And the members of the House of Representatives, having assembled in the Representatives' Chamber, were called to order at eleven o'clock A.M. by Speaker Thomas M. Finneran of Boston.

Prayer was offered by the Reverend Robert F. Quinn, C.S.P., Chaplain of the House of Representatives during the sessions of 1983 to 2001, inclusive, as follows:

At the beginning of a new year and the second year of the 182nd General Court, we bow our heads in prayer and ask for Your guidance and direction God, Our Creator, in legislative matters today and in the months ahead. The new year offers us a good opportunity to evaluate objectively current legislative and social issues, to develop a new vision for the future, to utilize wisely our human and material capital and to appreciate the importance of human and spiritual values in daily living may we, as a nation and a Commonwealth, renew our trust in You and our commitment to You and Your ways as we face the challenge of this uncertain and changing world and country. Inspire us to recognize the common good of people and society as we struggle with the demands and expectations of the electorate in building a better country.

Grant Your blessings to the Speaker, the members and employees of this House and their families. Amen.

At the request of the Speaker, the members, guests and employees joined with him in reciting the pledge of allegiance to the flag.
