COVID-19 AND EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS AND MANAGEMENT

SENATE • ROOM 413C • 617-722-1532
HOUSE • ROOM ____ • 617-722-____

The joint standing committee on Covid-19 Emergency Response and Recovery shall serve as an oversight and advisory committee to monitor and investigate issues related to Covid-19 emergency response and recovery.

The committee may report, from time to time, with recommendations for legislative action, strategies, and innovations, based on their review of information or on the findings of investigations, to equitably address and respond to the Covid-19 public health emergency and promote the successful and safe recovery for all residents of the commonwealth. The Committee shall share these recommendations with the House and Senate Committees on Ways and Means, which will assess the financial impacts on the available revenues of the Commonwealth. The committee may coordinate with standing committees with relevant jurisdiction established pursuant to House Rule 17, Senate Rule 12 and Joint Rule 1 to develop such recommendations. Prior to making recommendations, the committee shall solicit input from members of the public and relevant experts.

The committee may conduct oversight hearings to investigate and gather information. The committee may participate in hearings with other standing committees at the request of the chair of standing committees established pursuant to House Rule 17 and Senate Rule 12 or the co-chairs of standing committees established pursuant to Joint Rule 1.

Upon request of a Chair of a committee established pursuant to House Rule 17, Senate Rule 12 or the Co-Chairs of a committee established pursuant to Joint Rule 1, the committee may provide advice and guidance on specific policy proposals and bills being developed by or before a committee. The committee shall also serve as a resource to connect standing committees with relevant experts who may provide testimony and policy and economic analysis and other resources to the said committees.

The joint standing committee shall further consider matters related to pandemic and disaster preparedness and emergency management and communication.

RACIAL EQUITY, CIVIL RIGHTS AND INCLUSION

SENATE • ROOM 111 • 617-722-1673
HOUSE • ROOM ____ • 617-722-____

The Committee on Racial Equity, Civil Rights and Inclusion shall act in an advisory and oversight role to the Legislature as well as to the Chairs and Members of standing committees established by House Rule 17 and Joint Rule 1. The committee shall consider the implicit and explicit systemic inequities, possible disproportionate outcomes, and equal access to opportunities and advancement associated with general policy proposals. Upon agreement of a Chair of a committee established pursuant to House Rule 17 and Joint Rule 1 the committee may provide advice and guidance on specific policy proposals and bills being developed by a committee.

In discharging its duties, the committee may, without limitation, work with Chairs of a committee established pursuant to House Rule 17 and Joint Rule 1 to review and make recommendations to align existing general law, budget priorities, and state-sponsored services with the goal of supporting racial equality, civil rights and inclusion. The committee may prepare an equity impact assessment on specific legislation at the direction agreement of the Chair and subject matter Chair. The Committee may also work with executive and judicial branches to identify barriers to equality and inclusion existing in the laws, rules and regulations of the commonwealth.

The committee shall solicit input from members of the public, and legal and policy experts, with an emphasis on elevating the expertise of stakeholders with lived experience. The committee shall also serve as a resource to connect subject matter committees with relevant experts who may provide testimony and policy and economic analysis and other resources to the said committees.

The committee may participate with other committees in hearings by agreement of the committee chairs.
