Summary: This bill introduces an amendment to Chapter 175 of the General Laws, permitting insurance companies to send electronic notices to policyholders regarding the cancellation, renewal, or nonrenewal of insurance policies. The provision requires that the policyholder consents to receive such communications electronically. The purpose of this measure is to modernize and streamline the communication processes between insurers and their clients, offering greater flexibility in the delivery of important notices. The act is set to take effect immediately upon its passage.
