuant to this paragraph shall rescind any adverse alteration in the terms of employment for such employee and shall offer reinstatement to any terminated 36 employee and shall also be liable for damages and costs of the suit, including a reasonable 37 attorney's fee. 38

Notice of any such redetermination shall be promptly given to the parties entitled to notice of the original determination, in the manner prescribed in this chapter with respect to notice of an original determination. If the amount of benefits would be increased upon such redetermination an appeal therefrom solely with respect to the matters involved in such increase may be filed in the manner and subject to the limitations provided in sections 39 to 40, inclusive. If the amount of benefits would be decreased upon such redetermination, the matters involved in such decrease shall be subject to review in connection with an appeal by the claimant thereon or from any determination upon a subsequent claim for benefits which may be affected in amount or duration by such redetermination. Any proposed decrease or increase of the amount of benefits based upon such a redetermination shall not take effect if any party seeks timely review in accordance with section 39(b). Subject to the same limitations and for the same reasons, the commissioner may reconsider the determination in any case in which a decision has been rendered by the board of review or a court, and may apply to said board or such court which rendered such decision to revoke or modify such decision and the board of review or court may affirm, modify or revoke such decision.
